Tobacco Outlook Bright At Vance County Markets

HENDERSON — The tobacco situation in Vance County is looking very bright so far this season. According to a survey, the outlook was estimated on the following points:

Harvested acres, 7,624; acres in soil bank, 331; yield per acre (estimated), 1,200 pounds; total pounds produced, 9,148,884; gross income, $4,714,710; soil bank payment, $75,320; grand total for 1957, 4,790,039; gross income from 1956, 7,001,490; less gross income from 1957, $4,730,039; estimated difference, $2,885,771.

Mr. Pearce, who is a tobacco official in this area, said he expects the yield this year will be at least 200 pounds per acre. The increase this year is due to the better culture practices and better varieties. In Vance County, rain is the big factor, Mr. Pearce said.

"Little Rock Racists" Work Underground On The Coast

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Throughout the years, the mere suggestion of race riots occurring in London, England, would have been unbelievable. But now, thoughtful members of the race are keeping their ears "to the grass roots" in California.

Careful, quiet investigation by the local ANP office find still evident at least three spots in the community, where with the sufficient "Kasper" brand of agitation, and an anti-Negro incident, ill-feeling could easily flare up. These three are Inglewood, an all-white suburb, adjacent to Los Angeles; Glendale, an incorporated town over a score of miles north from the city; and Long Beach, about the same distance to the south.

During the past summer, mobs threatened death to an elderly white couple because they had sold their home to a young Negro engineer and his mother. They also damaged the house badly by breaking windows and defacing it. LONG BEACH "HOME GUARD" PREPARES

As recently as World War II, and prior to the Supreme court school decisions, Long Beach was still notoriously anti-Negro. A friend of the race revealed that a secret group had invited him to join their "Home Guard", destined to "take care of the n—rs if racial trouble ever arose." By pretending to drill as a "home guard unit", they succeeded in getting 200 outmoded U. S. Army rifles.

The friend, a prize fight trainer, would have nothing to do with their evil plans. He mentioned that our local group should not feel too complacent, in the huge Los Angeles melting pot, for there are plenty of Negro haters among the thousands of in-migrants who arrive daily from the deep South. Inglewood was, not many years ago, a headquarters for the Ku Klux Klan, and hundreds of Klans-

By MRS. MAUDE M. BROWN
601 APPLE STREET

BURLINGTON — The women of the Clover Garden AME Church observed Woman's Day Sunday, featuring Mrs. Maude M. Brown as the speaker for the morning service.

Many churches and church choirs were represented. From the First Baptist Church came Mrs. C. Anderson, Miss Lela Hester, Mrs. Myles, Mrs. Harrison Johnson, Mrs. Lorne Forest, Miss Mozelle Hazel of Ebenezer and Mr. J. W. Pennix accompanying Mrs. Brown, whose theme was: "God's Gifts To The Woman Of Today." It was taken from Proverbs: 31-10-3.

The afternoon speaker was Mrs. Ethel Arden of the Bethel AME Church of Greensboro.

Music was furnished by the Blackmen Twins, Show Sisters of Gibsonville, Miss C. Jeter of Kittrell College and Mrs. C. Turner.

The oldest and youngest persons present received gifts. Mrs. Dorothy Slade, Mrs. B. Shaw and Mrs. Ethel Slade were the sponsors of the programs.

"God, The Almighty One" was used as the processional number at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning. It was a beautiful morning and a large audience was in attendance, considering the absence of the pastor, the Rev. H. J. Cobb, who was attending the National Baptist Convention in Chicago, Ill. The Rev. R. C. Walker, Jr., conducted the service with the Rev. H. C. Goore bringing the morning message.

Music was furnished by the junior choir, under the direction of Miss G. Gidney, with Miss Keith Pennington at the organ. B. T. U. was held at 8:15 p. m. with Mrs. Winifred Wiley in charge. The evening service was conducted by the Rev. David Jones and the Gospel Choir furnished the music.
