

CHORALE SOCIETY IN CONCERT — One of the features of the Founder's Day Homecoming weekend will be the concert of the Shaw University Choral Society under the direction of Harry Gil-Smythe. The concert will be presented in Greenleaf Auditorium on Friday evening, November 21, at 8:30 p.m. This eighty-five voice chorus will present compositions from the works of Mozart, Klem, Copland and Cioke. The featured soloists are Iris Hairston, coloratura soprano, Elsie Womble dramatic soprano and Paul Crump, baritone. Miss Hairston and Mr. Crump will alternate as accompanists.

Shaw Players Present Three 1-Act Dramas

The Shaw players presented three one-act plays Friday, November 7, at 8:30 p.m. in Greenleaf Auditorium. The plays were: No Greater Love by Clark Stevens, Minor Miracle by Vern Powers and The Sister's Tragedy. The play No Greater Love was highlighted by an excellent performance by Barbara Morris who played the part of the old lady. Miss Morris was supported by Kenneth Dillard, who played the part of Dr. Wright. Minor Miracle was well received by the audience. The characters were Vernon Smalls who played the part of Jordan, Edward Mason as Hale, William H. Peace as Dr. Clane and James Smith as Lester. The sister's tragedy was also a very good play. Characters whose performance was most applauded were Yvonne Rice as Louie, and James Ballard as Owens. Others were Paula Blanks as Philippa, Pauline Watkins as Charlotte and Vernon Smalls as John. The plays were directed by Miss Mrs. They were: Esther Sneed, Milton Anderson, and Betty Wright.

Fayetteville's Drama Guild To Present "The Crucible"

FAYETTEVILLE—The Fayetteville State Teachers' College Drama Guild, under the direction of Miss Lois P. Turner, Director of Dramatics and Miss Melba Davis, member of the Library Staff, will present "The Crucible," by Arthur Miller.

The play is a two-act drama based on the famous witchcraft trials held in Salem, Massachusetts during the 1690's. Mr. Miller is known as one of the leading playwrights of this country.

It is the custom of the Drama Guild to dedicate its major production of the year to one of the high schools of the city or county. This year's play is being dedicated to the E. E. Smith High School of Fayetteville. The Guild is a member of the National Association of Dramatic and Speech Arts and the Intercollegiate Drama Association. The officers of the Guild are: president, Jimmy Cummings; vice-president, Roosevelt Ellis; secretary, Dennis Burden; treasurer, Nathaniel Davis. Featured in the cast are: Argueha Mack, Mildred Bostic, Lola McNeill, Clarence Trascott, Milton Tucker, and Robert Howard. Supporting roles will be played by Gwenivere Scott, Estella Gilmore.

NAACP Official Given Award By The Catholics

CHICAGO — The Catholic Interracial Council here has presented an interracial justice award to Thomas A. Jones, president of the Chicago branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Besides Mr. Jones, awards were also given to two other individuals: a Catholic youth organization and a large business concern. The Illinois Bell Telephone Company was cited for refusing to contribute to hospitals practicing racial or religious discrimination. The Young Christian Workers of Omaha, Neb., was honored for its efforts to end racial discrimination in Omaha restaurants. Two other awards went to Miss Casey Ford, who helped establish a human relations club at Marquette University, and to her sister.

COAST TO COAST ONLY 1 1/2 CENTS PER MILE FOR GAS!

Pontiac's new Tempest 420E V-8 sets the year's most important economy mark—Here's the story and what it means to you!

PONTIAC COAST-TO-COAST ECONOMY RUN
San Diego, California to Savannah, Georgia
COMPLETED OCTOBER 12, 1958

DISTANCE	2,427 MILES
DRIVING TIME	60.77 HOURS
FUEL CONSUMED	112.5 GALLONS
FUEL COST	$35.79
MILES PER GALLON	21.7 Average for entire trip
AVERAGE SPEED	40.2 MILES PER HOUR
COST PER MILE	1.465 CENTS

We asked one of America's most respected car testers—"Uncle Tom" McShill—to put a standard Pontiac Catalina Sedan with our new economy V-8 to the test. And with only one specification—that the run would be exactly like you would drive coast to coast yourself—in mountains, in city traffic, across deserts, buying gas wherever the tank ran low. And here's the phenomenal story in every complete detail—all officially certified by NASCAR, America's top automobile competition authority.

What does it mean to you? Simply—and very importantly—this: For the first time, you can get deep-chested V-8 pep with better mileage than from many smaller so-called "economy cars" . . . and get it on regular fuel! If you owned a Pontiac with this new Tempest 420E V-8 you'd be saving up to 5 cents a gallon on regular fuel. This new economy V-8 is optional at no extra cost on any Hydra-Matic Pontiac! See your Pontiac dealer soon—and discover the newest in V-8 performance and economy!
