Lesson for September 22

JAMES (A GREAT CHRISTIAN LEADER)

LESSON TEXT—Acts 15:1-21; James 1:17. GOLDEN TEXT—Blessed is the man that endureth temptation...

PRIMARY TOPIC—What James Tells Us to Do. JUNIOR TOPIC—James' Motto for Juniors.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How to Meet Life's Tests. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Message of James for Today.

Three individuals by the name of James are mentioned in the New Testament.

I. James Presiding at a Church Council (Acts 15:1-21).

1. The controversy in the church at Antioch (vv. 1-5). A most difficult problem confronted the church...

2. Paul and Barnabas rehearsed their experience (v. 12). They told how that God had set his seal of approval...

3. The argument of James (vv. 14-21). He took the fact declared by Peter and showed how it harmonized with prophecy (Amos 9:11-15).

II. The Deliberation of the Council (vv. 6-21).

1. Peter speaks (vv. 6-11). He argued that God had borne witness to the acceptance of the Gentiles...

2. Paul and Barnabas rehearsed their experience (v. 12). They told how that God had set his seal of approval...

3. The argument of James (vv. 14-21). He took the fact declared by Peter and showed how it harmonized with prophecy (Amos 9:11-15).

a. To take out from among the Gentiles a people for his name (v. 14). This is what is now being done by the calling out of the church.

b. After the church is completed, Israel will be converted and restored to their land by the Lord himself at his return (vv. 19, 17).

c. This will be followed by the conversion of the world through the agency of converted Israel (v. 17; cf. Rom. 11:15). Having shown that there was no conflict with the Scriptures...

4. The decision (vv. 22-29). The mother church unanimously endorsed James' recommendation. They sent a letter stating the decision of the conference. This decision was duly delivered to the church at Antioch and was received with rejoicing.

II. James Giving Counsel to Christians (James 1:1-17).

1. Concerning trials (vv. 2-17).

a. The Christian's attitude toward them (vv. 2-4). They were to meet them joyfully because of their beneficial effects. Trials reveal fidelity, and by their effects develop the grace of patience.

b. The Christian's supreme need in these trials (vv. 5-8). It is wisdom to meet them intelligently. He makes clear that the source of this wisdom is in God and that the means of gaining it is asking in faith, and the very liberality of God is the guarantee that the needed supply will be provided.

c. The rich and the poor are sharers alike in affliction (vv. 9-11). Frequently the poor man thinks that the rich are free from testings, whereas they are usually more severely tested.

d. The blessed reward of enduring the testing (v. 12). The one who faithfully endures the temptation shall be awarded the crown of life.

e. The source of temptation (vv. 13-17). Temptations spring out of human desire. They do not come from God. Sin is not necessarily the desire, but

FARM RADIO PROGRAMS BEGUN AT STATE COLLEGE

Daily programs over Radio Station WPTF on subjects of interest to North Carolina farmers began Monday, September 16, as a part of the State College agricultural extension work.

The programs, lasting fifteen minutes, will come on the air each week day at 2 p. m. and will include a talk on some phase of farming as seen by a specialist from State College and news items gleaned from the daily press and from government reports pertaining to the farm.

Men and women from the personnel of the State College School of Agriculture, the Experiment Station, and the Extension Service will have parts on the programs. The talks which they will deliver will be from seven to eight minutes in length and will be on some timely farm subject.

Just at this time of the year, farmers are interested in the fall handling of livestock, the care of poultry and turkey flocks, the harvesting of nut crops, the picking and ginning of cotton, the selling of tobacco, and the planting of winter cover crops. All of these subjects will be discussed by authorities in the near future.

Navajo Indian Jewelry

The Navajo Indians make their jewelry from melted Mexican pesos. The gratifying of it improperly. When one is thus led away by his natural desires, sin is conceived which brings forth death.

Life

Life is not so complex if we do not persist in making it so. We need faith; we need to be brave, to keep the corners of the mouth turned up and not down. And after all it is only a step at a time.—Ralph Waldo Trine.

Affliction

Much of what a man tells you in the hour of affliction, in sudden anger, or in any outpouring of his heart, should be sacred. In his craving for sympathy he has spoken to you as to his own soul.

QUADRUPLETS START TO SCHOOL

Morlok Children Tagged by Parents as Kindergarten Days Begin. Convenience of Teachers Considered.

WHY EVERY GIRL SHOULD STUDY HOME ECONOMICS

Every girl should study home economics for the following reasons:

First, doesn't every girl have a dream of a home of her own? In order to fulfill these girlish dreams she must begin preparing herself for a tidy housekeeper, good cook and capable mother. Cooking and sewing are not arts to be learned in a few hours but it takes years of hard work and determination to master them.

Second, many girls have ideas of a career—artists, actresses, singers, teachers, stenographers, nurses and the many other vocations which are now open for ambitious girls. She must leave her comfortable home and go into some large rooming house or small college room, which contains only a bed, a dresser, and a chair and if she has good old knowledge of home economics, she is able to fix her room into an attractive, comfortable living room.

The third and last reason is that it will make possible for her to become a great help to mother. She can be of use in keeping the home attractive and in order. Her knowledge of how to prepare new, tasty, wholesome dishes for the family will mean better meals and better health.

Home Economics teaches one how to be a good manager of a home on a small income.

These are the reasons why every girl should master Home Economics. RUTH ISAACS, Eighth Grade, Boone School.

Important Notice to Delinquent Taxpayers!

We regret to have to again call attention to the fact that there is a considerable number of persons who are behind in their tax payments since 1927 and up to 1932. We have done our very best to give the people every consideration; we know money has been hard to get, but conditions are now much improved and we earnestly beg you to manage in some way to pay off these taxes and avoid paying costs in the Superior Court.

We have reached the very limit, the Laws of North Carolina require us to either bring these suits or pay the taxes ourselves, which of course you do not expect us to do. We are your servants and as such must obey the law, and it is for that reason we most earnestly request and beg you to get busy and avoid the extra cost.

The suits are in the nature of TAX FORECLOSURE SUITS, and MUST be started by October 1st, 1935.
