"The Greatest Humanitarian Of Them All"

DETROIT, Michigan — The Greatest Humanitarian of them all. With this inscription the Gertrude Reese Hicks award was presented to Dr. Frank N. D. Buchman, initiator of Moral Re-Armament at the annual banquet of the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs of America in the Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel Thursday night. The presentation was made following the address by Governor G. Mennen Williams, who had recently returned from Liberia and Ghana.

Dr. D. T. Burton, leading Detroit physician, in giving the award said, "Dr. Buchman is one of the world's outstanding leaders and humanitarians. He is inspiring a renaissance, a rebirth of the spirit and a new realization of human values which is reaching the millions of every creed and color around the world. Would to God all the nations, including our beloved America, would take their cue from this truly dedicated man and his faithful followers."

The award was received on behalf of Dr. Buchman by Dawson

MRA production "The Crowning Experiences" This play in its 6th week at the National Theatre in Washington, D. C. is based on the life of Mary McLeod Bethune, a past president of the National Association of Colored Women Clubs.

Shackled by Shopping?

Free Yourself with a Freezer!

Busy homemakers know the modern way to shuck shopping shackles. They shop at home the carefree freezer way and free themselves from time, worry and effort. All of which adds up to more time for other things.

When you can't take time to shop, just take the "cook's tour" of the frost-tipped food store you'll find in an electric freezer. Time's no problem and neither is choice. At your fingertips and fresh as the dew, there's a tempting array of foods to lend variety and spice to any meal.

Unexpected company drops in? ... please madam, no mad-dash drive to the store. Just delve into the cool depths of your electric freezer. Take your pick of the flavor-fresh foods ready to cook, heat, or thaw and eat.

No better time than the growing season to look over the wide selection of electric freezers and refrigerator-freezers now displayed at electric dealers everywhere. See one soon and see for yourself how you can free yourself with the care-free convenience of an electric freezer.
