Noted Leaders Say They'll Give To Jernagin Memorial

CINCINNATI—In September 1956 at Denver, Colorado, an effort was begun to publish a volume called "Who's Who In Baptist America," honoring Dr. W. H. Jernagin, veteran Negro Baptist leader. This effort continued through January 1958.

Dr. Jernagin passed in February of 1958 and very soon thereafter it was decided that a memorial volume would be published instead. Many outstanding Baptists have subscribed to this memorial volume by submitting their biographies. A very remarkable development has taken place most recent-
