

AME Zion Church Meet Slated For Cumnock Next Week

33rd Session Of District Conference To Convene At Cumnock Sept. 17-19

CUMNOCK — Rev. J. A. Brown, presiding elder, Durham District A. M. E. Zion Church announced last week that the 33rd session of the District Conference would convene at St. Paul A. M. E. Zion Church, September 17-19, with Rev. E. H. Beebe as host pastor.

throughout the area. The sessions will begin at 11:00 A. M. Wednesday the 17th, when Rev. Glen Baldwin will preach the opening sermon and the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. Dr. R. F. Speaks will conduct a "School of Prophets" at 2:30 P. M.

A new feature has been added and will be known as the "Trustee Hour". June Prince, George Elliott, M. C. McIver, R. G. Bryant and Guy Mazzyk will discuss the duties and functions of the trustee at 6:30 P. M. This session will end with an address by Rev. L. R. Williams.

The Rev. J. A. Jones, pastor Cameron Grove Church, near Sanford, will preach the annual sermon at 8 P. M. He will be accompanied by his choir and congregation. A welcome program will be presented by the host church with Rev. Beebe presiding.

The Thursday sessions will begin at 10:00 A. M. and will feature the reports of the delegates. The Rev. F. C. Covington will deliver the noon message and will be assisted by his choir and congregation. The afternoon session will feature the local preachers. Each participant will conduct a regular service, including the taking of the offering. This is being done in order to determine how well they have been able to grasp church decorum.

Attorney Hall E. Langford will deliver an address at 6:30 P. M. and the Ebenezer Gospel Chorus will sing. The Rev. R. L. Speaks will preach the "Educational Sermon" at 8 P. M. It is expected that his choir will sing and a large group of the members of St. Mark Church, Durham, will be in attendance.

The final day's sessions will begin with the "School of the Prophets" at 10:00 A. M. The Rev. S. P. Cook will deliver the noon message and the Male Chorus from Holland Chapel Church will do the singing. A panel on "Stewardship" is programmed for 2:30 P. M. This is expected to prove highly valuable to both the ministers and the laymen. J. W. Harrison will discuss the duty of a steward in the A. M. E. Zion Church. Mrs. R. V. Horton will talk

Rambling In Chatham

GOLDSTON — PITTSBORO — SILER CITY

GOLDSTON — Hello readers, everywhere. Yes, most of the summer happenings are over, especially for the school folks. Yes, in Chatham County this week all school doors flew wide open and the school bells are heard once more. The school buses are finding their way to the routes to pick up those who walk by the road side for school. Teachers are also having to cut short their vacations and take up their class responsibilities. Well, you're all back and we wish you a very successful school year.

DEATHS
BEAR CHEEK — Mrs. Sophia Boyde, widow of the late Lee Boyde, of Bonlee, recently died at the Chatham Memorial Hospital, Siler City. Funeral services are incomplete at this time.

GOLDSTON — Funeral services for Theo Reavis, who died in Baltimore, Md., were held at the St. Luke Congregational Christian Church in East Goldston last Saturday.

GOLDSTON VETERAN TO TEACH IN FAIRMONT CITY SCHOOL
Word reached the office of this reporter that Royal N. Roberts has joined the teaching staff at the Rosenwald High School at Fairmont.

Mr. Roberts is the former president of the Goldston High Alumni Association.
