

Segregationist Group Stages A Secret Meeting In Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK — (AP) — More than 800 members of the Capital White Citizens Council met in a closed session here last week, with only persons having membership credentials permitted to enter the meeting place.

Barred were reporters, photographers and even two prospective council members who protested they wanted to join the anti-integration movement.

Reason for the closed meeting was given by Dr. Malcolm G. Taylor, a council director as: "First of all this is a private organization and why should we want just any FBI man or Government representative who chooses to come in here and take notes on anything we say?"

MARRIAGE FOR SARAH — Singer Sarah Vaughn and Clyde Atkins, 26, owner of a Chicago taxi firm, pose for photographers after their marriage at City Hall in Chicago, Ill., September 4. It was the second marriage for Sarah and the first for Atkins. Atkins played football with the Green Bay Packers, until a shoulder injury in 1953 forced him to retire. (UPI TELEPHOTO).

Louisiana's Blood-Labeling Law Blocks Surgery For A White Youngster

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—A Louisiana law which requires that all blood transported into the state be labeled "white or Negro" may be the indirect cause of the death of a three-year-old white boy. Gary Bilbo needs blood to build up his strength for an operation which may save his life. He has had many blood transfusions, 20 pints, at $45 a pint. Doctors say young Gary will need many more transfusions if he is to undergo the life-saving operation. Relatives in Laurel, Miss., say they will be happy to donate the needed blood, but the Red Cross cannot transfer blood into Louisiana because of the state law. "We cannot discriminate against race, color or creed," a Red Cross spokesman explained at New Orleans, Louisiana is one of the few states in which the Red Cross will neither accept nor donate blood.
