Mr. R. L. Eutcklar, Mobile, Ala. spent the week end here. Says he will be back soon to get some more good sleep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Coxart, Abingdon, Va. spent Tuesday night here en route for South Carolina and other points.

Misses Gibson, Woodruff and Henley, accompanied by Mr. Pearey, motored to Taylorsville Monday. Miss Henley's home town.

Rev. F. M. Huggins will leave the first of next week with his wife for a visit of a month with relatives in Pleasureville, Ky. The trip will be made by auto.

Mr. J. W. Brawley and wife of Greensboro were week end visitors at the home of Mrs. Brawley's brother, Attorney W. R. Lovill. Mrs. Lovill came up from Johnson City Sunday, returning Monday.

Rev. Norton Atkins, formerly pastor of the Episcopal churches in Watauga County, but for a number of years located at Warwick, N. Y. was a pleasant visitor among friends here yesterday afternoon. He is now located at Swanee, Tennessee.

Mr. Clifford Shook, of the Watauga Furniture & Lumber Co. received a message Monday telling of the serious illness of his wife at Grandfather. He left immediately for that place and will not return until a marked change is noted in her condition.

The Dixie Theater Building will soon be ready for use, and work is being rushed on the walls for the remainder of the handsome block of buildings in which it is located. The forms for the concrete foundation for the Daniel Boone Hotel are practically in, and work on these two projects will be pushed to the limit.

Mr. D. F. Horton of Vilas who has been suffering with a swollen hand for the past several weeks accompanied his daughter to Lenoir, last week and was advised by the physician there to go to Dr. Shuford in Hickory and have an X-ray picture made which he did. He returned home Tuesday and last reports are that he is no better and confined to his bed.—Reported.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Perry spent the week end in Boone with their son, Dr. H. B. Perry. While here they were guests at a birthday dinner given Mrs. Moody, aunt of Mr. G. P. Hagaman at the Hagaman home. Among the others invited were Dr. Perry, Smith Hagaman, Prof. D. D. Dougherty and family. Mr. and Mrs. Perry will go from here to Valle Crucis for a few days, then to Cove Creek for a visit with their son Prof. W. Y. Perry, and will likely return home the latter part of the week.

Mr. J. E. Vance, Vice President of the E. T. & W. N. C. Railroad was in the town Monday. By courtesy of Mr. W. H. Gragg the gentleman was permitted to see some of the outlying sections of this country, with which he was highly pleased. This being his first visit here for a year Mr. Vance was astonished at the progress the town has made. He was a pleasant caller at the Democrat office and we are grateful for some of his expressions of appreciation of our efforts in the country newspaper game. Mr. Vance is a splendid gentleman and is always a welcome visitor in Boone.

Meat Camp

Blowing Rock

Rev. Mr. Brinkman on Monday morning the 16th with a party of school students: Miss Celeste Knoefel, Vera Price, Kate Stepp, Dorothy Paul Lips, Messrs. Eugene Knoefel, Mr. Charles Jackson, Billy Sprou, Rufus Allison, with their chaperones, Miss Margaret Rowan, and Miss Lillian Deane, Rev. G. C. Brinkman, all of Black Mountain, left that place Monday for a camping trip through the mountains.

Passing through Marion, Little Switzerland to Linville Falls where they camped for the night. Second night they camped on the Grandfather mountain among the bears and the beautiful wild scenery which they say was lovely beyond description. They arrived in Blowing Rock Thursday where they spent the day sight-seeing and taking in the wondrous beauty of the Rock. Stopping at the Wild Cat for a short rest, leaving Blowing Rock for Lenoir. Spruce Pine and other places of interest, going back to Black Mountain on Friday. We are always glad to see Rev. Brinkman in our city where he was our beloved pastor for two years.
