PAUL BLAIR WEDS IN FLA.

The following, taken from the Lakeland (Fla.) Evening Ledger of Sunday, March 20, will be of interest here, where the groom is well known, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Blair of Boone.

Much interest will be felt in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Etta Marie Falkner to Mr. Paul Blair, which occurred at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Bartow, where Judge Speer and E. Holland performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair left early this morning by auto for western North Carolina, where they plan to make their home.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Maude Hamilton and has lived practically all her life in Lakeland, except while attending school at Punta Gorda. She is a graduate of the Walton Business college and is well known and popular in a wide circle of friends.

of friends. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Blair, of North Carolina and has been employed at the coal plant. He is an estimable young man and will receive many congratulations on winning his charming bride.

When court adjourned at noon Wednesday the criminal docket had been disposed of with the probable exception of one case. The set in docket was disposed of during the afternoon and the civil docket will be taken up when court convenes this morning, and will probably continue into next week.

Quack: "These pills I offer you, ladies and gentlemen, are the finest things for making one strong and healthy and increasing one's life."

Voice from crowd: "But what about your forefathers? There were no such pills in their days."

Quack (reassuringly): "I quite agree with you. And where are they now? All dead!"

He was one of those fresh young fellows given to the use of slang. At the breakfast table, during the milk, he exclaimed: "Chase the cow this way please." "Here, Jane," said the landlady, "take the cow down to where the calf is mowing."
