JUSTICE

By GRACE E. HALL

A KEEN trade makes an open And laws are made for blade and blood.

To keep man's conduct right; But what of those who sigh and slay A button heart—and so away? An open wound is red and raw,

And those who use a knife, the law Will punish lawfully;
But these who only stab the heart May strike in safety and depart.

There is a Ford yacri-but it is to the family. Ford himself field his sport not in yacrting, but is ice skating, walking camping, and tree.

A keen blade makes an open wound, A cruel wound and red, And every man will cry that law Upon its course be sped.

But souls are murdered everywhers, And men but smile and call it fair. ( Dodd, Mead & Company.)
