Choir Heard

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Myra Mebane Thomas, is characterized by its splendid training, excellent voices and superb intonations. The director knows well how to extract the best from the group. Good diction, coupled with sonorous singing, are out-standing features of the group. The choir rendered selections from Bach, Mozart, Beethoven and interesting arrangements by William Dawson and Frederick Hall. Mrs. K. Eloise Simpson was the acrected and accompanied the companist, while Clark Colvin di-octette.
