

Appreciation Service Here Honors Minister Of St. Paul AME Church, Rev. L. S. Penn

Saint Paul AME Church held an appreciation service here on Sunday, Nov. 17th at 7 p. m. honoring its pastor, the Rev. Dr. L. S. Penn. The program began with the ringing of chimes at 7. Next doxology followed, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow" and a hymn was sung by the joint choir. Invocation was given by B. W. Be-thea; scripture was read by Mrs. Hattie T. Edmondson. A selection followed by the youth choir, and greetings were given by Miss R. H. G. McCauley. The Mial Sisters rendered a trio, followed by two selections. One by the choristers, and the other by the Brass Squire, a Chorale by Bach. Remarks were given on behalf of the Ministerial Alliance by the Rev. J. O. McCloud. Mrs. Ella Williams sang a beautiful solo which was followed by a election by the senior choir. J. C. Washington gave remarks on behalf of the church and the Men's Chorus rendered a selection. Again the Brass Squires contributed their wonderful voices to the program. This time by singing the "Trumpet Voluntary" by Henry Purcell. Wilbert Sanders sang a solo; A. E. Brown made the presentations, and the Rev. Dr. L. S. Penn gave remarks. The program ended by the singing of "God Be With You," by the choir and congregation. Officers are: Miss R. H. G. McCauley, chairman; Mrs. Bertha Smith, secretary; Miss Lillie Bird-sall, treasurer; and Dr. L. S. Penn, pastor. It was a wonderful program and was enjoyed by all who attended.

'Once Upon A Time' Party Is Given By Delta Sorority Here

A 'Once Upon a Time' party was given at the Chavis Park Recreation Center by the Raleigh Alumnae chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. Guests at the party included contestants of the Twenty-fourth Annual abberwock to be held at the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium, February 22, 1964. The theme of the party was taken from fairy land with each girl selecting a character she would like to portray. Some of the characters portrayed were Little Bo-Peep, Little Red Riding Hood, Peter Cottontail, The Good Fairy and others who looked as though they had stepped right out of Fairy Tale Land. This theme gave the girls a wonderful opportunity to become acquainted and to express their own personalities. The prize for the most original and creative costume was won by Miss Reginald Smith of Raleigh who came as Peter Cottontail. The 19 4 Jabberwock contestants came from Winston-Salem, Tarboro, Franklinton, Durham, Littleton, Fayetteville, Laurinburg, Wake County and Raleigh.
