Roger Peachey (right, dressed as a female) of the Tactical Patrol Force, displays knife and razor taken from his prisoner, Benjamin Bowes, 20 (left), after the latter's arrest on charges of robbery and assault there October 6th. Ptl. Peachey sat on a bench near a subway entrance and the prisoner sat beside him and began to molest the disguised policeman. Bowes reportedly took $3 from Peachey's woman's purse and a razor. Confronted with a loaded .38 pistol pointed at his head, the would-be robber gave up without a struggle. (UPI PHOTO).

Fort Bragg 'Trooper Who Ignored 'Jump' Order Is Found Not Guilty

FORT BRAGG (ANP) — A 19-year-old paratrooper who was alive and able to testify in his own behalf last week because he refused to make a flight jump during training, was found not guilty by a military court here of "disobeying an order."

The 1st Lt., C-4 Donald P. Rice, who was absolved of guilt when he told the court he would have jumped to certain death had he obeyed the command because his equipment was defective. The incident took place during airborne maneuvers Sept. 2.

However, Rice was found guilty of "obeying" a "report, defective equipment." The military court said he should have reported to superiors the defective canopy release on his equipment. Rice is appealing that verdict.

In his fight against the charges, Rice had the backing of Congressman Charles A. Vanik of Cleveland, Ohio. Vanik said he became interested in the case after Rice explained his plight to him.

Vanik explained that Rice "was offered the alternative of submitting no defense under the Army's Article 15.

"Under Article 15, Rice would have had to assume that both charges were valid and would have had to take whatever punishment was offered," Vanik said. "But since he felt he had a defense" and had five witnesses to the defective equipment charge, he refused to be tried under Article 15."

Rice said that, in the first place the jump was an extra assignment since he was obligated to perform only 18 months of airborne duty instead of the 30 months of jump service he has undergone.

Vanik said he thought Rice

Keynotes 20th State NAACP Confab: WE'RE AWFULLY TIRED OF WAITING: HURLEY

Secretary Of Region Sparks Meet

BY J. B. HARREN
CHARLOTTE — In her keynote address Friday to the 20th Annual Convention of the North Carolina Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) Mrs. Ruby Hurley, Southeast NAACP Regional Director, said "The Negroes of the South are getting awfully tired of waiting for their equal rights as American citizens."

She added: "It seems that the message has failed to get through to thousands of Southern whites who persist in using police brutality, electric cattle prods, fire hoses, beatings and mass arrests, in a futile effort to stamp out the hope and thrust for freedom swelling in the breasts of colored people after a century of supposedly emancipation." Approximately 1,000 persons attended the 2-day session.

Mrs. U. S. Brooks, president of the two-thousand-member Queen City NAACP unit, presided over the mass meeting at the Gethsemane AME Zion Church. Rev. F. M. Allen, minister. Music was by the church choir and invocation by the Rev. J. A. White.

Charlotte's Mayor Stanford R. Brookshire delivered official greetings in which he urged that the efforts of Negroes should be channeled more into the area of negotiations rather than demonstrations as he deplored either "forced segregation or forced integration." "Every citizen must accept his personal responsibility," the mayor said, "and that alone should be the criteria to measure up to full citizenship."

He expressed the hope that "Your efforts will augment other efforts (in Tarhelia) such as the

Bite On Woman's Neck Is Expensive

Joseph Pitts of 306 S. Tarboro St. indicated last week that he bit off a little more than he could chew when he put his teeth into the neck of Miss Cassie Black, his alleged girl friend, on June 15.

Pitts' fate rested in the hand of a Wake Superior Court judge last Wednesday, and he was expected to believe that the biting episode was the most expensive venture that he'll ever encounter.

The defendant pleaded guilty to charges of assault with a deadly weapon—his teeth—and was fined $50 and costs of court.

Need For 'Positive' Acts Seen

DENVER — Whitney M. Young, Jr., executive director of the National Urban League, Tuesday, Oct. 15, called on all "decent Americans — and certainly those who are public officials" — to take positive and affirmative action in support of the civil rights struggle now being waged in the United States.

Addressing the Conference of the International City Managers' Association, in session here, Mr. Young told the delegates

'Duck Race Issue,' Nixon Tells GOPs

CLEVELAND, O. (ANP)—Richard M. Nixon who knows how to lose a race for the Presidential chair, thinks he now knows how to put a Republican in the White House in 1964.

His first suggestion is that the Republican party, in which he is still an important factor, duck the civil rights issue, just pretend it doesn't exist. He is also convinced that the civil rights issue that threatens the re-election of Kennedy is a monster created by the President, himself.

He said so here last week in an address before the National Metal Trades association.

Disavowing any desire to compete against President Kennedy again, Nixon said:

"I've had my chance, and it's time to give someone else a chance," he said. "My role will be to make a few speeches, write a few articles, and try to unite the warring factions after the San Francisco convention."

In discussing civil rights, he showed particular concern.

Herbert Edmonds Well-Known 'Thumber', Retires

Herbert Edmonds, 60-year-old "traveler by foot", stopped in at the offices of the CAROLINIAN Friday morning to bid the staff "farewell."

"I'm finally retiring after many years as a thumber," Mr. Edmonds told members of the paper's editorial staff. He said he was returning to his home in Burlington after traveling all 50 states and once all the way to Hawaii by cattle boat.

It is believed that the death of Mr. Edmonds' dog, "Buck", prompted his decision to quit the road.

"It is just too lonesome out there without him", he explained.

Edmonds' last trip across the country was to visit the grave of the little dog near Indianapolis,

Ind. "Buck" is buried on a hillside there not far from where he was struck by a car.

Edmonds has planted flowers on the grave.

On that last trip, Edmonds went on to Independence, Mo., and had his picture made with former President Truman.

Employer Cited As Abettor

James Eugene Hill, 22, of 404 Cannon Street was charged Friday in at least two hit-and-run accidents on Smithfield Street, one involving injuries to three persons. After a preliminary hearing in City Court Tuesday, he was bound over to Wake Superior Court for trial on the latter charge.

Hill was arrested about 4 p.m. after he allegedly abandoned a red pickup truck on the Old Garner Road and lost a foot race to Patrolman Norman Artis.

Injured in the second accident were three 16-year-old local boys, identified as Phillip Noble, who required treatment

Birmingham Trio Also Fined $100

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Two local white men, accused of illegal possession of dynamite during the recent bombings here, received the maximum sentences from a judge Wednesday.

Recorder's Court Judge Earl Langner convicted Robert E. Chambliss, 39, and John W. Hall, 35, both of the Birmingham area, and sentenced both to six months and fined them $100 each.

The other white man held was tried Tuesday and received the same sentence and fine. He was Charles Cagle, 22, of nearby suburban Gardendale.

The three men, all with Ku Klux Klan backgrounds, were arrested in the wake of several racial bombings including one
