Weekly Church Roundup

By Mrs. May L. Broadie

"Our Father, we need men and women in all lands to go into the fields to win souls for our Lord. Help us in our churches to appeal to our young people in such ways that they will desire to enter Christian service in Jesus' name."

WILSON LEMPLE METHODIST CHURCH—Church School opened at the usual hour with the sust. Miss Nannie Morgan, in charge. Morning services started at 11 o'clock with the senior choir in charge of the music, under the direction of Miss Nannie Morgan. Organist, Mr. Leon Haywood, assisted Miss Morgan. The pastor, the Rev. O. W. Burwick, preached a very inspiring sermon: "Who did Jesus go with the Pharisees?" Communion was administered at the close of the service.

YOUNG'S MISSIONARY TEMPLE CME CHURCH—The Church School opened with the sust. Mrs. Della R. Ford, in charge. Morning worship started at the usual hour with the senior choir in charge of music, directed by Miss Bettie J. Broadie. A very strengthening sermon was brought by the pastor, the Rev. J. N. Leverette, from the 1st chapter of Romans, 18th verse: "Course and curse of sin." Communion was served at the close of the service.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH—Church School began at the usual time with Mr. Sherman Lewis, sust. in charge. A large number was present for the morning services at 11 o'clock. The senior choir was in charge of the music, under the direction of the organist, Mr. Ernest Massenburg. The responsive reading was led by the Rev. A. J. Turner, from The Last Supper. The pastor, the Rev. Howard Cunningham, brought a very sweet communion sermon from the 2nd chapter of Galatians, 20th verse: "I am crucified with Christ."

LINCOLN BAPTIST CHURCH—Sunday School started at the usual hour with the sust. Mr. E. T. Sanders, in charge. At the morning worship service the pastor, the Rev. George Mitchell, delivered a wonderful sermon, followed by communion.

OBERLIN BAPTIST CHURCH—Sunday School opened at 9:45 with the sust. Mr. Walter Curtis, in charge. A large audience was present at the morning service, with the pastor conducting the baptizing. Dr. Grady Demus Davis baptized eight persons. A very spiritual sermon was delivered by the guest minister, the Rev. William F. Smith, pastor of the Good Samaritan Baptist Church, from the 1st chapter of Romans, 16th verse.

LILY OF THE VALLEY BAPTIST CHURCH—Sunday School began at 9:45 with Mr. Joseph Williams, Sr., sust. in charge. Morning service started at the usual hour with the senior choir in charge of music. A very uplifting message was brought by the pastor, the Rev. J. H. Graham, from the 1st chapter of Romans, 16th verse: "We need more power."

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH—Sunday School opened at 9:30 with Mr. William H. Taylor, Sr., sust. in charge. Next Sunday morning will be installation day for the officers and teachers of the Church School. Morning worship started at 11 o'clock with the senior choir in charge of music, under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Taylor James. The Rev. J. A. Lester brought the invocation and scripture was from the 27th chapter of St. Matthew, by Rev. Lester. A very uplifting sermon was delivered by the guest minister, the Rev. C. W. Ward, Macon, Ga., who chose his subject from the Book of Psalms. His text was, "Why?" Communion followed the sermon. The Rev. Charles B. McGeeary will be guest minister for October 12. He holds the A.B. degree from Virginia Union University and the B.D. degree from Arrowood Newton Theological Seminary. He served for several years as instructor in Bible and ethics at Shaw University and as pastor of the Oberlin Baptist Church here for some time.

At present, he is pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Danville, Virginia. The public is invited to this service.

ST. PAUL AME CHURCH—The morning service began with the senior choir leading the procession.

My Lady's Doings In And Out Of Town

al. Mr. R. H. Toole in the absence of Mrs. C. J. Wortham, presided at the organ. Mrs. H. J. Stridwick was at the piano.

The opening was conducted by the Rev. Miss Laura L. Edwards. Sermon was by the pastor, the Rev. L. S. Penn, who took his text from Hebrews, 9-22, "And without shedding of blood is no remission." Subject: "The Price of Redemption."

It was brought out that sacrifices are to be made in any cause that is worthwhile. Blood was shed for our redemption, blood through wars has been shed for various causes. Communion was administered to a large number. We were pleased to have some Shaw students attend our service.
