LOCAL AFFAIRS

Miss Virginia Greer is spending the week visiting with friends at Lansing, Ashe County.

Mrs. M. P. Critcher is spending a few days in Asheville, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cole.

Miss Virgie Brooks of Boone has returned from Jonesboro where she spent an extended visit with her aunt.

Miss Louisa Norris and Ruth Tatum spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Norris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Norris, on Howards Creek.

Mrs. W. R. Butler and Mrs. Elizabeth Sproles of Mountain City are guests for a few days of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Jim Rivers.

Miss Ruby Winkler, of Harrisburg, spent the past week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Winkler.

Mr. J. S. Stanbury remains ill at his home in Boone, information being that there is little or no change in his condition.

Mr. W. F. Miller, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is reported as being decidedly better this (Wednesday) morning.

Mrs. Lee Teague, who has been critically ill at a Statesville hospital, is showing some improvement, but her condition is still said to be serious.

John T. Howell, instructor in the Demonstration School, left Friday for Nashville, Tenn., where he enrolled at George Peabody College. Mr. Howell is working for a Master's degree.

Postmaster Wiley G. Hartzog was taken to Wilkes Hospital Saturday, suffering from an acute attack of appendicitis. The operation was performed immediately and he is said to have rallied satisfactorily.

Mr. James Horton of Vilas, instructor in the Cove Creek High School, is a patient at a Winston-Salem hospital where he was taken Tuesday, seriously ill with pneumonia. His condition is reported as unchanged.

Mrs. E. R. Perry, student at State College, Raleigh, returned Monday after having visited for a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Perry, at Sugar Grove.

R. C. Buchanan of Hickory, is recovering from an illness which has confined him to a room at the Critcher Hotel for the past few days. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Buchanan, also of Hickory, are with him.

Mr. J. R. Isaacs of Morganton was a visitor in Boone Saturday, and paid a pleasant call to The Democrat. He was en route to Miami where Sunday he attended a dinner given in honor of Mr. J. M. Isaacs' 75th birthday anniversary.

Entre Nous Bridge Club

Entertained by Mrs. Christenbury. The Entre Nous Bridge Club was entertained by Mrs. E. S. Christenbury at her home in Daniel Boone Park last week.

Mrs. Joe Crawford, Mrs. Johnnie Hodges, Mrs. C. L. Rhyne, Mrs. Council Cooke, Mrs. Baxter Linney, Mrs. Gene Garbes, Mrs. Pete Justus, and Mrs. Charles Zimmerman were special guests for the meeting.

Top score prize was won by Mrs. Baxter Linney, Mrs. Johnnie Hodges receiving low score prize. Dainty refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Delphian Society Discusses the French Renaissance

An interesting meeting of the Delphian Society was held in the Demonstration School building on Tuesday afternoon.

"The Renaissance in France" was the subject studied; the high points centering around the Hundred Years' War, Joan of Arc, and Catherine de Medici.

In order to finish the year's work before school closes, meetings will be held on April 9, 16 and 23, thus enabling the work outlined in the new year book to be started with the school year next fall.

Friday Afternoon Club Meets

With Mrs. F. A. Linney. On March 22nd Mrs. F. A. Linney entertained the Friday Afternoon Club at her hospitable home which was attractively decorated with jonquils in profusion.

A program, appropriate to the season, was given through music and story by Mrs. South, Mrs. Mullins, Miss Robinson and Miss Moore. Mrs. South began with renditions of "The Spring Song" and "When It's Spring-time in the Rockies" for Mrs. Mullins was pleasing in her vocal numbers, "Trees" and "Gray Days," while Miss Robinson told in a most interesting manner of some phases of nature study. An added feature was Miss Moore's rather vivid description of two of America's beauty spots, Lake Louise and Middleton Gardens.

At the close of the program Mrs. Paul Coffey served refreshments as delicious as they were unusual.

ROONE ROUTE 2

Mr. Raleigh Williams, Miss Bina Brown, Rev. Jim Hodges and little Miss Lucile Idol celebrated their birthdays together on Sunday, March 24th, at the home of Mr. Williams on Howards Creek. A bountiful dinner was spread. Those present for the day were: Rev. Linney Barnes, Mrs. Fleetie Idol and daughter, Mary Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Setzer and daughter, Mary Grace, Mrs. Lloyd Williams and little son, Lonnie, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cottrell and two sons, James and Glenn. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon Rev. Hodges and Rev. Linney Barnes conducted a short service. The day was greatly enjoyed by all.

Rev. Jim Hodges and Rev. Linney Barnes conducted prayer service at the home of Mr. D. L. Setzer at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening. Those present were as follows: Mr. Raleigh Williams and family, Miss Bina Brown, Mrs. Lloyd Williams and son, Mrs. Fleetie Idol and two daughters. Rev. Hodges spent the night at the Setzer home, and left Monday morning for Blowing Rock.

Miss Louise Norris visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Norris, on Sunday afternoon. She was accompanied by little Miss Ruth Tatum of Boone.
