

"Negro's Faith In America Is Unshaken," — Asa Spaulding

DURHAM—Despite the fact that some Southern States deny colored Americans "due process of law," the Negro's faith in America is unshaken, Asa T. Spaulding, former UNESCO delegate said here Sunday.

Spaulding, who represented the U. S. as part of a 1956 mission to the UNESCO conference in New Delhi, India, addressed an Achievement Week audience at North Carolina College.

The Durham chapters of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity sponsored the observance.

Spaulding said in his talks with "little men" around the world on his New Delhi trip, he found that America has lost prestige. He said, "There are those who feel that much of America's loss in prestige has come about because of her failure to place more emphasis on moral and spiritual values; especially since in this day of technology and thermo-nuclear weapons of destruction, these are the values of which the world has greatest need; for what profiteth is a man to gain the whole world and lose his soul? Or what would he give in exchange for his soul?"

The fraternity observance has for its theme this week, "Moral and Spiritual Values: America's Greatest Need."

Speaking of the disparity between theory and practice in race relations in the U. S., Spaulding said, "To the Negro American, the physical image and estimate of the country are the same as they are to his white brother. The enjoyment of what America is restricted as applied to him, and his opportunities are limited in many areas, at least in practice if not in theory. Largely because of the badge of color, his life, liberty and pursuit of happiness are circumscribed."

There are still some sovereign states in these United States which would deny the Negro American the right to "due process of law" and to carry on through the established legal channels and constitutional processes, his struggle to rid himself of the shackles which bind him to a state of "second class citizenship." Yet, he still believes that under our democratic form of government and the "Bill of Rights" he does have greater privileges in theory, and greater promises of the future in fact than he can find anywhere else."

Arthur Edwards, NCC student leader, served as master of ceremonies at the program. Jerome H. Dudley, student body president, introduced the speaker, Robert Howie and Miss Celia Davidson furnished music, and the Rev. J. W. Smith, Jr., was in charge of devotions.

The speaker and Mrs. Spaulding were honored at a reception after the address at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Goodie, 117 Mansfield.

For Women

BY BETTY COOK FOR THE ASSOCIATED NEGRO PRESS

STUFFING FOR THE BIRDS

Shucks of corn, sheaves of wheat, apples, pumpkins and cider, too, all play an important role in forming the traditional "franksgiving" picture. Yet, the greatest of all stars on this day continues to be Mr. Turkey.

The success, then, of this annual feast depends largely upon the mighty "family" bird... how you've got the perfect recommendation. Here it is... "Sausage Rice Stuffing" This is a recipe with the essence of simplicity for busy homemakers; and it is one certain to please everyone.

Packaged pre-cooked rice — blanched always ready in fifty minutes — is the main ingredient in this stuffing, combined with sausage meat, mushrooms and a delicious blend of seasonings.

Once you've tried it, you'll agree it tops all stuffings and is surely one you'll want to serve with chicken and other fowl, too, on other occasions.

SAUSAGE-RICE STUFFING

- 3-4 pound bulk sausage meat
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 3-4 pound mushrooms, chopped
- 3/4 cup chopped onion
- 4 cups (13-7.8 ounce box) packaged pre-cooked rice
- 4-1/2 cups water
- 3 cups diced celery
- 3/4 cup chopped celery
- 4-1/2 teaspoons salt
- 3-8 teaspoon pepper
- 3-4 teaspoon savory
- 3-8 teaspoon thyme
- 3-8 teaspoon sage

METHOD: Place sausage meat in skillet and saute until brown. Add butter, onion, and mushrooms and saute 3 minutes longer. Then add rice, water, celery, celery leaves, and seasonings. Mix just until all rice is moistened. Bring quickly to a boil over high heat. Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 5 to 8 minutes. Put stuffing into turkey. Do not pack tightly. Roast at once. Makes 14 cups stuffing, enough for a 15-18 pound turkey.

CRANBERRY AND ORANGE SALAD

- 1 package orange-flavored gelatin
  - 1 cup hot water
  - 3/4 cup cold water
  - 1-2 small orange, unpeeled
  - 2 cups raw cranberries
  - 1 medium apple, diced (optional)
  - 3 tablespoons sugar
- METHOD: Dissolve gelatin in HOT water. Add cold water. Chill until slightly thickened. Cut orange in wedges and remove seeds. Put in wedge and cranberries through food grinder; add apple and sugar. Fold into slightly thickened gelatin. Pour into individual molds. Chill in ice bath. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Serve with mayonnaise. Makes 6 servings.

"Quiet Hour" Of Organ Music At NCC

DURHAM—North Carolina College's Music Department launched a special quiet hour of organ music on November 5.

Miss Celia Davidson, organist, will play an organ interlude from 4:30 to 5:15 in the B. N. Duke Auditorium on Wednesday afternoons.

The quiet hour is described as "purely an informal affair" aimed to provide only "a place for rest in a soothing atmosphere."

Anti-Bias Agency Head Cites Needs

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—With sharp and well-chosen words, Charles Abrams, chairman of the New York State Commission Against Discrimination, told delegates to the New Jersey Welfare Council at the Hotel Traymore here that the American suburban neighborhood had become the breeding ground of bias, fear, and discrimination and that a whole generation of American home owners were exposed to it.

Such communities have "subordinated intelligence to race, religion, income, color, or social status," he claimed. Mr. Abrams cited a recent study by his commission which made the following conclusions: (1) Negroes must have higher qualifications than whites to compete for jobs; (2) lack of formal schooling is more of a handicap for the Negro than for the white; (3) there is considerably higher drop-out among Negroes in New York State at the high school level; (4) only one out of five white high school graduates completes college, only one out of nine Negro high school graduates does so; (5) school grades vary for Negro youth from city to city in the state.

Also, the SCAD chairman indicated that although Negro youths from segregated schools in the South experienced difficulty in adjusting to interracial social situations in New York State, educators recalled instances where Negro students showed a "more positive and constructive attitude toward school" than their white counterparts.

"The Negro," one educator told commission investigators, "expects more of himself and maintains more of a direction in his academic pursuits."

"The Negroes do as well as, if not better than, the whites," according to traditional educational standards. Mr. Abrams told the conference's delegates that there should be a more effective President's Committee on Government Contracts and Federal Civil Rights Commission.

With reference to the Civil Rights Commission, Mr. Abrams stated that when most of its efforts should have been directed primarily to Mississippi, Arkansas and the South generally, "it has chosen to spread its fragile wings to embrace the 49 separate states with 49 separate state committees—including one each in New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, which have shown more regard for the protection of minorities than some of the Commission's members."

Massie Patterson Carib Singers To Tour Many Areas

NEW YORK CITY—Last Sunday evening, Massie Patterson, who has for some years been furthering the knowledge and appreciation of calypso singing and dancing, presented her group in the Young Men's Hebrew Association's Kaufman Concert Hall, 92nd Street and Lexington Avenue.

The program consisted of such Jamaican folk songs as: "Vendors on Way to Victoria Market," "Dumplin' Woman," and "Cha, Cha, Cha," by the entire ensemble; a trio number "Shimmy Like a Lady" (Mickey Newby, Zebadiah Collins, Joyce Johnson); and a solo entitled "Perseverance" (Collins).

Featuring the music of Trinidad were: Donkey Song Medley, Limbo, Marlan, Boo Boo Man, Back to Back and Basay Down (ensemble numbers); Pip Knuckles (George Palmer); Stone Cold in De Market (Gigi Guitard); The Little Master (Guinard and Helen Walker); Better Woman (Walker); and Siesta (Newby, Alvin George, Barbara Gordon, Lance Haven).

Representing Haiti were: Impression of a voodoo ritual (ensemble); and Invocation to Damballa (Johnson, Haven Walker). Even Bahaman music was included: Peas and Rice (Haven).

And as a precautionary foil to excessive song, there was a native orchestra number, Jerome Jeffrey contributed Dance to the Drummer, Newby and Collins presented Dance (Stick Fight); and Jeffrey and Walker danced Belle Congo. There was a calypso arrangement of Little Maids (Walker, Guinard, Gordon, Robert Whittier, Newby, Collins) and a song by Massie Patterson, Miss Emmalina Johnson, Collins, Whittier and Ralph Dorsey rendered a drum duet. Marie Lee was the off-stage pianist thru out the program. The costumes were designed by

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months! In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements: "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing. All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body. This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment, with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.
