

Suitcase Stuff

By "Skink" Browning

NEVER PULL OFF ON RED
"I ain't guilty, I ain't guilty." Atho the cop "cused" me of splitting a red light or stopping on red and pulling off on the same, "I still ain't guilty." How in the world could I be so stupid as to pull off on red with a cop sitting in the patrol car to my right and the stop light dangling high in the middle of the street directly in front of my eyes. Yet a block and a half away from the scene the patrol car pulled up, the officer got out, asked me the usual questions and gave me a ticket. Well, I was flabbergasted.

"Now, in all my years of driving, two and a half to be exact, I've never had a ticket, so why now? If I were a young driver with megar experience, maybe I would split a light; but with my years of experience behind the wheel, it's nearly a joke.

"I decided to ret me a lawyer and face the judge squarely on my good driving record.

"Yes, in Greensboro, I remember that every car was doing in one direction down the street and I was going the opposite, but I thought that I had bumped into a funeral procession. I noticed that passing drivers stared at me like I was crazy. Some yelled at me—quite a friendly bunch I thought—those that stared maybe didn't quite recognize me. The cop did and stopped me at the intersection and pointed to the "one way arrow," then sent me three blocks off my course, after giving me an embarrassing public lecture.

"In Charlotte a traffic officer pulled me from off the main thoroughfare, climbed in and carried me to a lonesome back street, told me to park and walk downtown until I could learn to stay in the right lane.

"In the middle lane in High Point, I opened my front door to give it a good slam right catch, a passer car took it off and carried it a few feet down the street. I used my without action. I drove "open air" for two weeks.

"In South Boston, Va. I saw my man be much gas and limped up on the sidewalk, searching his bystander to death. The glass to the store that I went into belonged to a friend. We settled it. But I was barred off Main St. until I learned to keep my trap off store fronts.

"Now, how could I split a red light with my advanced knowledge of "wrong driving tactics."

"In court I decided to plead guilty. My eye witness didn't show up—neither did the cop. His written statement was enough. I said to myself maybe I did split the red light and maybe the officer at first decided to pass me up as a day dreamer and reversed his mental decision when he realized that day dreamers shouldn't be driving cars—that's why he flagged me a block and a half away from the scene.

"The judge was a learned man of high renown. The atmosphere around him embodied the total essence of dignity. His reception was sympathetic. His fine was $8.85. I had five, borrowed $4.85 from a nearby similar victim and walked out, only to meet a fellow newspaperman rushing up to pay a parking violation."

Cornelius Donaldson and Elma M. Smith of Raleigh are man and wife by law. But so is Donaldson and his first wife, also Elma Smith and her first mate. Neither had bothered about the technicalities of divorce. They were a happy couple until Monday morning in court.

Lawyer M. E. Johnson of Durham is now professor Johnson of the North Carolina College by school.

Jacqueline McCrimmon of Sanford is a lovely, snappy Miss that anyone would enjoy reeking to. She is a school marm.

Officer Henry Harris of Sanford is a graduate of A&T College. He has nothing but praise for Sanford's police dept.

A popular society matron of Fayetteville, reportedly, consumes an average of 18 cans of beer a day.

Dr. Simmons of Sanford is fast becoming a golf enthusiast. He can drive from one side of his front yard to the other.

The popular and well-known "Big M" of Greensboro was turkey day guest to the Agnes-Bagley football game in Durham last Thursday. He has been 30 years a New Yorker.

Dr. Hugh Isadore Pontolico Nanton of Fayetteville State Teachers College weekendend in the capital city. He was guest at the Debutante ball and was swamped with handshakes and back pats from a multitude of seasoned friends whose cultivation stems back to the years when he was publisher of Raleigh's Carolina Tribune, the forerunner of the present "Carolinian".

Goldsboro News

By J. H. GRAHAM

Barnes Business College News

GOLDSBORO—Miss Lillie M. Sutton of Hookerton, a 1958 graduate of Barnes Business College, has passed a Civil Service examination and is accepting work as a clerk in Washington, D. C. Miss Sutton formerly worked at Hoover Funeral Home in Wadesboro.

Mrs. D. A. Barnes, director of Barnes Business College, acted as consultant for a Charm School, sponsored by the Epistol Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Omega Sorority.

At our Friday's assembly Miss Jean V. Edwards presented and dramatized a popular entitled, "Good Manners are Good Business." This topic was taken from the November issue of "Today's Secretary."

The Typewriting Class is entering a Competent Typist Test from the November issue of "Today's Secretary."

On Wednesday, November 19, Mr. R. L. Smith, who is a representative of the Raleigh Jewelry Co., visited our Salesmanship Class. The class enjoyed Mr. Smith's talk on salesmanship and his gained a great deal from his talk.

Miss Helen Korneyak, an advanced student at B.B.C., returned on Monday, November 17, to resume her work. Miss Korneyak is majoring in Junior Secretarial Science. It is indeed a great pleasure to have Miss Korneyak back with us.

The Greater T. C. Club met November 23 with Miss Shirley Patton, 308 East Hillsboro Street Mr. Olive, at 9:30 p.m.

Many suggestions were offered for raising money to improve the club. One of the club's purposes is to build up a scholarship fund to help some worthy student in obtaining an education at Winston-Salem Teachers College.

Those attending the meeting were as follows: Mrs. Poy S. Williams, Mrs. Rachelle E. Richardson, Mrs. Eloise M. Larkin, Mrs. Jesse M. Kelly, Miss Shirley Patton, Mr. Falcley Malloy, Mr. Kelly and Miss Tarlita P. Middleton.

We are asking all T. C.ites in Goldsboro and Wayne County to join us in the new year. The next meeting will be held in January, 1959, at the home of Miss Tarlita P. Middleton, 414 South George St., Goldsboro.

Visiting with Prof. and Mrs. R. C. Christian for the holiday season was their son, R. C., Jr., a student of Voorhes Junior College, Denmark, S. C.

Miss Geraldine Jackson, a student of A&T College, spent the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Jackson.

Visiting with Prof. and Mrs. H. V. Brown for the holiday season were their daughter and husband, Prof. and Mrs. James Harper, of Kinston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hines of Seven Springs. Their granddaughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Julius Brown (Miss Jacqueline Harper) of Baltimore Md.

One of Goldsboro's well-known men, Mr. Romeo Faison, died last week after having been in poor health for many years. He was caretaker of the courthouse lawn until his health failed, then he operated a grocery store on Iser Street. His funeral was held Saturday, Nov. 29, at 2 P.M. from Mt. Calvary Baptist Church on Denmark Street. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Katie Faison of the home; one son, Harry Faison of Phila., Pa.; one sister, Mrs. Annie Faison of Goldsboro; several nieces including Mrs. Geneva B. Hamilton of Goldsboro; Mrs. Gertrude F. Gibbs of Richmond, Va.; Miss Corine Faison, of Goldsboro; five nephews, including Dr. Gene A. Bass and Jeffrey Faison of Goldsboro; one sister-in-law Mrs. Estella Bass, Goldsboro.

STUDENT COUNCIL CONVENTION
This year Dilard High School, Goldsboro, is being host to the North Carolina Association of Student Councils on December 10, 11, and 12.

Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, president of Virginia Union University will speak at the public meeting in the high school auditorium on December 11 at 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend this session.

Dr. Joanne Noble, national president of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, will be the special consultant for the Problem Clinic on Friday, December 12, at 10 a. m.

Mr. Larry White, of Charlotte, president of the State Association will deliver the closing address on Friday morning.

MARRIAGES
In a double-rim ceremony, Miss Ina Lee Loftin and Mr. Claude Lee Harper, both of Route 2, LaGrange, were married Saturday night, Nov. 13, at 7 o'clock at the home of Rev. J. E. Blue, 605 Iser St.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Cora Loftin and the late Mr. James Loftin. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Will Harper.

Mrs. Georgia Cox of Goldsboro, announces the marriage of her daughter, Dixie, to Perry Williams, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lebbie Williams of LaGrange. The ceremony took place at 4 p. m. at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Joseph E. Blue of Goldsboro.

No Chapter, Tau Gamma Delta Sorority presented, "A PANORAMA OF PROGRESS," Friday, Nov. 21 at West Elm Street Junior High School.

This program featured business and contestants of the city and neighboring towns.

Fashion show models were as follows:
Miss Julia Johnson, Miss Wattie Smith, Mrs. R. O. Weathers, Mrs. Retha P. Arnette, Mrs. Winnie Smith, Mrs. Gloria Kirk, Mrs. Gertrude Dorch, Miss Arabia Burn, Mrs. Rachelle Richardson, Mrs. Viola Myrick and Mr. Neil Stitt.

HAIR STYLES
Mr. Bonnie Barnes, Miss Beverly Best, Miss Patricia Burdon, Cynthia Kirk, Annie B. Grant, Carolyn Simmons, and Sybil Scott.

THE FEMININE FRONT

By Rosalie Williams

At the AKA-sponsored 21st Annual Debutante Ball last Friday night in Memorial Auditorium the debutantes were the usual young glamorous things of beauty in their bouffant white evening gowns and bouquets of red roses. Approximately 60 young ladies were officially welcomed into North Carolina society by Dr. F. P. Payne, Dean of Shaw University.

Their dresses almost all rivaled each other in beauty and it was hard to make a choice for the prettiest. But it was in that one big formal bow that each young lady revealed her individuality. Some were demure and shy, some hesitant and a bit awkward. Some were lighthearted and gay, others serious and responsible. And there were a couple or so who "hammed it up a bit."

Speaking of ham, those two young men who appeared with top hat and cane in hand to escort their young ladies to their positions certainly contributed their share.

Parents and sponsors, and all who had a hand in making the ball a success should be congratulated for making the affair a memorable one for the debutantes. There was standing room only in the auditorium and people were here from all over North Carolina and from several other states.

Some parents had parties after the ball for their debutante daughters and friends. One such party was sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Frank White of Raleigh and Dr. and Mrs. "Bill" Hoffer of Elizabeth City for their respective daughters, Johnnie and Julia.

Guests at the party were Elvera Quick, Jacqueline Thomas, Eleanor Nunn, Mary Collins, Dianna Teale, Mercedes Winters, Margaret Williams, Ann Morgan, Catherine Burnett, Ruth Toole, Garland and Sylvia. They'll certainly be missed in this neighborhood.

Peter B. Williams, III (Little Pete) has been transferred from St. Agnes Hospital to Veterans Hospital in Durham where he will be confined for observation and diagnosis.

Condolences to the family of Mrs. Naomi Lancaster Toole who died in Washington last week.

Mrs. Alberta Livingston spent a few days in Florida recently with her parents. Her father has been seriously ill.

Friends of Dr. H. L. F. Nanton were happy to see him back in Raleigh during the recent holidays. He was guest of the A. J. Turners who have moved into a new home in Rochester Heights. Dr. Nanton is now on the staff at Fayetteville State Teachers College.

The George Foxwells are now in a new home in Rochester Heights also.

Clinton News

By H. M. JOHNSON

MID-WINTER CONFERENCE

CLINTON—The North Carolina State Association of IBOEW met in Clinton with the W. Carter Lodge 1149 and Mossett's Temple 329 Sunday, Nov. 30th. The program began with worship with the Lisbon Street Baptist Church members. The pastor, the Rev. H. R. Cordell, welcomed the visitors on behalf of the church.

Dr. W. C. Weaver, of the Elm Hall on Lisbon Street, presided.

In the afternoon the business session was held at the ball. After this the group assembled at the Lisbon Street Church for a program. Music was furnished by the Sampson High School choir under the direction of Mr. Howard Boney and Mr. Washington. A welcome address on behalf of the church was given by Deacon W. C. Cunningham. A welcome address on behalf of the city was given by Mayor Robert Powell. The response was given by Mrs. Letitia Smith, state president of the Daughters. The speaker for the afternoon was Mr. L. L. Smith, principal of Harcourt High School. The speaker was introduced by Mr. O. A. Dupres.

IN THE CITY
Many of the students from the different colleges were home for the holidays. Among them were Misses Joan Bennett and Evelyn Morrissey and Mr. Ernest Parker from N. C. College, and Miss Jennifer Bennett from Shaw University.

Called to the City
Mrs. Alice Parker of Englewood, N. J. and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrissey of Washington, D. C. were called to the city last week to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Esther Moore.

FUNERALIZED
The funeral of Mrs. Esther Morrissey Moore was held at the First Baptist Church Nov. 29, at 2 p.m. Rev. G. M. Grimes, pastor of Six Run Baptist Church, officiated. Survivors include a husband, Mr. Frank Moore; 3 daughters, H. sons, James, Mr. Winford Morrissey; 4 sisters and 3 brothers.

SICK AND SHUT-IN
Mr. J. M. Holmes is a patient of the Sampson Memorial Hospital. We learned that he is doing very well. Also in the hospital is Mrs. Katherine Robinson. Let us remember these sick people with our prayers and a visit.

A THOUGHT
"Love the spot where you are, and the friends God has given you, and be sure to expect everything of them."

Frink High School News

HONOR ROLL
LAGRANGE—The Frink High School honor roll for the second reporting period as released by the principal, J. A. Campbell, is as follows:

Second grade—Brenda Best, Vera Bell, Jennifer Drumage, Larry Jenkins, Ina Whitfield, Ernestine Dixon, Lillian Gray, Herbert Dudley, Linda Morgan and Mary G. Swain.

Third grade—Richard Swain, Roxanna Outlaw, Mary A. Jones, James R. Taylor, Patricia White, Barbara J. Bovis, Johnny P. Jackson, Peggy J. Williams, Emmet Kittrell and Carolyn Dawson.

Fourth grade—Julius Dawson, I-da Waters and James Hines.

Fifth grade—John Hood, Charles Joyner, Freddie Rhee, Annie Burren, Ava Johnson, Laura King, Alice Sykes, Johnny Waters and Rose Wooten.

Sixth grade—Edward Beeton, Mary Griffin, Clara Jones, Jeffrey Waters, Mary Wooten, Paul R. Best, Johnnie L. Davis, Walter Ellis, Jr., Annie B. Lanier, Theola J. Bryant, Linda G. Pridge, Marsha Swartz, Penina Suggs, Clara Sutton, Mary L. Dixon, Perlena Ward, Thomas Revis, Ida M. Perry, Theola Whitfield, Melvia L. Dixon, Herlina Dawson, Hazel Beeton, John H. Best, Allen E. Harris, Franklin Hemby and William M. Wooten.

Eighth grade—Judith F. More, Paul Joyner, Doris Best, Mable Best, Samuel Frink, Aaron King, Linda Williams and Ralph Wooten.

Tenth grade—Verna Beeton, Frances Dawson and Holland Hawkins.

Eleventh grade—Herman Lee Best, Hildreth Best, Leopold Jones, Geraldine Moye and Eadwinstine Tate.

Twelfth grade—James Best, Louis Davis, Betty Dawson, Shirley Egan, Edna E. Hill, Emma Miller, Charles Morgan, Emma Nobles, Thelma Selby, Evelyn Shaw, Kay Frances Sutton and Regenia Williams.

School News Spring Hope

COLLEGIAN BOHEMIAN CLUB SPRING HOPE—A group of Spaulding High School students organized a Collegian Bohemian Club. The purposes of the club are as follows: to promote maturity; to provide wholesome recreation for teen-agers; to bring the parents and children relationship closer together, and to help develop leadership ability among teen-agers.

The motto of the club is "The Teen-agers of Today are our Leaders of Tomorrow." The colors are gold and black and the flower is the Chrysanthemum.

The first meeting was held November 17. The following officers were elected: president, Jean Toney; vice-president, James A. Davis; secretary, Mildred Foster; assistant secretary, Freda Ming; treasurer, Miss Jean Hill; sergeant-at-arms, Purnell Oakley. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Allen.

On November 20, the C.B. Club held its second meeting. A Thanksgiving basket was prepared and given to a family in the community. Plans for a Christmas Party were also mentioned. Mrs. Toney

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc., Raleigh

In keeping with the spirit of the season the Omicron Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority donated a large basket of food to a deserving family on Wednesday, November 25. Soror Mildred Chavis was in charge of this activity.

On Saturday evening, November 22 beginning at 8:00 o'clock the Zeta-Lites and their dates were entertained at a party at the Tuttle Center honoring the Zeta-Lites who were making their debut at the 1958 Debutante Ball sponsored by the Alpha Kappa Sorority. Sorors Ruby McKinney, Justine Davis, Pauline Young and Mary Carnegie worked together to make this an enjoyable evening for the debs and their friends. The honorees were Misses Denise Perry, Eleanor Nunn, Frances Winters and Peggy Curran.

Congratulations are certainly in order for the Zetas and Sigmas of both St. Augustine's College and Shaw University for their respective floats in the Homecoming parades, for in each event the Zeta-Sigma float was awarded the first prize in its group.

On Tuesday evening, November 25, an excellent spirit of corporation was shown when several members of the Omicron Chapter of Shaw University and their advisors, Soror Ellen Alston, came across town to St. Augustine's College to help initiate the new members in Phi Beta Chapter. After the ceremony which was held in the Art Building on St. Augustine's campus, the group was entertained at a delightful supper at the Tuttle Center by Sorors D. Lane, M.

Carbone, M. D. Venable and M. T. James. Soror Bernell McHaffey conducted the ceremony. We welcome into the Zeta ranks Sorors Patricia Davis, Martha Dunn, Geraldine Puck, Gladys Murphy and Frances Dery.

With mixed emotions we have forwarded Soror Doris L. McAdams' transfer card to Cincinnati to affiliate with the Zeta Phi Omega. We are happy that she is going to live in that city, but we are sorry to have to delete her name from our roster.

We are happy to report that Soror N. B. Larkner is getting along nicely following minor surgery at St. Agnes Hospital on Wednesday, November 26.

SPAUDLING SCHOOL

BLADENBORO—The P.T.A. of Spaulding—Monroe High School, was entertained by the 6th grade and its instructor, Mrs. A. R. McCall, with an interesting and timely skit, "Who Joins the P.T.A."

The following students participated: Joan Lewis, Aldonna Teacher, Gloria Singletary, Susie Brown, Candacia Lewis, Violet Clark, Benjamin Robinson, John Behee, Jeanette Lewis, Willie C. Brown and Susan Emdon.

The class also presented its Grade Mothers Mrs. Vernell Lewis, Mrs. Irene Monroe, Mrs. Alice Singletary, and Mrs. Allie Singletary.

On November 14, as a climax to the observance of Education Week, the elementary department, under

OLD JORDAN KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY
6 Years Old
86 PROOF
$2.40 PINT
$3.85 FIFTH

ALLAN MIMS, INC.
INC.
FORD SALES
AND SERVICE
225 TARBORO ST.
Telephone 2-2181
ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.

Hopping About TARHEELIA
By Jay Bee Aytch

CLINTON ENTERTAINS MISS CLINTON—This Sampson County Seat did itself proud on the November 25-26th weekend when Clarence Carter Lodge No. 1149 and Mossett's Temple No. 329 were joint hosts to the Mid-Year Conference of the N.C. Association of the Improved Movement Protective Order of Elks of the World (IBPOW).

Washington Junior High School Happenings

EDITORS: Leanie M. Gill, Fannie Rand, Charles Hunter and Shirley Thorpe

Third Graders Present Play
Mrs. Eaton's third grade presented a Thanksgiving program in the auditorium Tuesday morning, November 25th at ten o'clock.

A Thanksgiving play in two acts, Priscilla's Doll by Elizabeth Larkin was presented. Characters were as follows: Priscilla Alden, age 9, Jacqueline Barnes; Priscilla Alden, her mother, Marilyn Merritt; John Alden, her father, Cecil Glenn; Barbara Standish, husband of Barbara and captain of Plymouth children, Patience Wuth; Dianne Griffin, Ernest Horne, Nathan Jones, Johnny Carver, Larry Ribberg, other Pilgrim men, James Carver, Bruce McNeil; Elder Brewster, Michael Palmer; other Pilgrim women; Mistress Worth, Daisy Purcell; Mistress Horne, Horace Willoughby; Mistress Brewster, Bette Hines and Nokama, an Indian, Earl Awtner.

Synopsis of Play
Priscilla with other pilgrim children go to the woods to gather nuts for Thanksgiving, while the pilgrim women are making preparations for the Thanksgiving feast. When the children return home Priscilla is crying because some Indian, as she thought took her doll and wanted to keep it, but her mother, teaching her to be honest served ice cream and cookies after the business of the meeting.

Miss Jean E. Hill is the advisor of this group.

DRIVE SAFELY!

Straight Kentucky Bourbon
$4.35 1.5 OZ.

Ancient Age
Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whiskey - 86 PROOF
ANCIENT AGE DISTILLING CO., FRANKFORD, KY.