

NEWS OF PAST WEEK ABOUT STATE CAPITAL

By M. R. DUNNAGAN (Special Correspondent)

RALEIGH, N. C.—Mileages and expenditures from the $500,000 set aside by the 1935 General Assembly for maintaining State-designated streets through municipalities have been set up tentatively by the State Highway division and sent to all officials of all of the about 360 municipalities for any suggestion they may want to make, Chairman Capus M. Waynick announces.

The set-up will be held open until September 1st for any changes that may be desired and unless valid reasons are shown, it will then be made permanent and work started on that basis for this year, Mr. Waynick says. He hopes but does not expect the plan to be entirely satisfactory. It is arranged according to engineering need and not on a population basis. He suggests that the N. C. League of Municipalities, which sponsored State maintenance of numbered highways in cities and towns, designate groups to receive and weigh measures suggested.

The mileage thus to be maintained is 875.53, to cost about $470,546.10 and through municipalities with 1,047,845 people in them. Twenty-nine municipalities, usually the larger ones, ask that they be permitted to maintain their numbered streets with their own organizations but with State funds. These have 213.29 miles of streets, estimated to cost $217,094.70, and with populations totaling 598,396. The others, about 330, have 644.24 miles designated, to cost about $253,451.40, and have populations totaling 449,440.

Watauga County municipalities included in the list are as follows: Boone, 2.55 miles; cost, $966.00; population, 1,295. Blowing Rock, 4.40 miles; cost, $1,401.00; population, 503.

EHRRINGHAUSES ON VACATION

Governor Ehringhaus, Mrs. Ehringhaus, Mrs. Rush Jolly, daughter, and Blucher Jr., on a vacation motor trip through Canada, visited the Dionne quintuplets last week, reminding that the Governor and Mrs. Ehringhaus have twins, Mrs. Jolly and Houghton, the latter not with them. They also saw Mrs. Thomas R. McLeod, wife of a former Governor of South Carolina, who saw their N. C. 1 license and located them in a legislative hall they were visiting. The party will spend some time in New York on their leisurely return in about two weeks.

FORESTALLS LYNCHING

A wire to Governor Ehringhaus that a negro was about to be lynched in a section of Vance County, not far from the Franklin County line and near the place at which Govan Ward, negro, was lynched a few weeks ago, caused hasty action, only to find that the message was a hoax. Charles G. Powell, private secretary in the absence of Governor Ehringhaus, asked Vance officers to investigate and had 40 highway patrolmen ready to rush to the spot at short notice. Officers reported within half an hour that there was no trouble where the message suggested. New officers are trying to locate the perpetrator of the hoax. Highway patrolmen have been used three times recently, twice to prevent violence, but did not reach Franklin in time to prevent the lynching.

SUPREME COURT TO CONVENE

When the N. C. supreme court convenes for its fall term August 26th it is not likely that all members will be present and barely possible that only two are able to attend. Justice W. J. Brogden, Durham, has been having eye trouble and was taken to Boston to see if the base of the trouble could be found. He is much improved, however. Justice George W. Connor has been confined to his home in Raleigh the past few weeks. Justice Heriot Clarkson had a serious operation last spring, but is regaining his health at his summer home in Little Switzerland. Justice Michael Schenck has been resting at Hendersonville and in the mountains and Chief Justice W. P. Stacy spent the summer in the lake regions of New York. Three of the members are expected to be here, but Justice Brogden and Justice Connor may not be able to attend. Mrs. W. J. Adams, widow of Justice Adams, who has been employed in the Revenue Department almost since her husband's death, has been appointed assistant Supreme Court librarian.

STATE POLITICS

Politics is simmering, but not heating up with the weather along now. A. H. (Sandy) Graham spoke to the county commissioners at Wrightsville and Clyde R. Hoey addressed the sheriffs at Hickory last week. Both are gubernatorial aspirants. John F. McRae, Charlotte, another, took occasion last week to brand as false the charge that he was a stop-gap for Hoey, saying he announced before Hoey did and had not conferred with Hoey or any of his known supporters. Col. T. L. Kirkpatrick, Charlotte, long ago announced, is keeping quiet. Prognosticators say that Graham is sure to get a heavy vote in the east, where "moist" evidence is plentiful, at any rate, in spots, because he has come out for modification of the State liquor laws. Conversely, they say, Hoey will be strong in the west, in which, many maintain, there are not half a dozen counties which would vote wet in a referendum. Hoey is a known personal and political dry and has fought the dry battles. He has not mentioned this issue, but is expected to declare his dryness, saying that if the people of the State, in a State-wide referendum, vote for modification, being a good Democrat, he will abide by their wishes. Many believe, however, that this State, if allowed to vote, should again vote dry, although there has been a noticeable change in sentiment in the past six months.

POULTRY QUESTION

Is it profitable to feed moist mash to poultry throughout the entire year?

Answer: There is very little to be gained by this practice. However, the moist mash has an important place in the feeding at some time during the year. It is used to stimulate egg production and is fed the early hatched pullets to prevent a partial or complete molt. It also hastens production in the fall of the late hatched pullets and keeps up production of the laying hens through the fall months. Feed about three pounds of the mash to each 100 birds for best results.

Esso Marketers announce:

ESSO MOTOR OIL

The Lowest Consumption and Highest Performance Motor Oil Made

Happy Motoring, so far as your oil is concerned, depends on four things.

You want an oil that consumes slowly, so you don't have to be constantly adding a quart every few hundred miles.

You want an oil that resists thinning in hot weather, so you can have engine protection; and that resists thickening in cold weather, so you can have easy starting.

You want an oil that—no matter how it does it—takes such good care of your engine that you dodge repair bills.

Finally, you want an oil that so lubricates all parts of your motor that you get noticeably better performance, quicker pick-up, more miles per gallon.

To give you these four things, the world's greatest petroleum organization had to produce what may unqualifiedly be said to be the finest oil on the market today.

We can prove this to you with all sorts of technical data, but it is far better that you should prove it to yourself by direct performance comparison in your own car.

Over a quarter of a million motorists did just this. We did not advertise this new oil. We stocked it at point of sale and in a few months so many motorists tried it, liked it, and told their friends about it—that our sales exceeded estimates by 288%.

Esso Motor Oil succeeded without claims or ballyhoo. It went over with the motoring public because, even at premium price, it saved money and proved its top-notch value.

Esso Motor Oil will prove this in your car. Try it yourself—today.
