Rites Held For Joshua Palmer, Veteran Cricketeer

ICC Cagers nk Canadian Contracts

oned their gridiron careers by king contracts with the Edmon-Eskimos of the professional adian Football League.

The two seniors signing un with the Eskimos were Clifton 'Satellite" Jackson, a shifty breakaway halfback who proved to be one of the most explosive runners in the CIAA. and James "Buck" Forbes. a hard-charging lightning like guard, Both lads were Pitts picks this past grid season. Jackson and Forbes, both ha the Tidewater "football hot

In Canada, Forbes is expected to play both ways and should find the play in the rich Canadian leagues to his liking since the linemen are much lighter than those in the rugged NFL, and weight is not a pre-requisite, but speed is ated to fly to Canada on July 1 begin grid training. Eskimos are Johnny Bright,

Neal, Roseboro Sign Contracts With Dodgers

atcher John Roseboro last week low Del Crandell of the Milwauken lever. Lincoln has won only one gned their 1959 contracts with Braves, who led the National Central Intercollegiate Athletic to allotments in North Carolina ie Los Angeles Dodgers.

right, confer over professional football contracts which both inked last week with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League. Both senior North Carolina College gridders were signed by Sam Lyles, head coach of the Edmonton team for a handsome sum. Forbes, a guard, and Jackson, a half-

Bell & Burke Propel NCC To 76-69 Triumph Over Winston-Salem Rams

CIAA triumph on their homecourt last Saturday when they toppled the loop's second place quintet, Winston-Salom Teachers College,

The win moved the Eagles into second place shead of the Rams. who suffered their 5th setback against 8 victories in conference

Carlton "Ding Dong" Bell, the Eagles' top seerer, and Donald "Pete" Burke, team captain, proved to be the big difference in the outcome of the games as these two veterans took over and led the Eagles' surprising upstarts to their beards, while Burke played his in, both ends of the CIAA Usual sperkling floor game, and dropped in 14 markers.

second half when Bell dropped in th Jackson and McQueen, draft one of his soft one-handers from pices of the Chicago Bears and the corner to break a 42-42 deadecord for Dodgers second base- show, nen, when he clouted 22. He aslo the club's home run lead. admirable job behind the plate, cording to coach Bob Smith.

On the 30 feet jump shots of "Duke" Martin and the off balance push shots of Walt Benjamin, both top-notch freshmen, NCC built up an 11 point lead, 70-59 over the Rams with less than 3 minutes of playing time remaining. But again the magnificent Cleo Hill went to work and put on a within 4 points of the Eagles. 71-67, as he secred 8 of the 11 points personally on a variety real show, bringing his club to

from Houston, Texas, broke two line Ulf

He became the second leading all-time scorer in the school's his ory, on record. His 25 tallied against the Roms give him a total of 1.365 points since dorning the maroon and gray regalia almost four years ago. This ranks the Sam" Jones' total of 1,770 points served in 4 years here at NCC. In

The affair was a tight game up to the last 11.30 seconds of the Lincoln Lions Hope To Better Record Of 1958

ed, it was believed both men re- basketball team is well on its way i may wind up with a better than and National Agricultural college Neal last year set a home run 500 average, current statistics 983-60. The Lious lost to Delaware The Lions at present boasts a State, Morgan State (twice,) and tied first baseman Gil Hodges for 4-9 won-lost record, and need a Howard University.

single victory to ten last year's the Dodgers farm following Roy also improved on defense and is Campanella's accident and did an playing better all-around hail, acnd baseman Charlie Neat and He haited 271, only one point be. Despite the improvement, how

Lincoln had deteated Lyroning our North Carolina high school setup. college (80-78); Philadelphia Pharcived increases over their 1953 to bettering its 1958 record and macy (83-70), Bluefield (77-72), State, Virginia Union, Maryland

Leading scorer on the Lincoln Roseboro was brought up from total of four wins. The team has team is co-captain Edward Harris. who has tallied 148 points and averaces 14.2 points a game.

One-third of all flue-cured tobac-

ARCHIE AND FAMILY GET NEWS - Boxer Archie Moore and ally listen at their San Diego ranch as the light heavy champien ears from Atlanta that he has been named "100% Boxer of the ear" by the Atlanta Daily World's 100 Per Cent Wrong Clob. in background, PRman Moss II. Kendrix, left, and Boxing Writer endell amith, Chicago, talk long distance to the Moores. Truman

K. Gibson, Jr., IBC president and a 100% honoree, also spoke with made the shots by Cotton and the champ, Rafer Johnson, outstanding athlete of the University Howell look easy. of California at Los Ancles, was likewise cited by phone. In the bottom section of photo are seen several of the other honorces and participants in the 24th annual All Sports Jamboree, sponsored by the Atlanta daily with the cooperation of The Coca-Cola Company of deadlocking the game, They and the Atlanta Life Insurance Company, both of Atlanta. were behind in the bail game at

"Skipper" Of Sport Had Played Over 38 Seasons

BY CHARLES J. LIVINGSTON | 1954, South Park made cricket his Monday at Powell's Funeral Farlor, with members of the Woodlawn Cricket Club and the other eight teams in the Illinois Cricket Association attending.

Palmer, for more than 38 years a cricket stalwart here, died Tuesday morning at Louise-Burge hospital. Death was due to complications and followed a prolonged illness. He was 66.

Palmer was one of the early Chicago cricket pioneers. He was also a hard campaigner and successful team captain.

In 1921, shortly after arriving here from his native Jamaica. British West Indian the "Skip. per", as he was affectionately known to his players, formed the International Cricket Club. the first of a number of winning teams.

Cricket, the English counterpart of baseball was then in its embryo here and Palmer joined K. A. Auty. then president of the ICA, in helping to popularize the sport. They watched the league grow in size and strength until today it rivals New York for U. S. cricket supre-

Pickwick (1924), Melboune (1927), Hejohn of Brooklyn. South Park (1934), and Woodlawn

CHICAGO (ANP) - Funeral tory by winning every game (17) Services for Joshua A. Palmer, vet- on its schedule, becoming the first eran Chicago cricketer, were held | Ch cago team to accomplish the at. Palmer teams won 10 champiships and a number of trophies. Falmer considered cricket his second love" and stuck with it to the end. Shortly after a hardought match one evening last sumner he suffered the first of two drokes from which he never re-

> Palmer's contributions often apilled over into other fields and earned him a host of friends among American as well as West Indians. In 1957. in recognition of his work, the Woodlawn club feted him with "Salute to Palmer" dinner attended by scores of celebri-

Roy D. Nordheimer, president of the ICA, summed up Palmer's loss this way:

"He was a great campaigner and staunch supporter of the game. seyond that he was gentleman. He will be hard to replace. The cricketers were all shocked and saddened by his death. A retired butcher in civil life. Palmer is survived by two brothers Solomon and James; a sister, Mrs. L. Paddiefoot of Kingston, Jamaica, and a niece. Mrs. Dorothy Lit.

At the funeral, members of the 1956). He was captain of Wood- Woodlawn team were active pall-

TWO POINTS! - Ine Cotton, A&Y College Aggle forward and last year's "Most Valuable Player" in the CIAA, dunks a field goal over the guard of Morth Carolina College Eagle, James Martin (31) as Giant, Eagle center, Carlton Ding Dong Bell awaits a rebound which did not come. The action took place in the Aggie-Eagle basketball came played at Greensboro Tuesday night, February 4, in which A&T won, 77-65, the 13th straight against no defeats. Other players in the photo are Joe Bowell (10) Aggie captain and NCC players, Cal Alexshead of the player who was re- years with a 4-1 record as a freshman, which was the best in the confor his being here, none ference, and a 7-1 record as a sophomore. The only losses suffered than another Texas, Charles by Crutchfield were to Maryland State, 6-4, and to A&T, 5-3.

GOOFIN' OFF

But on return engagements Crutchfield beat Maryland, 6-3, and the Harlem Globetrotters. Harri- A&T twice, 10-5, and 3-1. Shaw lost four lettermen via the gradua points for one of the most sparkli- son's career total was 1.341 points. Don route last June and another did not return to school; but Coach ing exhibitions of shooting ever. In grabbing 30 rebounds, Bell Jimmie Lytle is expecting capable replacements from incoming freshnot on in NCC's gigantic sports slipsed his own sing game high men that made plausable high school records last season. Wilbert 28, set last week against Lytle, Frank Baker, Bennte Benson and Crutchfield round out the Bell a 5.7 senior forward Virginia Union in a double over- pitching staff to date and if the four can exhibit the performances of past seasons and the novices can capably fill the vacant gaps now open, the Shaw baseball learn should give good account of itself once

Rufus Hatten announces that his Raleigh Indians will again take the field this season against the best opposition available. Hatten is looking for stockholders and will welcome any assistance in the promotion of his attraction for the coming season. FOOTBALL COACHES AND BASEBALL TEAMS

The Cincinnati Reds hired Terry Brennan to get the ball playe suits that combination football-baseball coaches have achieved in

Pete Williams, Raleigh; Clarence Moore, Asheville; "Dynamite Dunn, Gastonia; Willie Bradshaw, Chapel Hill; and "Bob" Kornega; at Graham, are combination coaches and their teams are usually 'up there." "Rock" Sanders and McDougal, at Henderson, are combination coaches and their teams are always hard to beat. Where are most of the other teams whose coaches are single operators? Usually near the end of any season in which the above named coaches participate, including "Big" Atkinson of Rocky Mount. Their teams are the ones most likely to reach the finals Year in and year out fans read and hear of the success of the teams of these combination coaches—ai d all are football men. Charlie England was terrific at Tarboro. He transferred to Lexington. where he is super-terrific. Where are the other coaches who were in son. that section before Charlie arrived?

Evidently there is something in footbell conditioning being carried over to other sports, and the Cincinnati Reds may have something in hiring Terry Brennan to bring football conditioning to their

A&T's Bill Bell Added To Important NCAA Committee

ed this week a member of the Mid-East Selection Committee for the College Division Basketball Tour- ment take effect immediately. nament of the National Collegiate formed on his appointment on Fri- a position he has held since 1954.

GREENSBORO-The director of , by Walter Bryant, athletic director thletics at A&T College was name at the University of the South. Sewanee, Tennessee. The appoint-

Bell also serves as a member of the National Football Advisory Athletic Association. the National Football Advisory Bill Bell, head of the athletic Committee of the National Associsetup at A&T since 1946, was in- ation of Intercollegiste Athletic

Aggies Continue To Win: Overcome Eagles, 77-65

GREENSBORO - Another CIAA | 56-47, the nearest they ever threatbasketball championship prospect ened their arch rivals again. dazzled before the eyes of the A&T | Carlton (Ding Dong) College Aggies as they pushed past the North Carolina College Esgles, 77-65, in an important game played here at the Charles Moore Gym, Tuesday night, February 3.

The victory, the thirteenth in a row against no defeats in conference play, removed a big barrier in the Aggies' quest for a second conference flag in as many years.

The Eagles made a game out of it for most of the first half. They led by slim margins at 13-12 at 9:05 and again at 21-18 with five minutes to go in the first stanza, but after that A&T took over.

The Aggies deadlocked the conest 21-all with four minutes left in the half and Joe Howell, star guard and captain, teamed with loe Cotton to put on a dazzling scoring barrage. They pumped in 15 points while holding the Eagles to just field goals, a substantial margin which was hardly threatened for the rest of the night. Speedy Al Attles was also a main cog in the late first half surge. His brilliant floor work as a decoy against Eagle defenders

The Durham Club pieced togetha mild rally midway the second

Carlton (Ding Dong) Bell, the hig 6-7 center, was the big gun in the Eagles attack. He scored 19 points to lead his team, but outstanding work with rebounds drew equal applause from the capacity house, one of the largest to sit in the local emporium.

Cotton was outstanding for the Aggles. He pumped in 20 points for the evening, but Howell pushed a close second with 19. Herb Gray was the third man to score in double figures in bucketing 15 points. The loss left North Carolina College with a 9-4 record.

The Aggies will play their final home game here on l'ebruary 12 against Shaw University

Loblolly pines can make an effective windbreak, in American households that most of us are thick of it."

Record-Breaker Boozer Big Bait For The Pros

Kansas State basketball history, is ikely to be one of the most coveted oices when the National Basket pall Association feams sit down this spring to bargain for college for the Wildcats, winners of the 1957-58 Big Fight Conference and Kansas, Boozer bax garnered 1.356 points. He has been a record breaker for Kansas State in almost every other scoring category. He has scored 45 points in a single game for one mark and 544 points in one season (1957-58) for anoth-

With 586 points in Big Fight Boozer, an All-American on maselections as a juntor last sea-In 14 games, he had 362 total notifia 25.9 average. He has been averaging 10 percent from the field and 78 percent from the free throw line. Over the past two seasons, he has connected 44 percent from the field.

The 6-8 senior, who plays either forward or center owns a deadly collection of shots. but his bread-and butter on is, of course, a threat under the basket.

By way of variety again-Missouri this season, he sank three hooks, dunk two layurs and cashed five jumpers. The 214-pound Boozer is not in one-track basketball player standout defensive player an with his exceptional jumping eam's outstanding rebounder.

From the outset of career lanses State, Boozer has been star. His scoring is all the mo emarkable because of the beland attack of the Wildcats.

As a sophomore, he broke al coring records for a first-year varsity player. He has a 19.6 sco tues, he needed only six to set broke the school's single game ing average of 450 in 23 games. He scoring record (since erased by him) with a 36-point production against Colorado. That season he compiled a free-firmw accuracy of North Carolina's 1959 burley

It Pays To ADVERTISE

