The Omicron Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority held its first Autumn meeting at the home of Soror N. Evans Lockhart, director of the Eastern Region, with the hostess, Soror Pauline W. Young, presiding. At the close of the business session, there was a social period held during which time reports by Sorors Evelyn Pope and Emily M. Kelly were made on their summer experiences. Soror Pope reported highlights of a Bon Voyage party given in New York City honoring the Grand Basileus of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Soror Deborah C. Partridge who was the sole member of the race to make a tour of Russia with a group making a study of Education and Living in Russia.

September hostesses aside from Soror Lockhart were Sorors Maude Y. Evans and Catherine Wilkins. The many friends of Soror Lydia Wall will be happy to learn that she and her children, who are now residing in Washington, D. C. plan to spend the winter with her parents, Soror and Mr. Joel Thomas on Poole Road; and, that Soror

A great religious feast is in store for all who attend the old-fashioned revival services at our church for the next 2 weeks. The services are being conducted by Rev. Hazel Brownrigg, a wonderful speaker from Washington, D. C. If you haven't heard her, you are invited to do so.

The 11 o'clock services on Sunday morning were opened with the professional by the senior choir using for a professional number, "We're Marching To Zion." After the singing of the doxology followed the pastoral prayer and choral response, after which hymn number 162, "O For A Thousand Tongues To Sing" was sung. The responsive reading was for the 39th Sunday, "The Faith of the Just." Scripture lesson was then read by Rev. Carson from the 51st Psalm. The soul-stirring prayer was also offered by him.

Our 2nd hymn number 400, "Jesus The Name High Over All" was sung as the congregation meditated prayerfully. After the singing of the spiritual, "Pray For Me," Rev. Carson presented Rev. Brownrigg who gave us an inspiring message. She chose her text from Jeremiah 2:32 "Can a maid forget her ornaments or a bride her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me, days without number." Themer: "Has the church forgotten God?" The minister began by saying that this was a fine time for a revival because it seems that the people have turned their backs on God.

She then enlarged on the following: 1. He reminds his people of their many blessings. 2. He reminds them of their sins and transgressions. 3. He accuses them of choosing other Gods. It was a great message. If we stay near God, the light of His love will reflect itself in us, and by His help we are able to guide others to Him.

1958 FINER FARMS WINNERS

We are happy to announce the decision of the judges in the 1957-1958 Finer Farms Program. Those communities and individuals listed here are cited for outstanding accomplishment in soil and water conservation.

All of the almost 2,000 farm families in the 63 county service area of Carolina Power & Light Company who instituted some conservation practices on over 200,000 acres of farm land are to be congratulated for their interest in soil and water conservation. While every community could not be a prizewinner, we do take this opportunity to salute each individual farmer who participated in the Finer Farms Program. By their efforts now, they are helping to insure the preservation and productivity of farm land for future needs.

Congratulations to all who participated in the 1957-1958 program and best wishes for continued success with soil and water conservation.

For details of next year's Finer Farms Program, see your local Soil Conservation District Supervisor.
