

COVE CREEK FAIR PRIZE WINNERS

Unusually Large Number of Entries Features Agricultural Event.

The large number of entries in the different departments of the annual Cove Creek Fair this year indicates that the people of the county are taking an increasing interest in the fair. It is hoped that this interest will continue to increase and that the fair will become bigger and better each year. One of the most stimulating influences toward agricultural improvement and the making of better homes is the wholesome and educational competition of an agricultural fair. May the patronage of next year's fair be larger than ever before.

In the following list are the names of the winners in the different departments of the fair which was held September 27 and 28 at the Cove Creek Fair Building:

BUILDING DAYS FOR YOUTH

THOUGHTFUL parents who have observed and experienced the wisdom of thrift in recent years, now realize that it is very important to direct children's thoughts in constructive channels. Most important of all is the appreciation of the rewards of thrift. To teach the child the value of material thrift, there is no better method than establishing a saving account for him, his to direct, control and build.

WATAUGA DRUG STORE

PULL, SIS, PULL, but you'll never get that 1935 figure into that 1853 corset! No, and those hand-sewn seams won't give, either, for they were sewed with J. & P. Coats best 6-cord. Like the hand-whittled front stay, the drop shoulder straps that clamped one's arm to one's sides and the wasp-like waistline, they were put in to take punishment, as well as to give it. And eight decades haven't made that J. & P. Coats thread weaken!

"OMAHA"—Winner, one after the other, of the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness, and the Belmont

Omaha is an outstanding horse today. And in the cigarette world Chesterfield is outstanding. Both won their place strictly on merit. Apply any test you like—Chesterfields stand for the best there is in cigarettes. They are milder... yet they let you know you're smoking. They taste better—give you real pleasure.
