MINISTERS' WIVES CLUB MEMBERS — The Ministers' Wives Club of Greensboro, meeting at the home of Mrs. C. C. Scott for the purpose of electing officers for 1959, took time out to pose for a group picture and to total their "years of service to Christianity through their minister-husbands." Officers elected for 1959 included: Mrs. A. A. Melton, president; Mrs. Wyoming Wells and Mrs. M. T. Leraud, first and second vice presidents; Mrs. T. C. Tarpley and Mrs. I. R. Tarpley, secretary and assistant secretary; Mrs. W. J. Black, treasurer; Mrs. R. H. Lucas and Mrs. J. H. Thompson, chaplains; Mrs. P. L. Ledbetter, reporter, and Mrs. F. A. Hargett and Mrs. D. A. Johnson, pianist and assistant pianist.

Hampton Participating In UNCF Exam Program

HAMPTON, Va. — Hampton Institute is one of 28 colleges participating in the cooperative intercollegiate examination program, a part of the "Special Service to Education" of the United Negro College Fund. The majority of the colleges use the test results as one of the criteria for selecting successful candidates for scholarship awards of more than $200,000 which they distribute each year.

Economist To Deliver Annual Hillman Talks

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Dr. John K. Galbraith, professor of economics at Harvard University and author of "The Affluent Society," will deliver the annual Sidney Hillman Lectures at Howard University Tuesday and Wednesday.

In Atlanta: Southern Christian Leadership Confab Condemns "Conspiracy"

ATLANTA, Ga. — Declaring "there can be no compromise with the rights of Negroes in Alabama to register and to vote without fear of economic reprisals or bodily injury" and emphasizing that "the very foundation of constitutional democracy is threatened when any group of Americans is denied the free exercise of the franchise because of race, creed, color or national origin," the executive board of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and more than 2,000 Negro citizens assembled in a mass meeting at the Wheat Street Baptist Church, Atlanta, recently unanimously condemned "the apparent conspiracy of Alabama State and county officials who blatantly defied subpoenas to produce voter registration records of six Alabama counties for the use of the Commission in its first public hearing just concluded in Montgomery, Alabama."

Fantasy & Dreams Theme Of The '59 Beaux Arts Ball
NEW YORK — "Fantasy and Dreams" is the theme of the 1959 Beaux Arts Ball, sponsored by the National Urban League Guild, which will unfold at the Concourse Plaza Hotel, 122nd Street and the Grand Concourse, the Bronx, on Friday evening, February 27th.
Mollie Moon, chairman, said today, "This theme follows in the tradition of Beaux Arts Balls, which, through the years have enacted the most imaginative costumes from members and guests. During the past 18 years, the themes have included a variety of subjects: "Freedom Train," "Night in Paris," "Shakespeare in Harlem," "Broadway Through the Years," "Comic Strip," "Disco-Land," "Around the World."
"There is no limit to the creative ideas this theme suggests," Mrs. Moon continued, "and should challenge the imagination of all our guests. We expect a glorious array of exciting costumes and designs."
Three handsome cash prizes, donated by the F & M Schaefer Brewing Company will be awarded to the guests chosen for the most beautiful, the most unique, and the most authentic costume. Celebrities of stage and screen will judge the costume contest.
Box tickets, from which a large part of the benefit funds are raised, are now on sale at the National Urban League Office, 14 E. 48th Street, New York City, and reservations can be made by calling Evelyn Brody at PL 1-0300, at that office.
The National Urban League Guild is a volunteer organization formed to support the program of the National Urban League. All proceeds from the Beaux Arts Ball will go to the National Urban League, an interracial educational service agency established in 1916 to further equal opportunity for Negroes in employment, education, housing, and social welfare.
The Guild officers are: Mollie Moon, chairman; Helen Harden, vice-chairman; Florence Dixon, recording secretary; Beryl Edelen.
