MAN SLASHED, WIFE HELD
RALEIGH—A woman allegedly cut her husband severely in a fight Sunday night, according to Wake County deputies. Henry Muldrow, 35, was treated for long knife wounds which required over 100 stitches at St. Agnes Hospital. His wife, Mrs. Beulah Muldrow, reportedly told deputies that she had "caught her husband dancing with another woman" at a club in Joe Louis Park.

She said she had followed him there after he had left home earlier. She told officers that he choked her which started the fracas. The woman was released on her own bond and charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

PLAN EXPANSION OF FACILITIES

WINSTON-SALEM—Winston-Salem school officials said Friday that they are considering a plan for expansion of Negro education facilities—a move interpreted by some sources as a possible attempt to stave off further school integration maneuvers here. Cortez Puryear, president of the local NAACP chapter, said his organization "will have a statement concerning the plan." A new senior high school for Negroes in E. Winston-Salem is among the expansion plans.

Church Bonus Money Rules

All purchase slips or receipts presented to your church must come from stores advertising in the CAROLINIAN. Each week carries a date in the Bonus Money period. Purchases eligible must come from the store during the week the "ad" appears. All purchases representing a business should be submitted. All receipts must come from individual purchases. All churches in Raleigh and Wake County are eligible. All purchase slips must bear the name of the store from which the purchase was made. All purchase slips should be submitted in the name of the church; and should be in the office of the CAROLINIAN the Monday following close of Bonus period. In order that smaller churches may have an equal opportunity to share in the Bonus Money the following regulation is expedient: No church of over 500 members will be awarded 1st Bonus Money consecutively. A church of 200 or more members receive 1st Bonus Money after the first period. It would have to wait until the third Bonus period to be presented 1st award Bonus awards consecutively. However, this does not mean that second and third awards cannot be sought consecutively. Consequently every church group has the opportunity to receive an award every period. No purchase of over $300 from any one merchant during a week can be counted. There is a ceiling of $35 per person a week for grocery purchases. In the event of the same amount of purchases by more than one entry, the award will be divided. Weekly purchase totals should be shown on each packet and total placed on the outside of the envelope carrying the period's entry along with name and address. Bonus money winners will be announced in the issue following the closing of the Bonus period. All entries remain the property of THE CAROLINIAN. All listings is final when the names of the Bonus Money winners are announced in THE CAROLINIAN, and no responsibility is accepted by this newspaper beyond that point. No receipts from banks will be considered, except payment on mortgages.

The Waterman girls' parents and school officials were to meet at 4 p. m. Monday to decide when she would start classes at Central. Attending the meeting were Central Principal Edward Sanders, assistant city schools superintendent Dr. John O'Leary and superintendent of schools Dr. Elmer H. Garringer.

It was at a meeting of school officials and the boy's parents Monday morning that it was decided to send Nathaniel to school Tuesday. A board spokesman had said last week that he would start.

Four Negroes were assigned to white schools here last year for the first time. Three finished out the first year, but one, Dorothy Counts, left Harding High School because of heckling.

Two Negroes were assigned originally to formerly white schools this year. Gus Roberts and his sister, Girvaud.

today asking him to abandon his attempt to be assigned to the Negro school. One caller, who McClure said sounded like a Negro, threatened his life if he did not give up the boy told police.

A police watch was put on the home briefly after the first call. McClure traveled to Richmond Friday to see Almond but "missed him by about 10 minutes," he said. He said he talked by telephone to Mrs. Almond, and she encouraged him to return.

McClure said if he transferred to the Negro school and closed it, then Negro students whose enrollment has closed white schools here would withdraw.

A spokesman for the governor said Almond probably would refer the boy to the State Pupil Placement Board, which is responsible for enrolling all students in the public school system. The Norfolk School Board previously referred the boy to the governor because his white school, Norview High, has been removed from the public school system and put under complete control of the governor.

BOMBING OF SCHOOL IS FEDERAL RAP

segregationist leader John Kasper, anyone in Clinton, and "whoever may come to the county" from interfering with peaceful integration of the school.

Kasper was twice convicted in the racial integration disturbance at Clinton, Tenn., and he has served a year's sentence for contempt of court.

Clinton authorities have unanimously blamed segregationist forces for the vandalism. Many Clinton citizens blame the explosions on "outsiders."

FBI agents are busy sifting for clues in the shell of the high school, which was torn by three rapid-fire explosions early Sunday.

Once evidence is established, the justice department is expected to move aggressively against suspects believed to have resorted to the violence.

The FBI has declined to define its exact legal jurisdiction in the case. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover announced Sunday that G. C. Gearty, special agent in charge of the FBI's Knoxville, Tenn., office, had arrived at Clinton "to take charge of all investigative effort which may come within the jurisdiction of the FBI. He also stated that the agency had offered its full facilities and assistance to local authorities in running down "out-of-state leads."

In previous incidents of racial violence such as the bombings of Synagogues in Florida and Alabama, the Justice Department has stressed that the investigation was primarily a local matter and the FBI's investigative hands were tied unless violation of a federal statute could be determined.

However, Wright's alibi revealed he found the woman walking home in the 1000 block of Smithfield Street. He said he noticed that the Johnson woman was seriously wounded, and he picked her up and carried her to 600 Boundary Street from where he called a cab.

Next Johnson said he took the woman to the Coleman Street residence and put on her body a pair of pants and propped her in a chair.

During further questioning, Wright said he called a second taxi to carry the woman to the hospital but she was dead when the second cab arrived.

Testimony revealed that an Acome cab driver tipped the police that a dead woman was at the Coleman Street residence. Police found the Johnson woman sprawled dead in a chair and Wright seated beside her eating pig knuckles.

Dr. Mays was among the small group of college presidents who met in 1943, at the invitation of Dr. Patterson, to consider a new approach to college financing. They organized the College Fund, a pioneer venture in cooperative fund raising for institutions of higher learning. Dr. Mays has Highway Patrolmen who investigated the accident since 1945.

One of America's leading clergymen, Dr. Mays is a former vice president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Prior to assuming the presidency of Morehouse College for Men in 1946, he served as dean of the Howard University School of Religion in Washington, D. C.

Thomas A. Morgan, retired chairman of the Sperry Corporation, was re-elected chairman of the UNCF board.

In his annual report, W. J. Trent, Jr., UNCF executive director, credited the college fund with setting two significant American patterns. It was the first of the country's education chests and initiated the corporate support for colleges and universities.

Today there are 38 cooperative fund-raising organizations in the field of higher education, and corporations are now giving substantial support to American education," Mr. Trent stated.

Commenting on the dynamic blast that wrecked an integrated school in Clinton, Tenn., Cole said "I don't believe in bombings but I think definitely the Supreme Court and the NAACP are responsible for it."
