The Richard E. Harrison Public Library has the following films available for its adult borrowers from October 20 through November 14:

ASSIGNMENT CHILDREN (Assignment Films) 20 minutes. An account of Danny Kay's world tour on behalf of the United Nations Children's Fund last year.

GRANT W.O.D. (Picture-Arco) 14 minutes. The story of a self-taught artist with just a bit of polish added by a generally unsatisfactory stay in Paris who found himself only when he began painting the gentle curves on his neighboring hills, the neatly plowed fields, the daily routine of mid-western life.

LAFAYETTE, SOLDIER OF LIBERTY (WDF) 14 minutes. Highlights of the life and career of this distinguished French friend of American freedom, particularly his service to the United States and his friendship with Washington.

THIS JET AGE (BIS) 14 minutes. Through this film countless thousands more will be able to hear and see the sound and shapes of jet-age achievements.

new appointment by Sen. John W. right wingers in the U. S. Senate. But in the case before the Sixth Circuit Court involving Hilleboro, Ohio, public schools, he concurred in a majority opinion ordering desegregation.

Since the new Justice's political activities have previously been confined to the duties of a local Council, and to a Judgeship in a District Court of Appeals, he has managed to keep out of the mainstream of national politics and consequently avoided a label.

So those in the know around the Supreme Court agree that he comes to this high body with both liberal and conservative identifications, and only his performance on the bench will determine which is dominant.

Potter Stewart:

New Supreme Court Justice Promises To Be "Impartial"
WASHINGTON — (ANP)—I will administer justice without respect to persons and do equal right to the poor and to the rich and I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as justice, according to the best of my abilities and understanding, agreeably to the Constitution and laws of the United States. So help me God.

Thus spoke Potter Stewart in a short but impressive oath taking ceremony at the Supreme Court Tuesday.

The 45-year-old justice, who looks much younger than his age, hails from Cincinnati. He was appointed by President Eisenhower to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Justice Burton. He will serve on a recess appointment until the end of the next Congress.

He is entering the Washington scene and mixed reaction on whether he might be considered a liberal or a conservative. He has voted both Democratic and Republican. Having supported Franklin D. Roosevelt for President while a student at Yale and supported Robert A. Taft for the U. S. Senate in his first party primary in 1938, and has voted Republican every since. He admitted respecting and admiring both the conservative Sen. Taft and the liberal President Eisenhower.

While on the Council he consistently voted for urban redevelopment housing projects. And is reported to have voted about 25 percent of the time with Charlie Taft, a brother of the late Senator, who is a guiding spirit in Cincinnati's liberal reform political group which runs a Council slate against the Republicans.

Stewart was supported in this by Bricker, one of the most outspoken
