DEATH OF A PASTOR.

Your God has call'd your shepherd home,
You'll see his face no more
Till you behold him round the throng
With all the ransomed throng.

Your God has call'd your shepherd home,
You'll hear his voice no more,
Until you lay this body down,
And go where he has gone.

O Lord! look down upon the flock,
Through him so often fed
With living food drawn from thy word,
With water and with blood.

O! Jesus, wipe the falling tear,—
We hope to meet again,
Where those who meet shall part no more,
And those long parted meet.

In mercy, Lord, his children bless,
A father to them be,
And give them grace for all their days,
And wash their sins away.

May they in youth obey the truth—
Take shelter in thy Son,
That when they lay this body down
Go where their father's gone.

In spotless robes may they appear,
Like blood wash'd saints, to sing
Worthy the Lamb that once was slain,
Our Lord, Saviour, and King.

Communicated.

STEWART COUNTY, GA., Nov. 22, 1875.
Elder P. D. Gold:—

It is in much weakness and great tribulation that I make an attempt to address you this evening; but feeling under obligations. This is written to inform you of the reception of the book of Sister Phillips' Experience, which was received in due time, and I was so well pleased with it that I can witness with Sister Phillips in many things written therein, unless in my weakness there is a failing to understand her writing. To my view she is a Baptist indeed and in truth, and one dearly beloved in the Spirit; for she has told me things in accordance with my little experience, unless mine is not an experience of grace at all, and things inexplicable by me. Notwithstanding the very great and excellent commendation you give of the book through the LANDMARKS—the half had not been told.

You will please pray for me and mine when it pleases God to give unto you the Spirit of prayer.

The Primitive Baptists in this country are generally of one mind: all contending for the faith once delivered to the saints, and striving to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace. Your unworthy brother, if one at all, in much tribulation,

W. T. EVERITT.

In Memoriam.

Brother Gold:—

YOU will please publish the death of Sister ELIZABETH REEVES, in the columns of the LANDMARKS:

She died at her residence in Stewart County, Georgia, October 5th, 1875, after a short illness.

Sister REEVES was born June 6, 1806. She was a consistent and member of the Primitive Baptist Church.

preceding her death—was a member in good standing with the Church at Slaughter Creek.

She bore her last sickness with the fortitude of one who felt the sentiment expressed by the poet in the following lines, viz:

"Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast, I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there."

EXPERIENCE

OR

Sister R. Anna Phillips.

I have for some time been publishing a pamphlet-style book, containing the experience of Sister Phillips, and her reasons for leaving the Missionaries and uniting with the Primitive Baptists.

The book contains two hundred and eight pages of matter—divided into twenty-one chapters—devoted to various subjects—important to an enquirer after truth.

It needs no eulogy to one that knows the ability of her pen. Nothing that I have ever seen from her is more instructive.

It will be very profitable to all that are searching for Bible truth.—To such I honestly and earnestly commend it. It may be obtained by orders sent to her at Rome, Georgia, or to me at Wilson, North Carolina. The price is 75 Cts. Orders can be sent with the money at once, as the book is now ready.

P. D. GOLD.

It Pays! It Pays!!

WHAT PAYS?

IT PAYS every Manufacturer, Merchant, Mechanic, Inventor, Farmer, or Professional man, to keep informed on all the improvements and discoveries of the age.

IT PAYS the head of every family to introduce into his household a newspaper that is instructive, one that fosters a taste for investigation, and promotes thought and encourages discussion among the members.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN

which has been published weekly for the last thirty years, does this, to an extent beyond that of any other publication, in fact it is the only weekly paper published in the United States, devoted to Manufactures, Mechanics, Inventions and New Discoveries in the Arts and Sciences.

Every number is profusely illustrated and its contents embrace the latest and most interesting information pertaining to the Industrial, Mechanical, and Scientific Progress of the World; Descriptions, with Beautiful Engravings, of New Inventions, New Implements, New Processes, and Improved Industries of all kinds; Useful Notes, Receipts, Suggestions and Advice, by Practical Writers, for Workmen and Employers, in all the various arts, forming a complete repository of New Inventions and Discoveries; containing a weekly record not only of the progress of the Industrial Arts in our own country, but also of all New Discoveries and Inventions in every branch of Engineering, Mechanics, and Science abroad.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has been the foremost of all industrial publications for the past Thirty Years. It is the Oldest, Largest, Cheapest, and the Best Weekly illustrated paper devoted to Engineering, Mechanics, Chemistry, New Inventions, Science and Industrial Progress, published in the World.

The practical receipts are well worth ten times the subscription price. And for the shop and house, will save many times the cost of subscription.

Merchants, Farmers, Mechanics, Engineers, Inventors, Manufacturers, Chemists, Lovers of Science, and People of all Professions, will find the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN useful to them. It should have a place in every Family, Library, Study, Office, and Counting Room; in every Reading Room, College, and School. A new volume commences Jan. 1, 1876.

A year's numbers contain 52 pages. Several hundred Engravings. Thousands of volumes are preserved for binding and reference. Terms, $3.20 a year by mail, including postage. Discount to Clubs. Special Circulars giving Club rates sent free. Single copies mailed on receipt of 10 cents. May be had of all News Dealers.

PATENTS.

In connection with the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, MESSRS. MUNN & Co., are Solicitors of American and Foreign Patents, and have the largest establishment in the world. More than fifty thousand applications have been made for patents through their agency.

Patents are obtained on the best terms, Models of New Inventions and Sketches examined and advice free. A special notice is made in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN of all Inventions Patented through this Agency, with the name and residence of the Patentee. Patents are often sold in part or whole, to persons attracted to the invention by such notice. Send for Pamphlet, containing full directions for obtaining Patents. A bound volume containing the Patent Laws, Census of the U. S., and 142 Engravings of mechanical movements. Price 25 cents.

NOTICE!

My needs are such that I must urge on those of my subscribers who are behind with the LANDMARKS to send forward their dues as soon as possible. Any who do not remember how they stand, if they will send forward a remittance and notice the Receipts, can soon learn. Many owe for one or two years. True, their amounts separately are small—but put together they will enable me to pay some debts now due, which I desire very much to pay.—[Ed.]
