Grace Gleason's T. V. Premiere

NEW YORK (AP) — Six gorgeous young women, among them a Negro beauty, will grace the premiere telecast of "The Jackie Gleason Show" Friday, Oct. 3 (CBS Television, 8:30-9:00 P.M. EDT), the network announced. Candidates for the show are to be selected by Gleason himself at a special screening contest in CBS

Studio F, 524 West 57th Street, New York City, Monday, Sept. 8. He will select one American, one English one Negro, one Chinese, one French, and one Irish beauty, according to the network. The six will form the opening billboard for premiere telecast.

The young women candidates must be outstandingly beautiful of face and form, as well as representative of the six ancestral lines named, according to show producer Stan Ross, supervisor of selections. All candidates are required to bring photographs.

Mrs. Sophia Patterson:

Religious Groups Honor Raleigh Woman Observing 98th Birthday

God's face has been shining upon a Raleigh woman to bless her with the ripe age of ninety-eight. She is Mrs. Sophia Patterson who now resides with her son, Kinlaw Patterson, of 203 Smithfield Street.

band from Apex, Cary, came down to Raleigh to help Mrs. Patterson to celebrate. The group, under the direction of Mrs. Rochelle, staged an old-fashioned prayer meeting.

THE CAROLING GROUP sang Mother Patterson's favorite song, "In a Soldier in this Army."

MRS. SOPHIA PATTERSON

Mrs. Patterson celebrated her 98th birthday "in calm, moderate as anyone could have done," she stated that her chief desire is to visit her old home farm tract.

Another group, the Sunshine Band, under the direction of Mrs. Dally, also paid Mrs. Patterson a visit and sang carols. Each group member brought a gift, while the Sunshine Band gave her five dollars in money.

Unemployment Benefits Claims Have Decreased

Commission announced. "For the first time during a normal week since last November, continued weeks of benefits claimed have fallen below the 40 thousand figure," Henry E. Kendall, chairman of the Employment Security Commission announced. "This is 1,441 lower than last week's figure and stands at 38,809. While the trend down in unemployment has continued for several months, benefits paid this year so far are over one-third higher than for the same period last year. Latest figures show that the national average is 33 unemployed out of each 1,000 covered employees. No Carolina's average is 46.

"During July this year, the ESC paid out 4 per cent more than for the same month in 1957," continued Kendall. "For the 12 months ending July 31, 1958, the total benefits paid unemployed workers was 33 per cent greater than for the 12 months ending July 31, 1957.

"During July, 1958, $4,925,769 were paid in employment benefits. In July 1957, the amount paid claimants was $3,270,611. For the year ending July 1957, benefit payments amounted to $246,870,412 while the year ending July 31, 1958 showed $283,242,941.

"The decrease in the trust fund, from which unemployment benefits are paid, for the two-year period ending July 31, 1958 is $3,562,622. During that time the average payment for a week of total unemployment rose from $17.92 in July 1956 to $19.05 in July 1957 to $20.96 in July 1958. An increase of 10 per cent over 1957 and 17 per cent over 1956.

"As of July 31, 1958 there was a total of $170,179,497 in the trust fund. This sum is the amount considered necessary for solvency and is based on actuary long-range studies. These are brought up-to-date periodically. The last under the title 'A Study of Long Range Employment Benefits and Fund Solvency' was completed in December, 1956. It was made under the direction of Mr. Lowell D. Ashby of the UNC School of Business Administration in collaboration with the NCESC and the Bureau of Employment Security of the U. S. Labor Department.

"The total amount of benefits paid to unemployed has risen mainly because to many more workers come under the ESC law than formerly. Where employers of fewer than eight workers used to be exempt, the minimum is now four. Too, many have entered the labor market from schools and many women who found work in industry during World War II were not in the labor pool prior to that period. This natural expansion tends to push the total amount of benefits up. However, the rates of contribution are continually being evaluated to keep the program on firm footing," concluded Kendall.

Coach PETE WILLIAMS took the wraps off quarterback NAPOLEON JOHNSON last Friday night and the LITTLE BLUES blasted Fayetteville, 28-0. Johnson and company will take on ELIZABETH CITY at Chavis Park next Friday night, Sept. 12. AACT is loaded, ditto for North Carolina College. SHAW UNIVERSITY is going to fool somebody, and that somebody could be anybody. Watch out, State — JOHNSON C. SMITH has adopted the policy, "Hear nothing, see nothing, say nothing." — The boys will be out to get "SUGAR LUMP" BRYANT at Fayetteville this year. They didn't like those basketball shellackings he placed on their heads last year. — LIVINGSTONE COLLEGE will come back to life on the gridiron again. The new prep, DR. SAMUEL DUNCAN, likes well-rounded programs. — Judge HUBERT DELANY, of New York City, was in Raleigh last week visiting the folks. He has been a top man in New York for years. — JIMMIE YEARMAN, another Raleigh lad, has been assistant district attorney of New York county for twenty years. — The state of Virginia is the mother of presidents and Stephens Lee High School of Asheville is the mother of state supervisors for the high schools of North Carolina.

Two principals have stepped from the office of the mountain top school into the highest ranked official positions that the old North State has to offer on the high school level. First, Dr. A. E. MANLEY made the jump from principal of Stephens Lee to state supervisor. Now Dr. J. OLIVER succeeds Dr. Duncan. Dr. NELSON HARRIS of Shaw University once doubled rolled the high post when he accepted the responsibility of temporary supervisor until a capable replacement could be found for the resigning Manley and at the same time headed his department at the local university.

A few years ago Negro Educators referred to the different branches of study as "fields." For instance, a student would be studying in the field of science, or the field of mathematics or what have you, and he was eager in the high school department, college department or some other department.

but not too long ago some white author wrote a book and in it he substituted the word "area" for fields and the word "level" for department, so that now a student is in the area of science or mathematics or whatnot and it can be the high school or college level. Listen to your next average Negro Educator speak and if you remember nothing else he says you can't forget those two worn out words, "area and level." A few years ago at a meeting in Winston-Salem a gentleman by the name of SAMUEL CARY used the word "delete" in one of his statements—two thirds of the audience laughed—no one knew the meaning of the word and thought perhaps he was clowning, since that time many dictionaries have been fingered thru and the word has gone along with the Webster's. — The "ROYAL 23" that disbanded a short while back was the oldest social club in North Carolina from the standpoint of operation—Silas Webb, Berry Wilcox, late late Joe May, late late Paul Webb, McKinley (Gip) Taylor, "Red" Randa, Harry James and a whole lot of others were stalwarts in the Raleigh organization for years. — RAY WILLIAMS, a Philadelphian O.P., and his popular and vivacious wife BERT SANDERS WILLIAMS are house-busting with the OTIS (Jap) HESTERS in Roxboro this week. MEGGIE RILEY is staying close to home these days, hubby didn't like the three days she spent lost in Greensboro—so she says.

EDWARD HAWKINS took to his bed as soon as he arrived in Columbus county from New York City. "Ed" came out 402, he placed $90.00 on 401 the day before leaving the big apple. — An ABC undercover agent had the table turned on him and a companion recently in South Carolina hotel named The Arcade. For 35 years she held this job and pleased many hotel patrons with the delicacies of her culinary art.

Possibly the happiest moment of her life came when Mrs. Patterson married on August 31, 1904, a Mr. Edward Thomas Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Patterson, residents of Norfolk, Virginia. Her father-in-law, David Patterson, was a prominent farmer, home owner, and first-rate blacksmith.

WHEN MRS. PATTERSON'S husband died Easter Sunday in 1925, she was brought into the home of her son, Mr. Kinlaw Patterson who is a Raleigh painter and interior decorator. Now pains have been spared by her son to make her stay with him comfortable and enjoyable.

When she came to Raleigh, Mrs. Patterson transferred her membership to the First Baptist Church, of which Rev. O. S. Bullock was then pastor. Her Eastern Star membership was also transferred to Raleigh.

While highly intelligent, the toll of age has impaired her hearing and sight. She talks with some degree of difficulty, but her spirits are high.

THE WEEK IN RECORDS
BY ALBERT ANDERSON
For Associated Negro Press
SPECIAL ITEMS
Eight LPs and an equal amount of singles top the jazz fare. Two classical offerings and a jazz set also are on the bill.

In the LP group, Earl "Fatha" Hines, Roy Hamilton, and Perry Como are featured in new releases. Hines' "Mama," if I could be with you," and "Moonlight in Vermont." The "Pretty Mama" blues was first recorded by Hines in the Twenties. A fine set.

HAMILTON IN GROOVE
Disc fans will also want to hear "Wait For Me" by Hamilton, also on the Epic label with an orchestra directed by Jesse Stone. Roy sings a number of romantic songs in his always mellow and fascinating style. The disc gets a big boost from this reviewer.

COMO CROONS
Perry Como Sings Just For You features the rooming Coma at his delightful best. This new high fidelity collection of Como recordings includes 12 top selections done up in a romantic mood. If you are a Como fan, you'll love this set. You'll especially like him on "You Won't Be Satisfied (Until You Break My Heart)," "I'm Confessin' (That I Love You)," and "It's Only A Paper Moon." It's the Columbia label.

CLASSICAL FARE
In the classical class, an album by pianist Leon Fleisher for Epic titled "Brahms Concerto No. 1" stands out. The concerto, which Fleisher first played in a command performance before Queen Elizabeth of Belgium in 1922.
