WALKING WITH GOD

GARNER—On last week as I sat down and began to meditate on my Sunday School lesson, the thought came to me—how many of God's believing children are truly concerned about walking in the light and pleasing God? I must say that if ever the need was great, it is now and more especially so when I think about the many that are still walking the downward path to perdition. I wonder how many of us do really realize that our time in this world is short, and if we are going to do anything for God, I must be done now.
The word of God has a lot to say how it should be to please God about our walk with Him, as to First of all, I am thinking about a scripture found in Genesis 17:—
"And when Abraham was ninety years old and nine, the Lord appeared unto Abraham, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before Me and be thou perfect." It is clear, from this scripture, that God intended for Abraham to walk upright before Him. Now notice that this was away back there in the Old Testament times that God required a perfect walk from Abraham. Now I would like to ask here has God changed His plan and requirements to suit this so-called modern age? I suppose that most everyone would say no, and truly the answer is no. God has not done any such thing for the Word says, "I am the Lord, I change not." Therefore I will have to conclude that if God required a perfect walk from Abraham in his day, then He requires the same of us today. Our walk must be perfect before God, or we can never please Him. Of course, I am not speaking about perfection from the world's standpoint, but from the Bible standpoint. And let me add here, also, for our walk to be perfect from the Bible standpoint, we have to walk according to the dictates of God's Holy Word. Our Lord said that we must live by every word, then we will have to walk by every word.

The Wake Baptist Sunday School was happy to have so many scholars present on last Sunday. Rev. Clyde B. Walton addressed the lesson "Justice in Judgement," which was enjoyed by each person present.
It was a pleasure to have the honor to be present in Vesper Services at the State School for the Blind on last Sunday with the Rev. Charles M. Crecy giving the address.

METHOD — It was a real high day at Oak City Baptist Church Sunday all day. A large audience heard Rev. C. R. Trotter preach a wonderful sermon Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service. Then at the evening service, baptism was given to new members. The revival service, which was held from the 22nd to the 28th of the month of September, was very successful.
Many new members were added to the church from this week's meeting and others who are making their homes here from other parts of the state, united themselves with this branch of God's church. We thank the Lord for this spiritual awakening. The choir rendered beautiful service for both services. Many visitors were present at both services.

Maple Temple Church News

By MISS LENA M. EURE

On Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock church service began with the pastor, the Rev. M. F. Booker, in charge. The Young Peoples' Choir led the processional singing, "What A Friend." When the choir had reached its place in the stand we were led in prayer by our pastor, Rev. M. F. Booker.
The choir rendered their first song of the morning, "He Keeps Me Singing," after which the pastor read the scripture lesson from the 6th chapter of St. Matthew, verses 1-15.
When the scripture lesson was completed, Deacon Eddie McBride offered a very powerful prayer.
While the choir sang "Give Me A Voice To Sing Thy Praise," this offering was blessed by Deacon McBride offering was lifted, and Holyway.
The arrangements for the week were made by the clerk, Mr. James T. O'Neal and the visitors were introduced and welcomed by the pastor.
"I'll Carry My Burden To The Lord" was sung while the general offering was lifted. The offering was consecrated by the singing of "Gloria Patria."
Proceeding the sermon the choir rendered a very beautiful spiritual, "Look For Me In Heaven, I'll Be There."
The pastor's sermon was centered around the 12th verse of the 5th chapter of The General Epistle of James. The theme of his sermon was "Prayer."
The sermon was beautifully delivered and much was learned about the "how" to pray and the "power" of prayer. I am sure it was inspiring and enjoyed by all present.
An invitational hymn was offered immediately after the sermon, "It's Me" with Miss Jean Simmons doing the solo portion.
We had quite a few friends and members to accept the invitation and come forward for prayer which was offered by Deacon Hinton.
The service was closed by the singing of the Doxology and Benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. O. Burnett.

SICK AND SHUT-INS

Mrs. Fannie McBride, Mrs. Mary Winters, Mrs. Carolina Woods, Mrs. Ada Evans and Mrs. Kissie Johnson.
THOUGHT OF THE WEEK
"Remember God knows our needs before we ask them."
SICK
Our sick are convalescing at this writing. All need our visits, gifts and prayers.
LAI D TO REST
Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Mr. Robert Buey was laid to rest in Method Cemetery. Funeral was held by Rev. Johnny Jones, pastor of the Fayetteville St. Baptist Church at Lightner Funeral Home.
Mrs. Syran Smith is a sister of Mr. Buey. He also leaves a wife and two small sons, many other relatives and friends.
The following poem would be helpful to all:
IF WE BUT KNEW
Could we but draw back the curtain
That surrounds each others lives,
See the naked hearts and spirits
Know what spin the action gives,
Often we should find it better
Purer than we judge we should
We should love each other better
If we only understood.

Could we judge all deeds by motives
See the good and bad within
Often we should love the sinner
All the while we loath the sin.
Could we know the power working
To overthrow intergly,
We should judge each others errors
With more patient charity.

If we knew the eaves and trails
Knew the effort all in vain,
And the bitter disappointments
Understood the loss and gain
Would the grin eternal roughness
Seem, I wonder just the same?
Should we help where now we hinder?
Should we pity where now we blame?

Ah! we judge each other harshly,
Knowing not life's hidden force,
Knowing not the fount of action,
Is less lashed at its source,
Seeing not amid the evil
All the golden gains of good
Ah, we'd love each other better
If we only understood.
