

ROVING AROUND GARNER

BY THURMAN L. WHITAKER
GARNER — There are several good protections against temptation, but the surest is cowardice. That's what Mark Twain said, and that's why most bank tellers don't talk off with the loot. It's why most restless men do not make a dash for their neighbor's wife. It can be the reason most mixed-up engineers do not take to smoking opium.

The Teller would never admit it, but for instance, that he's careful to steal the bank's money, father—if the idea crosses his mind, he brushes it away because of high moral standards and the fact that has just not the kind of person. The man who covets his neighbor's wife will also stay out of trouble if he's a true coward. He makes no move in her direction because it is morally wrong; he tells himself. Up to his ears in principle and integrity, he lashes back at temptation.

Way deep down, however, he yields not to temptation because he fears being caught and having his head whipped.

With youngsters, cowardice is an even bigger deal. To them it is a word that is directly opposed to brave, and that's all. When they tell each other "chicken" somebody's got to fight.

With many varieties of adult temptation thrust in their way, everyday, they are constantly looking for snafus and meanings from what they learned at home and what they were taught in Sunday School.

Sometimes it seems that the one who readily admits he's a coward. The funeral of Mr. Edward Hall was held at the Wake Baptist Grove Church last Sunday with the pastor, Rev. G. S. Stokes, presiding.

On last Sunday, baptizing service was held at the Wake Baptist Grove Church with the pastor, Rev. G. S. Stokes presiding. After baptizing service, church service was in command with Rev. Stokes presiding. His sermon was taken from the first chapter of John, 15th chapter.

We were proud to have so many present at worship service last Sunday, with different members of various churches, Deacon Enlouis

Williams of Springfield Baptist Church, Deacon N. McClain of Juniper Level and Deacon David Jones and Mrs. Claywood Whitaker Watson from the Poplar Spring Christian Church.

Mysterious Fires Keep A Family Of 8 On Move

TALLADEGA, Ala. — (ANP) — Calvin Tuck, his wife, and six children seemed to be plagued with a series of mysterious fires.

Tuck had moved from two other homes prior to moving in with his father, Otis Tuck.

After no fires for about two weeks, suddenly the Tucks' furniture, walls, and various other objects began breaking into flames for no apparent reason. Tuck and his family moved out, destination unknown.

Deputy Sheriff Pat Cooper told reporters, "I just think the whole thing's a mess."

"It's mighty funny nothing ever burns down. Just little fires. Nothing really serious."

Earlier Police Chief James Charles stated that he believed someone was attempting to frighten Calvin Tuck into moving, but added that he had insufficient evidence to make an arrest.

A state toxicologist reportedly is investigating the fires.

Charles maintained that some sort of chemical, as yet unidentified, was used to start some of the fires.

"I hardly see how it would be possible to start fires," the police chief pointed out, "without somebody seeing them."
