

Wake Forest Man Jailed As

Bullet In Neck Kills 24-Yr.-Old Woman

Kidnaping Trial Opens

Victim Was Visitor At Local Home

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 22, NO. 16

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1964

PRICE 15c

Raleigh Student Attacked

MRS. KECK "WOMAN OF YEAR"

Cops Seek Assailant Of Girl, 17

Mrs. Carol Ann Adams, 17, of 200 Hadley Road, was assaulted on the grounds of the J. W. Ligon Junior-Senior High School here about 2:45 p.m. Monday as she was changing classes. The young Ligon junior was unhurt by her assailant, however.

At 3:05 p.m. Monday, George Lenwood Foxwell, assistant principal, at the school, told Detective Sgt. Jeter H. Bowers of the incident.

Miss Adams described her assailant as being about 5-8 tall and weighing about 150 pounds. She said he had a black kerchief on his face and a hat on top of it, but could give no further description of his clothing.

Second Man With Him

A second man with the assailant did not touch her, Miss Adams stated but pulled the attacker away and left the campus with him. She described the second man as being 6 feet tall and weighing 185 to 200

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ATTORNEY ANNE B. KENNEDY

Mrs. Kennedy Accepts Post With State

Governor Terry Sanford Monday appointed Mrs. Anne Brown Kennedy, Winston-Salem attorney, to the Commission on the Status of Women.

Attorney Kennedy, who will serve an indefinite term, was born October 13, 1924, in Atlanta, the daughter of Mancy and Mary Louise Brown. She attended public schools in Atlanta and earned her undergraduate degree at Spelman College in 1945. She earned her law degree at Howard University in 1951.

Mrs. Kennedy is a member of the Board of the Forsyth Tuberculosis Ass'n. and a member of the Forsyth County Bar Ass'n.

She is married to Harold L. Kennedy and they are the parents of three sons.

RECEIVES "WOMAN OF THE YEAR" PLAQUE — Mrs. Thelma Mitchell Keck, left, well-known Raleigh civic and religious leader, is shown receiving the 1963 "Woman of the Year" plaque from Mrs. Ida Evans Washington, during a ceremony Sunday at St. Paul AME Church here. This was a part of a "Pinet Womanhood Week," sponsored by the Omicron Zeta chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority. (See story).

College Registrar Interviewed:

Guilt Of Accused Bandit Is Doubt In His Home City

Roosevelt Ruben Wright, Jr., 20-year-old student teacher at the J. W. Ligon Jr.-Sr. High School, was released from the Wake County Jail this week after being booked on a charge of robbery and shoot-

EMPLOYMENT BREAKTHROUGH — Loris E. Campbell, Brooklyn, N. Y., left, a recent graduate in photography at A&T College, is one example of changing patterns in Greensboro. He is a salesman for technical equipment at a leading downtown photography firm (Carolina Camera Center).

Cited For Community Services

Omicron Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority presented Mrs. Thelma Mitchell Keck as the "1963 Woman of the Year" Sunday at St. Paul AME Church.

Mrs. Keck's contributions to the Raleigh Community are many and varied. Besides being a busy wife and mother of two teenage children, one attending college and the other a student in high school, she is active in the following community activities:

She is an active member and officer of the Davis Street Presbyterian Church; a member of the Board of Directors of the Raleigh Day Nursery, Corresponding Secretary and reporter of the Raleigh Citizens Association, Recording Secretary for the Executive Board of the Auxiliary to Wake Memorial Hospital of Wake County, and only Negro officer of the Executive Committee; financial secretary for the National Association of College Women; publicity director at Shaw University. An active member of the NAACP, she has worked with white groups in encouraging white citizens to participate in the local freedom marches as well as participating in the demonstrations herself.

Mrs. Keck is national editor of "Up the Hill," a publication of Jack and Jill of America, Inc. and received a certificate of recognition for outstanding contributions to the growth and development of the program for 5,000 mothers, 18,000 children representing 110 chapters from coast to coast. She is also a licensed real estate broker.

Her most recent act of charity,

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

BY CHARLES E. JONES

Mrs. Alma Marie Upchurch Snellings, 24, of Holly Springs, apparently never knew what hit her when she was shot at close range here Tuesday afternoon at 720 S. Bloodworth Street.

James Jeffries (Ike) Davis, 45, of Wake Forest, Route 2, her alleged boyfriend, confessed to the murder of Mrs. Snellings shortly after he was picked up by police, a few minutes after the fatal deed.

Mrs. Snellings, pronounced dead on arrival at Wake Memorial Hospital, had reportedly been meeting Davis at the address on Bloodworth Street for about one month, sometimes twice a day, according to sworn statements from witnesses. The house is owned or rented by Judge Upchurch.

Police officials were first made aware of the shooting when Mrs. Clara Gunter called headquarters at 2:02 p.m. Tuesday.

When officers arrived, an ambulance was taking Mrs. Snellings to the hospital. She had been shot once in the lower part of her neck.

Mrs. Gunter and Mrs. Dorothy Lee Hodge are believed to have been eye-witnesses to the crime, which they said started when Davis insisted that Mrs. Snellings leave with him and she refused.

He is then alleged to have pulled her into the house, Mrs. Snellings still told him she was not leaving, and that is when the fatal shot was fired, the witnesses agreed.

In his statement to police, Davis said Mrs. Snellings accused him of having another woman in his automobile. Davis declared the only person in his car at the time was Frank B. Simpson, his boss, with whom he took refuge after shooting Mrs. Snellings. He has no previous record with the city-county records and identifications bureau.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Ask Weaver To Halt Va. Project Now

NORFOLK, Va. (ANP)—A Norfolk attorney, who charges the Norfolk School Board and the Norfolk Redevelopment and Housing Authority with a joint program to foster racial segregation in Norfolk has asked the Housing and Home Finance Agency to investigate the matter.

In a letter last week Atty. Joseph A. Jordan Jr., requested Dr. Robert C. Weaver, HHFA administrator in Washington, to invalidate the housing authority's certification and to withhold further federal funds until his charge has been investigated and corrected.

Jordan referred in his letter to recent protests by the Rosemont Junior High School PTA and Oakwood-Rosemont Civic League that the school board's plan to build a new high school in the area would avoid integration.

School Board Chairman Francis N. Crenshaw said last month the new school was being built because nearby Norview High School —

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

DEFENDANTS IN MONROE KIDNAPING—Shown are the four defendants in the Monroe kidnaping: John Lowry, 22, (left), a freedom rider from New York; Harold Reape, 19, (center); and Richard Crowder, 21, both of whom were leaders of the Monroe Non-violent Action Committee. After 2 and one-half years under indictment, they went on trial Feb. 17 along with a 4th defendant, Mrs. Willie Mae Mallory, right. (See story).

Begin Selecting Jurors In Monroe Kidnaping Case

MONROE—In the most celebrated kidnaping case in recent history, four persons, including a white youth, went on trial for a crime they claim never happened at all. The only woman charged, Mrs. Willie Mae Mallory of New York, entered Superior Court Tuesday wearing a red beret.

The four are charged with kidnaping a white couple in the aftermath of a racial incident here in 1961. The two other Negroes entered innocent pleas Tuesday as did Mrs. Mallory, but the lawyer for the white defendant received permission from Judge

Walter Brock to enter his plea Wednesday.

Len Holt, an attorney from Washington, D. C., reportedly withdrew from the case, according to one of the defendants, Richard Crowder, 22.

However, Mrs. Mallory said that her attorney, Walter S. Haffner, of Cleveland, Ohio, was flying to Monroe and expected to arrive yesterday.

Mrs. Mallory, the most well-known of the defendants, is a native of Macon, Ga., who was arrested in Cleveland where she had fled "for safety," tried to avoid extradition for two years.

Robert Williams, former president of the local NAACP chapter, took refuge in Castro's Cuba, where he still is with his wife and children.

The choosing of a jury was expected to start on Wednesday.

The defendants are charged with waylaying Mr. and Mrs. G. Bruce Sizemore who were in their automobile headed for home when their trip took them through the Negro section. Police stated that a crowd of about 500 armed Negroes stopped them.

However, it was claimed by the defendants that the white couple entered Williams' home voluntarily to escape the rioting elements outside.

Mom Throws Infant In Trash Can; Is Freed

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (ANP)—The 24-year-old mother who placed her new-born baby in a trash can here last September 23, in an effort to dispose of it was given five years probation here recently by Criminal Judge Hans G. Tanzler. The young mother, Miss Adelle Williams, had been examined by a court-appointed psychiatrist Dr. Morton E. Berman who found her to be "sane but naive and illiterate."

son, who said the mother remembered nothing from the time of the birth of the child until she went looking for a taxi to take her to a hospital.

In reconstructing the defendant's statement that she was unaware of being pregnant, Dr. Edwall said it was "possible and unprecedented."

The judge made note of the young mother's otherwise clean past record while admonishing her concerning her conduct while on probation.

Rocky Mt. Cleric Ordered Back To Church By Judge

(Special To The CAROLINIAN)

ROCKY MOUNT — The Rev. George W. Dudley, prominent local minister, who was restrained by an injunction from going on the grounds of the Rocky Mount church where he has pastored since 1958, was dissolved last week in Edgecombe County Superior Court.

He was permitted to return to the pulpit of the Mount Zion Baptist Church when Judge Walter Bone dissolved the injunction issued late in January by Judge Joseph Parker.

The injunction granted the request of 14 members of the church, restrained the embattled minister from even going on the grounds of the edifice.

The Rev. Dudley is president of the Rocky Mount Voters and Improvement League, a Negro organization, and a member of the general board of the Baptist Convention of N. C.

The complaint lodged by the 14 male members contended that they had fired Rev. Dudley as minister in September of 1962 because he had usurped the power of the deacons and trustees, condemned some members from the pulpit, presided over meetings in a dictatorial manner, was spending church money without authorization, and other charges.

In the Civil Court action Monday, the 14 plaintiffs, former members of the board of deacons and board of trustees, offered some 135 affidavits purportedly signed by members of the church.

Dudley, in his successful effort to get the restraining order dissolved, offered 22 affidavits purportedly signed by members of the church, as well as affidavits signed by the clerk of the church, the current board of deacons and board of trustees, the treasurer of the church and assistant pastor.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Winners Of Silver $ $ Announced

The following persons were winners in The CAROLINIAN's Silver Dollar Contest for the past week:

Mrs. E. M. Trice, 107 Center St., receipts from Security Meat Market and Shoe Mart; Mr. Albert Purcell, 1114 1-2 E. Morgan St., Wood's

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

One of the plaintiffs later referred

RCA Begins Drive For Members

Under the leadership of Mrs. Augusta Turner, the Raleigh Citizens Association has launched its annual membership drive. This effort is aimed at bringing all area individuals and organizations interested in educational, economic, political and cultural growth into the Association's membership.

Contact with prospective members is being made through letters and personal contact. The Association, a federation of individuals and organizations, believes that an increased membership can give strength to its social action; that, as it grows and attracts more of a cross-section of the community's citizenry, its voice will be heard.

A matter of extreme urgency before the group now is this matter of elections on both the state and national levels. The Association, especially through its political action committee, is doing research with the hopes of setting before the public the qualifications of each candidate for public office.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

NO BOYCOTTING FOR DIANNE — School worker Mrs. Mary Davis angrily pulls her 14-year-old daughter, Dianne, up the steps of the Showalter Junior High School in Chester, Pa., after discovering the girl in a picket line, boycotting the school last Thursday. Six Chester schools were boycotted by several hundred Civil Rights pickets. (UPI PHOTO).

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

PAGE 1
Horton's Cash Store
PAGE 2
Winn-Dixie
Raleigh Business College
PAGE 3
Hudson-Bell-Spird's
State Office Equipment Co.
J. W. Winter's & Co.
Mechanics & Farmers Bank
White Oil Co., Inc.
Wood's 2-10c Store
Emma Jane Dress Shop
PAGE 4
Colonial Stores
Capital Fuel Oil Co. & Coal Co.
R. E. Quinn Furniture Co.
Hunt General Tire Co.
PAGE 5
A&P Stores
London Oil Co.
Estates Building Co., Inc.
Wrenn Electrical Co.
Hester's Wayds Furniture
PAGE 6
Carolina Builders, Inc.
O'Brien Motor Finance
Siddaway's Opticians, Inc.
PAGE 7
Carolina Power & Light Co.
Towns & Country Furniture
Bargain Center
Lincoln & Cleaners, Inc.
PAGE 8
O'Neal Motors, Inc.
Wexler Bros. Bargainer, Inc.
Al Radio Quick Co.
Wholesale Motor Sales
Davis Motor Co.
Raleigh Gasoline Co.
PAGE 9
Rhodes Furniture Co.

International Mortgage Associates
Smith Coal & Oil Co.
Abram's United Rent-Alls
College Paint Shop
PAGE 11
Helling Levine
Taylor Radio & Electrical Co.
Woolie, Inc.
Price Is Right Grocery
Firestone Stores
Security Meat Market
PAGE 14
Raleigh Funeral Home
Acme Realty Co.
James Sanders Tile Co.
McLaurin Parking Company
Medlin-Davis
The Britt Company
Amburn Pontiac, Inc.
Branch Banking & Trust Co.
PAGE 15
W. T. Grant's
Browning's Barber Shop
Poole's Pie Shop
Buffalo & Company Builders, Inc.
Capital Bargain Store
Shoe Mart
Thiens Record Shop
R. B. Stokes
Penney's
PAGE 16
Lincoln Theatre
Ambassador Theatre
PAGE 17
Buffalo Battery Shop
C. & M. Promotions
Supreme Brake & Alignment Service
PAGE 18
Sanders Motor Co.
Dunn's Easo Service
Correll Coal Co.