

PROMINENT LADY PASSES 93RD YEAR

Mother of Doughton Brothers, Celebrates Birthday Anniversary at Laurel Springs. Family Present.

(Saviland Post) Mrs. Rebecca Doughton of Laurel Springs, celebrated her 93rd birthday last Saturday (June 27th) at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Doughton of Sparta.

Mrs. Doughton is one of the most respected women living in North-western North Carolina. Her mind is clear and she is very active about any household duties that she is pleased to do. Despite the disagreeable weather last season Mrs. Doughton insisted on being taken to the golf and personally carrying her golf bag with the 100 yards who have her property. Hon. R. L. Doughton, such an overwhelming majority for the office of U. S. Representative.

She is the mother of one of the most prominent families in the State. Her sons, H. B. A. Doughton of Sparta, and Hon. R. L. Doughton of Laurel Springs, sold long and distinguished records in the political life of the State and nation that is seldom found in one family.

Mrs. Doughton's six children were present: Mesdames J. J. Carson, W. A. Funder and F. Miller, and Messrs. W. K. Doughton, R. L. Doughton and J. A. Doughton. Ten grandchildren were present, and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Doughton received many tokens of love and expressions of good wishes for the day. She is the widow of the late Captain Horton Doughton.

Henson Wins Fourth Place in State Contest

On July 2nd, Earl Henson, a sophomore of the Cove Creek High School, placed fourth in the final State agricultural speakers contest, Henson, representing his school at Asheville, was selected to represent Western North Carolina at Raleigh. There are 114 departments of education in the State with an enrollment of 5,707. To be a leader in this large group is looked on as an outstanding honor. The fact that Henson has had only one year for studying vocational agriculture and only two years of high school work speaks well of his progress. Along with the other boys of most vocational agriculture, he is engaged on projects and thereby gaining first hand information.

The winner of the speaking contest was J. L. Jones, Jr., of the Booneville High School. The vocational agriculture of the Booneville school is taught by J. Ralph Walker, who is a member of Howard Walker of the Cove Creek Agricultural Department. Ralph has been at Booneville for two years and has been elected for the third year. While there he has obtained winners in several different contests.

Helps Along the Road

THE QUEST FOR JOY
I sought for joy but found a net,
Until one day, when not for pleasure
I wandered far afield and in what joy was mine!
For I searched not in the nails of
pleasure,
But found it in the music of turning
leaves,
And the sunsets rich glow,
In the smile of a baby's face,
And the laughter of her voice,
In the soft strains of a cathedral
choir,
As they chanted their evening hymn,
In the glow of the evening star,
As it foretold the approach of night,
Again, in the smile of gratitude,
On a sweet Mother's face,
When I stooped to help her child,
Once more, when I found a girl's sad
tale,
And felt that I, by service given,
Had filled a long felt want,
Yes, long years I searched for JOY
and found it not,
Because I had not learned
That we make our joy as we travel
life's way,
The joy that really counts!

"TELL ME THAT AGAIN"
Kazainak was a robber chieftain,
a man of violence, in far-away Greenland. Curiosity brought him into contact with the missionary.
One day the missionary read to him the story of Christ's sufferings,
when the chief immediately asked:
"What has this man done? Has he robbed anybody? Has he murdered anybody?"
"No," was the reply, "he has robbed no one; he has done nothing wrong."
"Then why does he suffer? Why does he die?"
"Listen," said the missionary,
"This man has done no wrong; but Kazainak has done wrong. This man has not robbed anyone; but Kazainak has robbed many. This man has murdered no one; but Kazainak has murdered his brother. This man suffered that Kazainak might not suffer;
died that Kazainak might not die."
"Tell me that again," said the astonished chieftain. And the hard-hearted sinner became the humble follower of the Lord Jesus, doing good instead of doing evil.—Exchange.

State Court Calendar Compiled by London

Boone, N. C.—The court calendar for North Carolina, showing all courts in each of the 100 counties from July 1, 1931, to June 30, 1932, under those courts, under the new special terms, has been compiled by Henry M. London, legislative reference librarian, and is being sent to judges, clerks of court and others interested in the terms.

The calendar shows what judge will preside, whether the terms will last for one, two or three weeks, whether they are for trial or civil or criminal cases, and whether special judges will have to be assigned, since some of the terms were ordered by the General Assembly and conflict with other terms in the district.

The schedule of court terms for the various districts in the N. C. Supreme Court, the times and places of meetings of the Federal Courts and of the Fourth District, U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, are also shown.

Watauga County, transferred from the 17th to the 10th judicial District by the 1931 General Assembly, will have Judge Walter E. Mayo to preside over its term this fall and Judge Peader A. McElroy next spring. Judge Michael Schenck will preside during the fall of 1932 and Judge T. B. Pines, in the spring of 1933.

The calendar for the Watauga courts for two years follows:
Fall 1931, September 21, one week mixed; spring 1932, April 11, two weeks mixed; fall 1932, September 19, one week mixed; spring 1933, April 10, two weeks mixed.

Cove Creek Boys Enjoy Trip to State Capital Caldwell Convicted on First Count at Nashville

Last week Howard Walker, Hardie Moody and Earl Henson, delegates of the Cove Creek Agricultural Department, attended the State meetings at Raleigh. The first three days were devoted to the teachers' meeting and the last two to the Young Farmed Farmer meeting. This organization is composed of the boys studying vocational agriculture. The boys themselves act as officers of the organization and it is remarkable how well they perform.

The boys thoroughly enjoyed Raleigh, visiting all places of interest. Some of the places visited were the North Carolina State College, capitol building, historical building, museum, State Hospital for the Insane and State Prison, in which the electric chair was seen. While there they were told that several men were waiting in the death cells to be elec-triced. The boys spent eight months of the nationally known investigation of the nationally known Caldwell case. Caldwell was convicted Monday on the first count of several criminal charges growing out of the collapse and the subsequent imprisonment of one to two years imprisonment.

The 11-year-old president of Valle Crucis and Company was found guilty of president, branch of 1931, a charge carrying an indeterminate sentence of one to ten years in the maximum stipulated, however, the maximum for parole after 11 months. Counsel for Caldwell gave notice of a motion for a new trial.

The boys report that Raleigh is a good place to go, (not counting the State Penitentiary).

RECORD LIFE TOLL FOR JULY FOURTH

Total of 270 Lives Lost Throughout Nation. Drawings at Top of the List. Sixty-two Die in Mid-Atlantic States.

The Nation counted the cost of its 135th Independence Day celebration with a total of 270 lives.

With all sections of the country sharing in the price of the annual independence observance, the highest loss of recent years was reached. The Mid-Atlantic States led with 62 lives lost, but the Mid-Western States were but a step behind with sixty-one.

Fireworks, once the major cause for fatalities on the holiday, this year accounted for only six lives, two in the Mid-Atlantic, one each in the Midwest and the Southwest, South and New England. But the injured from explosives totaled at least 66.

The lakes and rivers exacted the largest toll. Though much of the country was free on the Fourth from the severe heat wave which last week counted its victims at nearly 1,300, it was warm enough that rivers and lakes were thronged. One hundred and nine lives were lost in drownings. The Pacific Coast reported 27 at this number, 17 occurring at Los Angeles alone, where a surging up-lake swept over crowded beaches. Four men drowned in Lake Michigan near Gary, Ind., in an attempt to rescue a youth caught in a vicious undertow. The youth was saved by life guardsmen.

The jammed highways of the Nation took 99 lives in automobile accidents as compared with 81 last year. Airplane fatalities, however, increased to eight—three in the Mid-Atlantic, the same number in the Mid-west and two in the Mountain states.

The Mountain states offered the best sectional record for their death toll from all causes was but eight.

Three cemeteries have been purchased in lower Halifax County and another bought for fall delivery.

Sunday School Lesson

REV. SAMUEL D. PRICE, D. D.

International Sunday School Lesson for July 12

THE PREACHING OF THE APOSTLES Acts iv, 1-14

Faith in any religion is indicated by the way its followers seek to propagate it. Passing the truths of Christianity on to others is one of the basic principles which Jesus Christ proclaimed. Naturally the apostles' teaching aroused the opposition of those who were especially related to the Jewish Sanhedrin. One particular reason for opposing those of the new sect was that they asserted that the body of Jesus had been raised from death. This was a position that the Sadducees denied. It was with real eagerness that the Sadducees saw to it that Peter and John were put under guard for trial the next day. These apostles had wrought a miracle under the power of the Holy Spirit in healing a cripple who had asked alms from them as they were going into the Temple area. Of course a crowd was attracted and Peter used the opportunity of preaching to the people.

The Sanhedrin was summoned and the healed man was present with at least his silent testimony. The question was asked "By what power, or in what name have ye done this?" Again Peter had a lead for further witnessing concerning Jesus of Nazareth and the active work of the Holy Spirit. The climax of the message was in the statement about Jesus Christ: "And in none other is there salvation; for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, wherein we must be saved."

The Sanhedrin could not deny the fact of the healed man who was in their midst. Their sentence was that this kind of preaching must stop. Peter's bold answer to that injunction is given in the Golden Text: "We must obey God rather than men." Acts v, 29.
