The convention will consider a pronosal to, next year, extend this kind of management training to department heads and junior executives. All this augurs well for the future - continued wrowth development and expansion of N. O. A. companies and it is the kind of organization for growth that will be discussed in Columbus the week of August 4th.

"Twenty-three insurance counselors will be signally honored for personally having placed $250,000 or more insurance coverage in 1957. They beong to the NIA's quarter million dollar roundtable. And, since this year's roundtable leader placed more than $500,000 during 1957, the convention will consider the formation of a "Diamond Circle" for men and women placars during a tweve month period. This new means of recognizing the service and achievement of our insurance counselors has been made necessary by the fact that already
