

NCC Downs Hawks; St. Aug, Shaw Lose; Aggies Top W-S

HIGH STEPPING MAJORETTES — When North Carolina College's 120 piece marching band appears on nation-wide television at the half-time of the Baltimore Colts-Green Bay Packers game, Sunday, Oct. 28, Regina Budd, Goldsboro sophomore, will be one of the high-stepping majorettes leading the band.

A&T Aggies' Passes Baffles Winston

WINSTON-SALEM — Four thousand fans saw A&T's Aggies almost run the horns off of Winston-Salem Teachers College's Rams here Saturday, in Bowman-Gray Stadium.

Winston-Salem thrilled the partisan crowd, in the first quarter, with a 51 yard drive and it looked as if the Aggies were in for a real test. The score was knotted at 6-6 at the end of the first half.

The Aggies must have been told something during intermission.

Broncos In 14-6 Squeaker

Fayetteville State Teachers College Broncos brought an unblemished CIAA conference record to Raleigh Saturday and left with it the same way. They defeated St. Augustine's Falcons 14-6.

It was the fourth straight win for the Broncos in conference play. They are 4-1 overall. The Falcons are 1-3 in the conference and 2-3 in all games.

St. Aug scored in the first period when quarterback Sinclair King passed 20 yards to halfback Robert Headen. The scoring march covered 45 yards.

For the rest of the half the game was nip and tuck. Neither team could find the scoring range but put on a good exhibition of the fine defensive prowess of CIAA teams.

In the third quarter Fayetteville scored all 14 points. Norman ran 22 yards of a 35 yard march for the first score. Robert Holt passed to Willie Jackson for the two point conversion.

After the Broncos recovered a fumble on the Falcon 33, Holt ran the last 15 yards for the second Bronco touchdown. A pass for the extra points failed when quarterback Holt overthrew Jackson - his intended receiver.

WTS STAR HOLDS RUSHING LEAD

CHICAGO (AP) — Pete Pedro, of West Texas State college, held the early-season leadership in rushing in major college. Pedro, in four games, had gained 621 yards in 75 rushes.

Among the leaders in this department were Jim Roland, University of Missouri sophomore, with 310 yards for 55 attempts in three games, and Mel Renfro, University of Oregon junior, with 248 yards in 34 tries in three games.

In scoring, Pedro had 7 touchdowns for 42 points and third place, while Renfro was in a four-way tie for seventh with five TDs and 30 points.

They came back in the third quarter and broke the game wide open. With an aerial attack, that baffled the Rams, the Aggies scored three fast touchdowns.

The Greensboro boys netted 330 yards from passing. They used three quarterbacks to do the tossing and all three gave a good account with their pitching. They completed 15 of 21 passes.

An insect, the cicada, lives underground for 17 years.

TO REIGN — Queen Vivian Dolores Jones of Norlina, will reign at Homecoming at Johnson C. Smith University on Saturday, October 27. The senior elementary education major is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jones, Box 223, Norlina. Her attendants are Miss Dorothy Yvonne Couser, a junior from Gadsden Alabama (L), and Mrs. Alice Ruth Diamond, a senior of Charlotte, (r).

NCC Air Attack Too Much For Md. State Hawks

BY FERRY R. LEAZER

DURHAM — North Carolina College's Eagles moved back into serious contention for Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association honors Saturday by spanking Maryland State College's Hawks 19-0 before a capacity homecoming crowd on NCC's O'Kelly Field.

The win was the third in a row for the Eagles against one loss. For the Hawks it was their second successive league loss in a row, and they are 2-2.

Once again it was the strong passing arm of Richard Hicks that carried the Eagles to victory. The Rocky Mount senior completed six out of fifteen attempts for 150 yards and two touchdown strikes.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Eagles struck for paydirt after an exchange of punts. Blahop Harris, halfback, picked up a first down from the NCC 22 in two carries, moving the pigskin to the 35. Hicks found the waiting arms of Durham's O. J. Williams on the 12 yard line of Maryland State and the speedy end scored standing up. Hicks added the extra point on a kick. NCC led 7-0.

Moments later the Eagles came back to score after an exchange of punts. A fumble by Maryland's Bill Johnson on the 34 yard line of the Hawks was covered by William Hayes. Bobby Arno and Earl Miller alternated carrying the ball to the 24. Pass interference against the Hawks put the ball on their three. Donald Thomas dived in for the score two plays later. The try for the extra point failed and NCC led 13-0.

Maryland State drove back with a rash of rush plays featuring the running of Rocky Mount's Sedrick Suggs and Willie Mercer. Their efforts carried to the 34 yard line of the Eagles. Curtis Gentry went 24 yards for a TD, but the play was nullified by an illegal procedure penalty against the Hawks. The Eagles braced and went to rest at halftime with a 13-0 lead.

President Alfonso Elder crowned Miss Marva Roberts, Baltimore, Md., senior, "Miss Homecoming" at halftime. Miss Sarah Stroud, Baltimore, Md., chapter, was crowned "Miss Alumni" by national alumni president, George Nixon.

The Eagles and the Hawks battled to a standoff until the closing minutes of the third quarter. Donald Thomas intercepted Clyde Thomas aerial on the NCC 30 and moved the ball back to the 39 yard line of the Hawks.

Quarterback Hicks lofted a pass to Robert Currington on the Hawks 26 and Currington found paydirt. The try for the two-point play failed.

Wicker High Beats DuBois

WAKE FOREST — The football eleven from Wicker High, Sanford, came here Friday and gave DuBois High a real lesson in football. They took the measure of the locals 42-15.

Wicker's quarterbacking Shaw showed early in the game that he had no respect for the DuBois team. He scored three times and set a conference record.

Shaw tallied on runs of 23, 30 and 1 yards. Johnson went 75 yards for Wicker. McLeod nine and Hooker three for the other touchdowns.

Scoring for DuBois were Lorenzo Jackson on runs of 65 and 3 yards and Richard Harris on a four-yard effort.

Bears Bow To J. C. Smith

CHARLOTTE — The Shaw University Bears continued their losing ways here Saturday when they were turned back by the Johnson C. Smith Bulls, by a score of 33-6.

Coach Jackson's charges were never a threat to the Smith eleven and gave up 330 yards on defense, while they only amassed 63.

The Bulls feasted on the Bears and ran up their highest score of the season. Five players crossed Shaw's goal line: Fulton Burns, Billy Wilson, Charlie Syrett, Al Hunley and Nathan Allen.

Robert Hunt, Bear's halfback, notched the only score for the losers. Shaw's record is 4-3-1.

West Coast Sportslight

BY L. I. BROCKENBURY

IT'S GREAT TO BE BACK
LOS ANGELES (AP) — After battling a stroke which all but put me out for the count in Detroit last July 27, it's great to be back trying to peek out another column.

I never knew I had so many friends and readers until the letters, telegrams, flowers and calls came flowing into my hospital room at the Ford Hospital in Detroit, where I was confined for over two months, and here at the Cedars of Lebanon where I was hospitalized for a month.

SURVIVE IN CLASS BY HIMSELF
The Los Angeles Dodgers' General Manager Buzzie Bavasi, as far as I'm concerned, is in a class by himself. This man is class — first class.

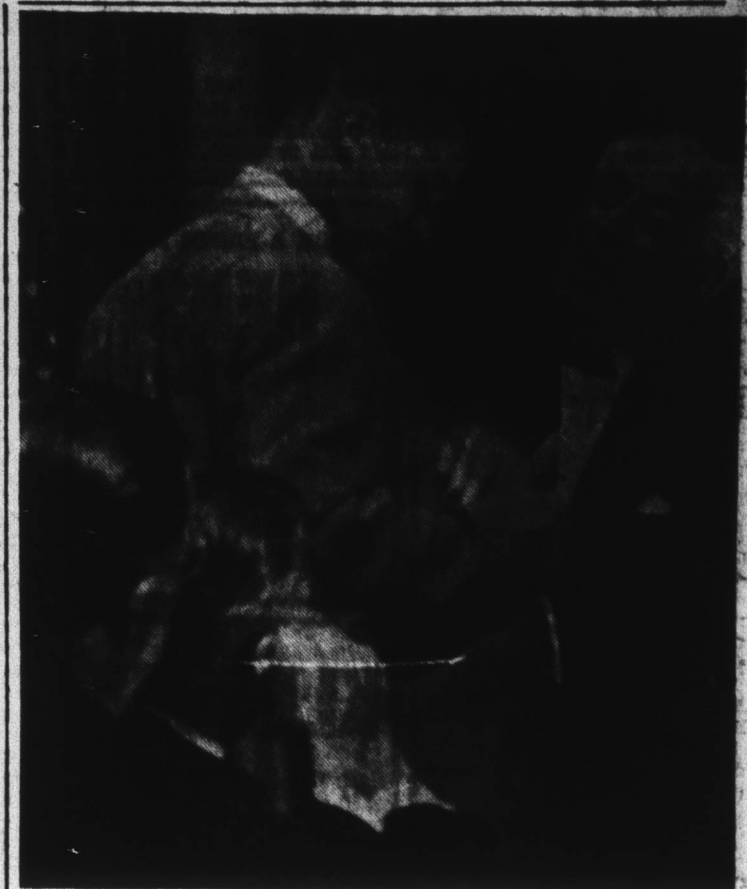

I know now that Jackie Robinson is right when he says Buzzie is a "decent" human being.

When Buzzie learned that I could be moved from the Ford Hospital in Detroit to Cedars here, he offered to fly my wife and me back to the coast on the Dodgers plane. After learning the Dodgers plane was loaded, the next thing I knew Buzzie had made arrangements for the both of us to be flown to L. A. on a commercial flight. This guy and the Dodgers went beyond the call of duty in their courtesies and kindness to me. How can I ever thank Buzzie and the other wonderful people who have helped me so much through prayers and their many courtesies.

There are hundreds of others which space does not permit me to mention at this time. Nevertheless I'm equally grateful to them.

A TESTIMONIAL FOR ME
Now the testimonial that Brad Pye, Jr., and his committee planned for me at the Nikabob Restaurant Friday night (Oct. 19) is to me a "big thing." Because to me this demonstrates again that I have many wonderful friends who are cognizant of our efforts in this fight to make democracy really live in the field of sports.

BACK TO DETROIT
As you know, I flew from St. Louis to Detroit to join the Los Angeles Angels. Irv Kaze, the Angels' director of public relations, made all the arrangements for me to travel with the club. I regret that my illness prevented me from completing the trip with the Angels. That guy Bill Rigney, who gets my vote as the major league manager of the year, and the Angels' traveling secretary, Tommy Ferguson, were really swell to me and very instrumental in getting me the best of care in Detroit.

TO STEAL FROM A THIEF — John Giovanni (standing, right), the famous stage pick-pocket artist, shows record-setting base stealer Maury Wills, of the Los Angeles Dodgers, how to really steal things while trying, during a Friars Club dinner given in Wills honor at Beverly Hills, Calif. Walter O'Malley (far left, back to camera), looks on. (UPI PHOTO).

Football

HOMECOMING

A&T COLLEGE

"AGGIES"

VS

Morgan State

"BEARS"

SATURDAY

OCT. 27

1:30 P. M. — Gates Open 12:00 Noon

Greensboro Memorial Stadium

Admission $2.50

Students with ID Cards $1.50

That Night—HOMECOMING BALL

Buddy and Ella Johnson

NEW NATIONAL GUARD ARMORY
Franklin Boulevard

Schenley
RESERVE

$2.55 PER BOTTLE

$4.00 PER BOTTLE

Blended Whisky
Lighter and smoother
This new whisky reflects the highest quality of Schenley

Exclusive Discovery
MIXED IN EXTRA SMOOTHNESS

ALL-STARS—New York: Shown in the photo above are the ten players named to the UPI 1962 Major League All-Star team. They are: (top row, left to right): Don Drysdale, of the Los Angeles Dodgers; Orlando Cepeda, of the San Francisco Giants; Frank Robinson, of the Cincinnati Reds; Maury Wills, of the Dodgers; and Brooks Robinson, of the Baltimore Orioles. Bottom row (left to right): Bobby Richardson, of the New York Yankees; Dick Donovan, of the Cleveland Indians; Earl Battey, of the Minnesota Twins; Tommy Davis, of the Dodgers; and Willie Mays, of the Giants. (UPI PHOTO).

J. W. LIGON LITTLE BLUES

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

HOME GAMES

SPONSORED BY CAPITAL BARGAIN STORE

Williston Hi, Wilmington Sept. 28

Adkins Hi, Kinston - Home Coming Oct. 5

Hillside Hi, Durham Oct. 19

Booker T. Hi, Rocky Mount Nov. 2

THE ABOVE SCHEDULE IS SPONSORED BY OUR STORE

CAPITOL BARGAIN STORE

132 E. Hargett St. TE 4-7243
Raleigh, N. C.

KENTUCKY GENTLEMAN

KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY

$4.00 PER BOTTLE

$2.50 PER BOTTLE

KENTUCKY GENTLEMAN

KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY

$4.00 PER BOTTLE

4/5 QT.

$2.50 PER BOTTLE

7/8