

The Watauga Democrat.

Local Affairs
Town and County

Mrs. McKinley Ayers is visiting relatives at Greenville, Tenn.

On account of an unavoidable shut down in the electric service yesterday the Democrat is issued a little late this week.

Mrs. Louis Glenn of lower Cave Creek, we are glad to learn, is improving from a very protracted illness.

Mrs. Frank Moore returned Sunday from a visit to her childhood home at Hiddenite, Alexander county.

District Attorney F. A. Linney, who has been absent for some time attending his courts, is spending the week with his family.

The Democrat is indeed sorry to hear of the illness of Mr. E. M. Greer. He is very old and much anxiety is felt over his condition which on Monday was considered serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Estes Hartley and family of Lovell were over last week doing some work on the family buying ground near Boone. This is an annual event with the children of the late Mr. Azor Hartley.

Mr. C. C. Cress, lumberman of Mountain City, Tenn., who spent a good deal of time on the Boone yards last year, has returned and taken a position with the New River Lumber Co.

Prof. Alex Tugman of Todd was a business caller at The Democrat office Monday. He came to renew his subscription and order the paper sent for a year to his brother Jim, at Underwood, Wyoming.

Mr. Augustus Peterson student at the A. T. S. was operated on for appendicitis at Watauga Hospital last Friday and Miss Alice Myers of Beaver Dams was also operated on for that disease the same day. Both patients are convalescing nicely.

Editor Walter Johnson of the Ashe Recorder and Dr. Gambil of West Jefferson were in town yesterday evening for possibly an hour. They came on a rush business trip and left on their return as soon as it was transacted.

Mrs. Carrol Adams of Silverstone who accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Josie McGuire of Boone, spent several days in Johns Hopkins Hospital for treatment returned Sunday. She it is hoped is somewhat improved, but is still far from being well.

The grading for the Daniel Boone Hotel will be completed this week and sealed bids for the erection of the building will be opened by the building committee on Saturday May 24. The building when completed will be rushed to completion just as soon as good work will permit.

The hardest storm of rain and hail that has visited this section for many years occurred Tuesday afternoon. The streets of the town were veritable rivers and the storm was accompanied by vivid flashes of lightning and loud peals of thunder. There was considerable hail still on the ground Wednesday morning.

Mr. J. C. Singletary who has been conducting a shoe shop in Boone for three or four years, has sold his property here, and moved his family and machinery to Johnson City. Singletary has been an ideal citizen during his stay in Boone, honest and upright, with the happy faculty of attending strictly to his own business.

Mrs. J. M. Moretz who has been with her sick father, Rev. Harrison Farthing on Beaver Dam since Saturday returned yesterday afternoon. She was accompanied back by her brother Dr. J. C. Farthing and family of Butler, Tenn. Mrs. Moretz says that while her father is still a very sick man, they think he is slowly improving.

Mr. John A. Gragg, aged and respected citizen of Hodges Gap, died at his home Saturday after several days illness with pneumonia, interment being in the Gragg grave yard Sunday. Mr. Gragg was always a quiet and unassuming citizen and had many friends who will learn of his death with real sorrow. All the children were present at the funeral.

On Tuesday evening prohibition agent, Ralph Bingham captured Thos Church near Purlear in Wilkes Co., who had in his possession 10 gallons of corn whiskey, and the same evening he captured a Ford car on the Boone Trail Highway occupied by Russel Triplett and Davy Carroll and in their possession was found three pints of liquor. The three men were tried before U. S. Commissioner J. W. Hodges Wednesday morning and were bound to the Federal Court. The liquor was poured on the street in front of the Commissioner's office.

Rev. Uriah Farthing conducted a series of Bible study classes at the Willowdale Church last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Swift are at home for the summer vacation. They have just finished a very successful year in the Cabarrus county schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bingham of W. Va. are visiting relatives on Cove Creek.

SILVERSTONE

(Too late for last issue.)
The rain seems to be over and today brings forth beautiful sunshine. The road men with their machines are doing some excellent work on our public roads through the Silverstone section. Mr. Ed Miller acting as overseer.

Mable Jean, little daughter of Dayton Wilson is a very sick child at this writing.

Mr. Roy Perdue has been nursing a case of chicken pox for the past few days.

On last Sunday there was a birthday celebration at the home of Mr. W. L. Wilson, it being intended for both Mr. and Mrs. Wilson. The children were all present except one.

Mrs. John Perdue, and most of the grandchildren. They reported an enjoyable time, plenty of good things to eat and a refreshment of ice cream. We wish for them many more happy birthdays.

FOSCOE

Mrs. David Wyke is confined to her bed with rheumatism.

Rev. Barlow preached a sermon here on Sunday the 11th.

Rev. Gentry, from Galax, Va. was here for several days on his way to visit his father in Ashe county.

Mrs. Tom Curtis and Mrs. Carrie Walters went fishing last week and caught 20 nice fish, but Mr. J. H. Brinkley went ahead of that as he caught 85.

profusely decorated with lilacs and wild flowers. The meeting was opened by the president.

After devotional exercises by Mrs. Bennett a business session was held during which many items of business were discussed.

The usual program was changed by the introduction of Mr. J. B. Steel. He gave a most interesting and helpful talk on fertilizing, planting and cultivating flower and vegetable gardens. The club is indebted to him for this information. We hope that he will come again.

A social hour was enjoyed during which a flower contest was enthusiastically entered into. Mrs. Smith Hagaman won and was presented a toy set of garden tools.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Hardin.

The guests were furnished with a bit of moulding clay with a request to mould a flower in a given time. Mrs. Russell Hodges proved the best artist. She was awarded a basket of bon-hons.

The Club was delighted to have Mrs. Graves a guest of the afternoon.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. L. Trivett Friday May 30th.
