PERSONALS

SEND GREETINGS — Mrs. Virginia High, formerly of 705 F. Martin St. is now a student niece of Mrs. Swannie High of 705 S. The Center for the Blind at But-E. Martin Street.

TYPICAL TWELVE SOCIAL CLUB

The Typical Twelve Social Club met Oct. 8 with Mrs. Etta Mae Hough. After the business session the hostess served a menu of tuna salad, tomatoes, pickles and crackers, pie a la mode, pineapple punch, candies and nuts.

Members present were Mesdames Ann Webb, Annie Jones, Frances Jones, Etta Hough, Elizabeth Wilson, Carrie L. Bowers, Mildred Williams and Bessie M. Stroud.

ROSEBUD GARDEN CLUB

The Rosebud Garden Club met this month with Mrs. K. N. Cumbo, 113 Lincoln Court, President P. N. Higgs opened the meeting and guided the discussion concerning the best method of caring for various plants during the winter. Some plants require sand and a bit of soil, only.

Mrs. Cumbo had a lovely table arrangement of beautiful fall flowers. Her daughter, Mrs. Bernice Coles of Brooklyn, N. Y. gave each member a hand made floral souvenir; an artistic marvel.

The Club was delightfully served by the hostess, her daughter and granddaughter.

Club members present included Mesdames Minnie Burns, Ida Reid, Jennie Charles, Ellen Dunbar, Ethel Rodgers, Laura Davis, N. K. Cumbo, Floya Cotten, C. G. Irving, Sr., J. W. Jones, A. M. Cooke, Pattie Higgs, Ida Colson, J. E. Cooper, Lucy Evans.

The next meeting will be on Nov. 14 at the home of Mrs. Ellen Dunbar, 716 Manly Street.

Geraldine G. Brown's Personally Speaking

O Lord, my God
When I in awesome wonder
Consider all the world
Thy hand has made,
I see the storm —
I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout —
The universe displayed.

Charlie Simmons, Raleigh Blue Printers' No. 1 right hand man, Tom and Malinda Simmons no. 1 son and Lula Byrd Simmons no. 1 husband, celebrated his birthday, Oct. 12. We know Charlie had a terrific weekend and hope he had a scrumptious birthday and is anticipating many more.

Yes I went — Did you go??? For all parents' information the fair — for some reason or another loses some of its glitter and glow for the kids if they don't go on the day designated for them by school being dismissed at 12 A crowd — WOW. Wonder what them folks had transistor radios for??? Seems some kinda important ball game was on. How on earth did they listen to the game, keep up with the kids, keep score, see the sights, eat, ride and see the side shows all at once.

One year ago on Oct. 8, Chuck (Rufus Dudley, Jr.) son of Rufus and Rosa Dudley, made his debut to life. Battered birthday greetings to Chuck and hope he has many, many, happy, happy, returns of the day.

The Washington Terrace community and especially this writer wish to extend expressions of sympathy to Mrs. L. S. Murchison and her family in the loss of their mother, Mrs. F. S. McCrimmon. Last minute discovery prevented my making personal contact with Mrs. Murchison and family members, but all of us in the area would like for her to know we miss her, Delenia and Edgar, Jr. and hope they will soon be back in the neighborhood.

THINGS A CHILD SHOULD BE TAUGHT
Well, after you have taught him to fear God, keep the Commandments and wash behind his ears, the next most important thing to teach him is good manners, which are the open sesame to all the doors in life through which he will carry on.

Good manners will win one father than looks or money or talent. They are a letter of credit that the world honors at sight. They form our first impression of every individual we meet and attract or repulse us.

Of course, sometimes, we are wrong. Manners are not invariably an index to the soul. There are rough diamonds who possess all of the major and minor virtues, but a hurrying world hasn't the time to polish them up, so they get passed by, and unless they have the most phenomenal brilliance, their worth is never recognized.

A famous psychologist once estimated that it requires five year's hard work to teach children good manners, but in the end great is the mother's reward. She has given her children the greatest charm they can possibly possess and she has laid the foundations of their success.

To culminate and celebrate a year's existence, Astronauts Steve Cassell and Ann Henry reigned during St. Aug's homecoming on Saturday as so did many other boys and girls. Orchids to the staff and parents of the Washington Terrace Nursery School for such splendid cooperation which resulted in the school being represented in the parade with a very commendable float. Mrs. Ella McColm serves as director and is assisted by Mrs. Irene Grisson and Mr. Ruby Evans. We wish for the Nursery School as it ventures into its second year much success and the same for many years to come.

Mitchell Fund Off To Very Good Start Here

Efforts to raise the $7,500 fine which Attorney Samuel S. Mitchell must pay to the federal court on or before Dec. 15, 1962, if he is to avoid a prison sentence, are now well underway here.

The first local contribution to the fund came from the Boyer Consistory of 32nd Degree Masons and consisted of $50.00.

This donation is considered significant in view of the fact that although Attorney Mitchell is not a member of the Boyer Consistory, its members all local persons, warranted their appreciation and support in his hour of need.

Written appeals for contributions to Mr. Mitchell's defense fund are now going out to individuals and organizations throughout the state. Mr. Campbell, chairman of the local Mitchell Defense Fund is not enthusiastic about the response so far but he says that he is hopeful that the services Attorney Mitchell has contributed to the cause of freedom and democracy have far exceeded his remuneration for them, they will express their appreciation by donating to this fund. Donations may be sent to J. J. Sansom (Fund treasurer), Mechanics & Farmers Bank, Raleigh.

Everyone is reminded that, although large contributions are most welcome, the fund will gratefully receive and acknowledge all contributions, however small.

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

OUR HEAVENLY FATHER, we praise Thee that Thou hast come to abide in our hearts. Through faith in Thy Son, Jesus Christ, keep us even in fellowship with Thee. Help others to make room for Christ that they may know His peace. We pray in the name of Thy Son, our Redeemer.

My Lady's Doings In And Out Of Town

WEEKLY MEDITATION

BY COLIN DOUGLAS

"For God gave us not a spirit of fearfulness, but of power and love and discipline." — II Timothy 1:7.

Often times, when people seem to have acquired too many responsibilities in life, they are assailed by doubts and fears as to their ability to succeed. This is the time for these persons to become still, to become relaxed in prayer, and to remember that all the talents they have, great or small, come from God. Doubt and fear can best be overcome by refusing to give them the power of our thoughts, because the more you think doubtful thoughts and fear-thoughts, the more power and strength you are giving to these negative ideas.

Instead, say, "God, please help me to develop and use the abilities and talents you have bestowed upon me. Please help me to realize always that You are the only true power in the universe, and with You at my side, I have nothing at all to fear."

As you meditate more and more upon this theme, you cannot help but feel uplifted and strengthened. You cannot help but feel the courage of God's presence filling you. His Spirit will give you the power to control your thoughts, the power to maintain confidence and peace, the power to express love and appreciation, the power to use the inherent abilities within you.

No fear, depression, or negative mood can last long when you keep your attention fixed on the mighty presence of God. At first it may seem that the subconscious fears and doubts pull harder and harder at your consciousness, but do not be alarmed. The promise is that if you look to God, you will be saved from all negation. Believe in this promise, for it is true.

"And he spake a parable unto them to the end that they ought always to pray, and not to faint." — Luke 18:1.
