Rumors Of Brutality Protested

NEW YORK - (ANP) - Move than 100 shouting, jeering Negroes surged around a Harlem police station last week to protest what they thought was police brutality.

The crowd gathered after hearing about a fight in front of the West 123rd St. station between two white plainclothesmen and three Negroes they had arrested.

Apparently someone circulated a umor that the police were mi treating the Negroes inside the station Police Capt. Carl Vollmer had to appear before the crowd and assure them that the men were not being mistreated, before the crowd dispersed. Extra patrol cars were summoned to the area. Police said two men were arrested

Diggs Versus Diggs In A House Race

DETROIT - (ANP) - "What's in a name?" is a question being asked on all sides in the Metor City, since the Diggs versus Diggs fight looms again. The name "Diggs" has great significance in this city and state-that is political wise,

In order to unwind the tangled go back to the time when Charles C. Diggs Sr., was elected to the Michigan state senate. He built quite a reputation for himself and the

During that time, another Diggs -Charles M., a minister-tried to capitalize on the "Diggs" name and gain a seat in the Michigan legislature. But he always opposed the original-Charles C. There were many open expressions - never proved, bowever-that it was a ruse to confuse Negro voters in the third senatorial district, split the vote and help to defeat Charles C in favor of a white candidate. Then when Charles C. Diggs. Jr.

ran for the state senate on the Democratic ticket to try to recapture the seat denied his illustrious father (who had been duly elected to the position. Charles M. entered the race again and was defeated again as usual. It was not until Charles C. ran for Congress and won, that Jr., moved into higher brackets and Charles M. was finally elected to the Michigan house

Now the political season is on again, and the Diggs' fight takes on renewed Interest-but this time in reverse. Roosevell Diggs, young and ambitious nephew of Charles C., Sr., and of course, first cousin to the present U. S. congressman, has entered the race to oppose the family's political arch enemy. Charles M.

In the race for a seat in the low r house, Reoseveli, in his camp aign, speaks of himself as the "Right Diggs" and deplores what he ealls the phantom tactics of his namesake opponent whose 'mis leading circulars attempt to giorify a disappointing record" by laying merican Medical association on Fri- food supply is unsurpassed in co known here has entered a fight | Lids' for sound putrition. known politically, but he seems to out that millions of Americans are the driver's license age, the big battle rages over the family car. Although roads seem cluttered with a variety of jalopies driven by the high-school crowd, the majority rely on the family car for their varied activities.

Since they do have this privilege, it's only fair that they should do the weekly clean-up job to keep the car presentable. It doesn't take long to make it shine-just hose it down and sponge it off in the shade so the hot sun won't leave water spots. And to get the whitewall tires Sparkling, brush them down with a solution of Spic and Span (one-half cup to two gallons of hot water), and dust and soil roll off in a jiffy.
