

Wake Youth Was On Way To Store:

HUNT STILL ON FOR BOY-KILLER

Mrs. Mallory, Convicted N. C. Kidnaper, Fights N. Y. Cop Over Congo Situation

THE CAROLINIAN
North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 24, NO. 6      RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1964      PRICE 15c

JOSEPH JEROME HOLLOWAY

Left To Die In A Ditch

BY STAFF WRITER

According to an official of the State Highway Patrol office here Tuesday night, investigation is continuing into the death of a 14-year-old youth, who was struck and knocked from his bicycle on the Old Stage Road at 5:20 p. m. last Friday. Cpl. Earl Greene and State Trooper Stacy S. Bailey, who was called to the scene, are still working on the case.

Joseph Jerome Holloway, the victim, was found lying in a ditch, and pronounced dead on arrival at Wake Memorial Hospital. Death was attributed to a crushed skull, according to hospital authorities.

Witnesses reported young Holloway was hit by what appeared to be a gray 1963 Ford, allegedly trying to pass a panel truck.

The panel truck vehicle should be damaged on the left front fender. It was last seen traveling South in the direction of Blalock's Crossroads on N. C. 42, Bailey stated.

The boy, who lived with his grandfather, Lonnie Holloway, of Raleigh, Route 2, was hit about 125 yards from his home.

Mr. Holloway informed Dr. William Hedrick, Wake's deputy medical examiner, that Joseph was riding his bike to a store about 800 yards up the road.

A neighbor, Truman Harris, who lives on Old Stage Road, about 13 miles south of Raleigh, told Trooper Bailey that Joseph was struck in front of his home and said the automobile continued on down the road without stopping.

The unknown killer's car was passing a "yellowish bread or cigar truck" Mr. Harris told the trooper. The truck slowed down, then resumed its speed, he continued.

Harris then went out to the road, found young Holloway lying in the ditch beside his crumpled bicycle and called an ambulance.

All State police units in the area were put on lookout for the vehicle, including the Raleigh Police Department.

The hit-run car may be marked with red paint from the youth's red bike.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

WEATHER

Temperatures for the next five days, Thursday through Monday, will average 3 to 6 degrees above normal. High and low temperatures for Raleigh will be, 52-31. Rainfall will average 1 to 3 quarters of an inch, occurring in portions, late Thursday and over the region Friday and again around Monday.

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS
BUY FROM THEM

- PAGE 2: Bertson's Cash Store, Gem Watch Shop
- PAGE 3: Lenoir's, Betty Gay
- PAGE 5: Hudson-Bell-Ellis, John W. Winters and Co., The Capital Coca-Cola Bottling Co., Inc.
- PAGE 6: James Sanders Tile Co., Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co., Jesse Jones Sausage, Harmon-Bailey, Inc., Biltmore Hill, Amberg Printing, Inc., Needles-Davis, Cross Printing Co., Ivey's of Raleigh, Branch Banking and Trust Co., Hudson-Bell-Ellis of Raleigh, Scene Realty Co.
- PAGE 7: Wade's Auto Sales, Rawls Motor Co., Al Smith Buick, EWE, Exited Rent-A-Ride
- PAGE 8: London Oil Co., R. E. Quinn Furniture Company, A&P Stores, Kester Builders Co., Taylor Radio and Electrical Co., Community Drug Store
- PAGE 9: Carolina Builders Corp., Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Raleigh, Riggway's Optician, Inc.
- PAGE 11: White's Oil Co., Inc., Curry Home Improvement Co.
- PAGE 12: Raleigh Seafood
- PAGE 13: Carolina Power and Light Co., Shee Mast, R. F. Goodrich, Public Service Co. of N. C., Inc.
- PAGE 14: Mechanics and Farmers Bank, Bump's Bus Service
- PAGE 15: McLean, Watson and Laster
- PAGE 16: Rhodes, Stephens' Appliances Co., Southern Bell, Hunt General Tire Co., King Cola Motel

Murder Arrests Finally Made:

Will Miss. Prosecute?

U. S., World Awaiting The Fate Of 21

—MERIDIAN, Miss. (NPD)—The State of Mississippi still has not indicated whether it will file murder charges against any of the 21 persons arrested in connection with the deaths of three civil rights workers.

All of the suspects, including a sheriff, his deputy and a minister, have been charged with violating civil rights of the slain trio.

The FBI, which made the arrests, cannot file murder charges. Murder is not a federal offense, unless it is committed on government property.

State Dist. Atty. W. H. Johnson said the state is "reviewing the case and I am not at liberty to say how long it will be before we reach a decision as to whether or not to file charges."

The mass arrests, which came shortly after FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover's resignation, were the largest in the state's history.

State police units in the area were put on lookout for the vehicle, including the Raleigh Police Department.

The hit-run car may be marked with red paint from the youth's red bike.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Kills Self As Boyfriend Listens In

WASHINGTON (NPD)—Police are still seeking motives in the tragic death of a 14-year-old girl who killed herself while her boyfriend listened on the telephone.

Linda Conners was found sprawled across a chair in the living room of her home. Near the body was a .22-caliber revolver, which had been fired once.

Dr. Belden R. Reap, county medical examiner, ruled the death as suicide. Autopsy showed the slug had passed through her heart, then pierced the spinal column.

Police gave this account of the tragedy: Linda called her boyfriend, Sammy Hepperle, who lived about a dozen blocks away. The girl was crying and said she would kill her-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

GROUND BROKEN FOR NEW ST. AMBROSE P. E. CHURCH — Shown above are some of the participants who took part in the groundbreaking ceremonies for the new St. Ambrose Episcopal Church in the Rochester Heights area on Sunday, December 6, at 4 p. m. Left to right are: Purdie Anders, junior warden; George Foxwell, president of Laymen's League; Leonard Herdip, senior warden; J. O. White, chairman, building committee; The Rt. Rev. Richard Baker, Bishop of the Diocese of N. C., turning the first shovel of dirt; Mrs. C. J. Barber, president of Episcopal Churchwomen and The Rev. Arthur J. Calloway, rector. The building will be a $100,000 edifice and should be completed late in 1965.

Accepts Nobel Prize:

It's Not "How Long We Live, But How Well," Dr. King Says

Nobel Prize winner the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. declared he is not afraid to die in racial violence.

In an interview for an ABC-TV program on the Nobel Prize Awards to be telecast Saturday, December 12, at 7:30 P. M. EST., Dr. King declared: "You must be willing to die for something you believe."

"I don't think a man can be fully free until he conquers the fear of death and I really feel that I have conquered this fear," declared the noted leader of the non-violent civil rights campaign who at the age of 35 became the youngest man ever to win a Nobel Prize.

He will be presented the Peace Prize in Oslo Thursday (December 10) in a ceremony which will be shown on the Nobel Prize Awards television program on which he expressed his lack of fear of death.

Dr. King is the third Negro ever to win a Nobel Prize. "I don't have any fear of death," said Dr. King in the ABC-TV interview.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Hoover Determined To Stay, Despite Demands

WASHINGTON (NPD)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has voiced his determination to remain in his post despite a growing demand that he resign.

The sudden controversy over the FBI chief grew out of his comment that Dr. Martin Luther King is a "notorious liar."

Since then, other persons have repeated Dr. King's charge that the FBI has not done all it can to track down perpetrators of racial crimes in the South.

Rev. C. T. Vivian, an associate of Dr. King, said: "We never expected that action against (Hoover) might come so soon. But really, what kind of man is this that can call Dr. King the country's most notorious liar one week, and the next boast that he's a states righter who's against people have their rights trampled by minorities?"

Rev. Vivian said that "Negroes are the ones who have had their rights trampled for decades and if Mr. Hoover doesn't know that by now, it's time he learned."

In Greenwood, Miss., Stokely Carmichael, COFO project director, said: "I've been here since 1961 and I don't see all the improvement some people talk about. The FBI atti-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

From Raleigh's Police Files

THE CRIME BEAT

BY CHARLES R. JONES

Was Dancing With The "Wrong" Girl

Robert Cotton, of Route 6, Box 26, Raleigh, told Officer T. T. Street, Jr., at 2:20 a.m. Tuesday, that a man called "J. T." pulled a gun on him and fired it because, "I was dancing with a girl."

Cotton declared "J. T. whipped out the gun and shot as I was walking out the door." He was not hit, however, and the officer was unable to find evidence as to where the bullet had landed.

The dapper and mysterious "J. T." was said to have been attired in a derby hat, striped shirt, and dark coat and pants. No one interviewed knew his full name or address.

All admitted engaging in the fight, all were injured, and all were hauled off to the Wake County Jail, charged with assault with deadly weapons upon each other.

Three Men Fight With Can Opener — Detectives Jeter H. Bowers and L. B. Council reported Sunday

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

New Charge Brings Arrest; Out On Bail

NEW YORK, N. Y.—One of the four persons convicted of kidnaping a white couple in Monroe, N. C., last February, and the only woman involved, Mrs. Willie Mae

Mallory, 37, was accused last week in court of assaulting a local police officer during a demonstration at the United Nations Plaza.

Mrs. Mallory, who is free on $15,000 bail in the North Carolina incident, during appeal of her 16 to 20 year kidnaping sentence, was ordered held in $3,500 bail by Criminal Court Judge Walter H. Gadwin.

Also charged with felonious assault was Soyed Khallesultan, 21, also a Negro, of Brooklyn. He was ordered held under a $1,500 bail.

Both were charged with assaulting Patrolman John Gallagher during a picketing demonstration Tuesday, calling for support of rebel forces in the Congo. Demonstrators became unruly and four of them were jailed.

Conrad Lynn, an attorney, representing the pair, identified Mrs. Mallory as the woman involved in the N. C. kidnaping. She has also taken part in a number of civil rights demonstrations in the South.

Mrs. Mallory, one white man, another Negro, and Robert F. Williams, Monroe native and also a Negro, were convicted of kidnaping the white couple during a racial disturbance in Monroe in 1961.

Williams later fled to Cuba, where he sought asylum and is now making alleged propaganda broadcasts.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Fort Bragg Soldier Gets "Reefer" Term

WILSON — Bert Bryant Scott, 20, a soldier of Fort Bragg, whose native home is New York City, was given an active prison sentence here last weekend in Federal Court after being convicted of acquiring and transferring marijuana, sometimes referred to as "reefers."

Scott was sentenced under the Youth Corrections Act, which provides for a maximum sentence of four years, plus a two year period of supervision.

He faced maximum sentence of 30 years on two charges of dealing with the illicit weed after he entered pleas of guilty.

Federal attorneys summed up evidence in the case, when they said Scott sold six bags of "reefer" to an informer, who paid him with three marked $20 bills.

The defendant was later apprehended in his quarters at Fort Bragg, and one of the $20 bills was found on his person.

It could not be ascertained just where he will serve his term, but it will be in a Federal penitentiary. North Carolina does not have one.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Mallory, 37, was accused last week in court of assaulting a local police officer during a demonstration at the United Nations Plaza.

Mrs. Mallory, who is free on $15,000 bail in the North Carolina incident, during appeal of her 16 to 20 year kidnaping sentence, was ordered held in $3,500 bail by Criminal Court Judge Walter H. Gadwin.

Also charged with felonious assault was Soyed Khallesultan, 21, also a Negro, of Brooklyn. He was ordered held under a $1,500 bail.

Both were charged with assaulting Patrolman John Gallagher during a picketing demonstration Tuesday, calling for support of rebel forces in the Congo. Demonstrators became unruly and four of them were jailed.

Conrad Lynn, an attorney, representing the pair, identified Mrs. Mallory as the woman involved in the N. C. kidnaping. She has also taken part in a number of civil rights demonstrations in the South.

Mrs. Mallory, one white man, another Negro, and Robert F. Williams, Monroe native and also a Negro, were convicted of kidnaping the white couple during a racial disturbance in Monroe in 1961.

Williams later fled to Cuba, where he sought asylum and is now making alleged propaganda broadcasts.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Gov. Sanford Commutes 13 CR Sentences

Governor Terry Sanford announced last Saturday that he was commuting the sentences of 13 civil rights workers arrested in Chapel Hill during the early part of 1964 and charged with various civil rights protests.

One of the defendants was the Rev. Harmon Lee Smith, a divinity school professor at Duke University, Durham, whose conviction last April brought tears to the eyes of the women jurors after presiding Judge Raymond B. Mallard sentenced him to 90 days on the roads.

All of the thirteen defendants

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

MRS. WILLIE MAE MALLORY

HOWARD LEE BOONE ... burglar finds no way out

Could Not Keep Vow To His Lawyer

BY CHARLES R. JONES

A 26-year-old Raleigh man, who allegedly vowed to his lawyer, "I'll never serve a day if they (the jurors) convict me," failed to make good his vow and was sentenced to serve 20 to 25 years in Wake Superior Court last Friday afternoon after slaying his throat with a razor blade in front of the jury. The incident occurred about 11:10 a.m.

Howard Lee Boone, of 1104 S. Person Street, was rushed to Wake Memorial Hospital after one of the jurors yelled twice, "The prisoner's cut his throat!" Boone was returned to court thereafter, however, and pleaded guilty to a second charge of second degree burglary after Judge Henry McKinnon had passed sentence on the first guilty plea. The jurist then sentenced Boone to an additional 20 to 25-year term; but allowed the sentences to run concurrently. Boone's wound was described as a "slight cut under his chin."

Boone was on trial for first-degree burglary, but Wake Solicitor W. G. (Buck) Ramsdell, didn't press for a first-degree conviction on the capital charge.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

PRESIDENT JOHNSON GREET'S OLYMPIC MEDALIST — President Lyndon B. Johnson is shown last week greeting John Thomas, of Cambridge, Mass., at a luncheon reception given at the White House by the Johnsons for the U. S. medal winners in the recent Olympic Games in Tokyo, Japan. Thomas won a silver medal in track. (UPI PHOTO).