REVIEW—JESUS THE SAVIOR

GOLDEN TEXT—Choose you this day whom ye will serve.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Teaches How to Listen.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Learning to Listen.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus our Lord and Savior.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Son of God With Power.

For senior and adult classes a good method of review will be to study the principal facts and give the leading teaching of each lesson. The following suggestions are offered:

Lesson for April 1.

Before going to the cross Jesus endeavored to make clear to the disciples the reality of His divine personality and the meaning of His suffering and resurrection. Correct knowledge of Christ's person and work is essential to give poise to the disciples in the tragic hours of life.

Lesson for April 8.

The resurrection of Jesus Christ was announced by an angel and He was afterwards seen by many witnesses. Conviction concerning Christ's resurrection is absolutely necessary to effectively witness for Him.

Lesson for April 15.

In order to revive the drooping spirits of the disciples Jesus was transfigured before them. Two men from the upper world were sent to converse with Jesus about His approaching death at Jerusalem, the very thing about which the disciples refused to talk. In this transfiguration is given a foreglimp of the coming kingdom.

Lesson for April 22.

Jesus as a son was faithful to His parents. He had a high regard for the true home. In this lesson He sets forth the truth concerning marriage which is the foundation of the home. Those who are actuated by His spirit will recognize marriage as the ideal law of life.

Lesson for April 29.

Jesus' answer to the question of the Pharisees concerning what he should do in order to inherit eternal life shows that the one thing absolutely necessary is supreme love to God and that we should be willing to part with everything for His sake.

Lesson for May 6.

While Jesus was resting in the shadow of the cross, the disciples were disputing as to who should be the greatest. The leading lesson is that true greatness is expressed in willingness to give oneself in service to others.

Lesson for May 13.

Jesus entered Jerusalem and officially presented Himself to the Jewish nation according to prophecy. Jesus exercised His kingly authority in cursing the fig tree and driving out the money changers from the temple.

Lesson for May 20.

Under the parable of the husbandmen who betrayed their trust, Jesus shows the Jews to be guilty of persecuting the prophets and of murdering the Son of God. Man's white duty is summed up in one word—supreme and undivided love of God.

Lesson for May 27.

Jesus is coming in glory and will enter into judgment with those who have been unfaithful. It is incumbent upon all to watch so as to be ready when He comes.

Lesson for June 3.

Though Jesus was the very Son of God, possessing all power, He was at the same time a real man and craved human sympathy, therefore He took with Him His disciples to the garden of Gethsemane.

Lesson for June 10.

Because Jesus took the place of the sinner, He was despised and rejected of men. The treatment of Jesus reveals the awful wickedness of the human heart. They chose Barabbas instead of Christ.

Lesson for June 17.

On the cross Jesus made the supreme sacrifice for the sins of the world. When the price of redemption was fully paid Jesus dismissed His spirit, thus showing that He had all power.

Three Girls

Dear Miss Vera: We are three girls, 13, 14 and 15. Black hair, blue and brown eyes, fair complexion. We wear short dresses and wear knickers to school. We use rouge and lipstick and have bobbed hair.

Do you think we are old enough to make dates with the boys? Should a girl invite her sweetheart to dinner? Should a girl go riding with a boy at night if she loves him?

Should a girl 14 or 15 love a boy or vice versa? Should a boy come to see a girl any day in the week and should a boy love two girls? How old should a girl be when she marries? Do you think the boy should be older than the girl? Do you think a boy should be jealous? Should a boy of 14 go with girls? Do you think a boy should give a girl a birthday present, and should a girl give a boy one?—Brown and Blue Eyes.

Dear girls, you certainly are curious about a lot of things, but I am going to try to answer all your questions. Of course it is proper for you to have friends, both boy and girl friends, but you seem to be a little too young to think of boys as sweethearts. It is very nice to invite a boy for dinner. It is proper to go riding with a boy at night unless parents object. Your parents should be asked before you make an appointment with a boy whether or not they would object to your being with him.

A person loves or does not love; there is no such thing as deciding whether or not to be in love! It is quite nice to correspond with a boy. A boy may come to see a girl as often as he likes if she does not make known to him that she would prefer him to limit his visits. This is up to her. I don't see how it is possible for a boy to love two girls. If he can "love" more than one, it is not love at all. Just a liking that he thinks is love.

As a general rule, I think a girl should be at least 18 when she marries, and the boy ought to be the same age or more—but there are many cases of happy marriages where the boy was younger than the girl. Jealousy is never a good quality. A boy of 14 may have girl friends. Why not? An exchange of gifts is always a sweet and thoughtful thing.

That's the trouble with a great many many people, they purpose to do right, but they only purpose in their heads, and that doesn't amount to much. If you are going to be Christians, you must purpose to serve God away down in your hearts. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness."—D. L. Moody.

Arrows of the Holy Ghost

Deep convictions of sin will no spring from rational consideration. No man can work them in his own soul; they are the arrows of the Holy Ghost. And when He sends them they stick fast.—Perridge.

The Way

ful thing. But, dear girls, at your ages I think you should regard your boy friends with the same emotions that you regard your girl friends, rather than thinking of such things as love and marriage. These things will come later.

Shall She Propose?

Dear Miss Vera: I am of a good, respectable family, but the boy with whom I am in love is the son of a bootlegger. I have been going with him for nearly a year and we love each other very dearly. He has never spoken of marriage to me. Please advise me whether or not you think it proper for me to propose marriage to him.—Sunshine.

Dear Sunshine, the business of your sweetheart's father should not influence you against him unless he is also mixed up in the business. If he has no connection with the bootlegging activities of his father, I cannot see how you can hold them against him. But make sure of this. This being leap year, you have a traditional right to propose marriage to him—but look before you leap!

The sweet girl graduate was being shown through the locomotive shop. "What is that enormous thing?" she asked.

"That," explained the guide, "is a locomotive boiler."

"And why do they boil locomotives?" she insisted.

"To make the engine tender," the guide said.

Advantage in Solo Driving

"Listen," remarked the exasperated driver over his shoulder, "Lindbergh got to Paris without any advice from the back seat!"

Indications are now that North Carolina will have a large crop of peaches this year. Better quality of fruit is secured when the peaches are thinned.

About Your Health

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW By John Joseph Gainer, M. D.

HEELS

Now, my dear, you may have expected this for a long time; I am sorry I have not spoken of it earlier. But you would not have taken my advice, even if I had been more punctual. But don't get the idea that I don't know what I am talking about; I have been looking at heels long enough to be quite sophisticated, I assure you.

If a carpenter propped up your house with the sort of props you use on your beautifully curved bodies, you would fire him bodily, and wouldn't live in such a teetery structure, now would you? Yet you punish yourself daily, trying to appear comfortable, balancing on the modern, fashionable heels! Just how a fat woman can balance herself on a pair of spindles is too solemn a problem such as I have seen today—and for me to wrestle with.

Anybody must realize with a moment's reflection, what that sort of a prop under the heel will do to the toes. Wedged in their narrow prison, they become knotted, calloused, corn-studded. And the thing doesn't end with toes; it reaches far above, to the pelvis and its vital content. It is quite possible that numerous displacements are caused, and constipation set up, or made worse. Yes, and the lines of the face are often distorted in the conflict between agony of corns and the serenity attempted. I do not know of anything more contrary to health and natural comfort, than the crazy exaggerated creations designed for our ladies' and girls' feet today.

If a human female had been created with this kind of deformity on her feet, she would have distracted the neighborhood surgeons with her cries to have amputation performed. This is the age of "some other way" than God's way. And the end is not yet, I fear. The cost is going to be frightful, this trying to improve on the Creator's plan.

Women Need a Mild Laxative—Not a "Physic"

Countless girls and women now know how foolish and needless it is to "purge" and "physic" themselves to avoid sick headache, dizziness, biliousness, sallow skin, colds, or sour, gassy stomach.

They have found that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even for those who are chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens or upsets the most delicate girl or woman. Besides, it is absolutely harmless and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.
