Air Force Sergeant Uses Spare Time To Advantage

GREENSBORO — An Air Force ROTC instructor at A&T College, and his wife, have used their spare time to good advantage during their four year stay in Greensboro. M-Sgt. Augustine E. Fairfax and his wife, the former Miss Rosalie E. Gravelly of Bluefield, W. Va., during the period earned two degrees, attending A&T College during off hours. The sergeant, a native of Huntington, W. Va., and a graduate of West Virginia State College, completed requirements for the Master of Science degree under the Air Force "Operations, Bootstraps" program. The degree will be formally presented at the next annual commencement. A career airman, Sergeant Fairfax entered the service in 1942 and was assigned here as education and training supervisor for the Department of Air Science at the college in 1954. He was promoted to the post of administrative supervisor last year. He leaves here next week for his new assignment at the Amarillo Air Force Base in Texas. Mrs. Fairfax received her B. S. degree in Social Science in 1956 and has been employed since as probation officer with the Guilford County Court of Domestic Relations. Castrate pigs at three weeks of age. For bee problems you can't solve, consult your county agent or write the Extension Beekeeper, N. C. State College.

FLOWER LOVERS VIEW GARDEN—Mrs. J. E. Strickland, of 209 N. Tarboro Road, and Cheryl Royster, her granddaughter, shown here, are viewing the attractive and beautiful multi-colored flowers in their front yard. Mrs. Strickland grows cole plants, snapdragons, red sage, azaleas, chrysanthemums, zinnias, and petunias. Approximately one-third of the backyard space contains a vegetable and flower garden. Columbia Records Have Signed Gene Mumford Of The Dominoes

NEW YORK (AP) — Gene Mumford, lead singer with Billy Ward's Dominoes for the past two years, has been signed to record as a soloist for Columbia, according to an announcement by Mitch Miller, Director of Popular Artists and Repertoire. A vocalist of proven mass appeal, Mumford has been heard as soloist on such Dominoes hit recordings as "Stardust," "Solitude," and "Deep Purple." Urged to sing professionally by Sister Rosetta Tharpe, Gene while still a youngster, substituted frequently for Bill Kenny, tenor soloist with the Ink Spots. Now a veteran performer in his early thirties, Gene will be showcased as a solo singer under his own name for the first time in his career with his first Columbia release due out shortly. Mumford formerly lived in Raleigh, N. C. His home is Durham, N. C.

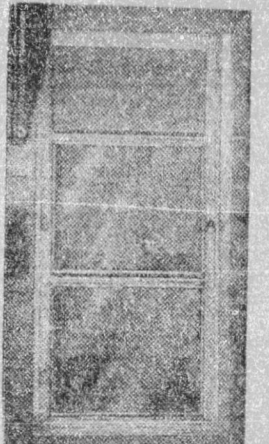

Arson Suspect Caught At Scene Of The Fire

BOSTON, Mass. — (AP) — Local police had to take Walter Washington, 47, into protective custody to save him from irate tenants of dwelling which is alleged Washington set afire in a fit of melancholia. Washington is reported by police to have tried to force his way into the apartment of Mrs. Donna Hopkins. Together with Mrs. Rita Sperison she managed to unlock the door while Washington ranted and raved outside in the hallway. The police were called. Upon arriving two radio car patrolmen smelled smoke in the building and spotted a hallway fire. Firemen later easily extinguished it.
