Basket Ball Games

(By Pearl Elrod, Sports Editor.)
 On Thursday night, Nov. 21, the Blowing Rock boys team met the boys of Patterson High School team in a basket ball game on the home court. At the end of the game the score was 22-27 in favor of the Blowing Rock team. Charles Robbins who is playing on the team for his first year, was high scorer with 11 points for the home team.

Tuesday night, Nov. 26 the boys' team of Blowing Rock High School met the Cove Creek team in a basket ball game. This game also took place on the home court. Both teams are to be complimented on their excellent playing and good sportsmanship. Cove Creek was victorious by five points, the score being 22-27 at the end of the game. Again Charles Robbins scored high for the home team with 10 points.

The town boys of Blowing Rock have organized a basket ball team and have been competing with various teams over the county. Wednesday night they were victorious over the Hudson team with ten points to go. At the end of the game the score stood 22-12 in favor of the Blowing Rock All Stars.

The Peeper

Again The Peeper makes its grand-a-fulous appearance on the scene, and with bells all over it! Hear it send its merry chimes through Watauga!

Everyone seems to have had a nice Thanksgiving, even to our harassed teachers. When I came to school this morning I overheard Mr. Mast telling Mr. Williams of his Thanksgiving dinner. That nervous gentleman responded with one of the "fishiest" hunting tales I have ever listened to.

GAL TWO BLOWING ROCK III
 But then you can't ever tell about what Mr. Williams says because he's so nervous anyway.

As I sit here this afternoon, the snow is flying around outside like fifty. I heard a conversation between Peter Lentz and George Suddeth. They were talking about the possibilities of the snow. George didn't seem to think it had any. "But the optimistic Pete" said, "oh well, George, there's only one consolation—I'll be able to give Jean a big kiss with a snowball and that's more than I've been able to do heretofore."

I've about peeped my poor eyes out looking at those "scrumptious" Blowing Rock girls who are entered in the beauty contest. I'm telling you! That's something that's well worth looking into Thursday night at the high school auditorium, with an admission fee of five and ten cents.

Annie Wilcox, our quiet, unsmiling, senior girl, actually broke down and ginned at me yesterday. The effect was startling! I was amazed! From now on I'm her ardent slave.

Louise Williams is getting quite moody lately. This particular mood follows her everywhere she goes. By the way, his first name is Max. Evelyn Brown is altogether sane (s) as I have found out by her hurried trips to the postoffice every day. Oh these college boys!

Lucy Wooten is interested in a castle and it isn't a fairy castle either. This quite real and an excellent basket ball player.

Helen Gragg is interested in the new Fords—not a V-8, however—it's a Perry.

Well, folks—I've gotta be toddling along—so so-short until next time.

BIBLE LOST IN GREAT WAR COMES BACK TO OWNER

Topeka, Kan.—The mail brought Curtis Brown, Topeka war veteran and member of the famed 35th division, poignant memories of "over there" on Armistice Day eve.
 A package, bearing the postmark of Strasbourg, France, came to Brown. He opened it and found a small Bible he had lost on the war front 17 years ago.
 With it was a note that read:
 "Recently while picnicking a party of us decided to explore an old, musty war dugout at Metseral, near Munster, Alsace. I found this Testament which I am sure you would like to have returned to you. Accept it again and with it the high regard of those whose benefactors the American soldiers were during the great war."
 Brown has written the sender, Mrs. Jeanne-Claire Ittel, a warm note of thanks.

Good weather has been a big help to the terracing program in Rowan county this fall.
 Terraces constructed in Polk county to check soil erosion will be sown in small grain for additional protection this winter.

Cove Creek School News

The school observed Thanksgiving holidays Thursday and Friday of last week.
 Mrs. Jas. B. Mast, Mrs. Dave Mast, Misses Virginia Shipley and Constance Shoun spent Thanksgiving in Richmond.

Among recent visitors for the Chapel service were Rev. J. W. Parker, Rev. P. D. Fletcher, Rev. J. C. Carline, Chas. Teal, Wilson Norris, Walter Greene and Lionel Ward.

The Cove Creek boys' basket ball team won the first game of the season over Blowing Rock by a score of 27-22 last Tuesday night. The game was hard fought throughout and the players showed evidences of splendid training. A return game will be played on the local court Saturday night, Dec. 7. A skating party will follow the game.

The Cranberry High School will present a play, "The Gang's All Here" at Cove Creek Friday night, December 6. A notice of this appears elsewhere in the paper.

Eighteen young people of the Cove Creek High School are participating in the N. Y. A. program sponsored by the Federal Government. Those pupils are paid $6.00 per month by the government in return for which they are working at a variety of tasks in the school. Such work as grading notebooks, caring for the library, sweeping the auditorium and gymnasium, washing walls and windows and cleaning grounds, is being done.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Davis and little daughter spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Horton.
 Rev. Phillip D. Fletcher spent a few days last week with his mother and friends in Johnson City.

Monroe Fuller and Stanford Brown members of the Senior class, went to Wake Forest for Thanksgiving.
 The WPA sewing room project has reopened at Cove Creek. No other project has yet been approved, but it is hoped that the project submitted for the completion of the gymnasium and the laboratory for science, will go through.

STUDENTS' POEMS

Following are some poems submitted by children of the Bamboo School, Miss Helen Edmisten, teacher:

Thanksgiving
 Pumpkin pies in the stove,
 Turkey in the pot;
 We should be thankful
 For all we have got.

Corn in the crib,
 Potatoes in the cellar;
 He that is not thankful
 Is a very sorry fellow.

Thanksgiving is here,
 We will all meet together,
 As the Pilgrims did
 To give thanks to the Father.

—Jack Cook, Fifth Grade.

Thanksgiving
 Thanksgiving comes but once a year,
 Thanksgiving is best for cheer.
 The people give praise when Thanksgiving is here,
 And I'm glad that it is so near.

—Vivian Bond, Fifth Grade.

Thanksgiving
 Thanksgiving comes but once a year,
 I'm always glad when it is near;
 We have the joys of our lives
 When we have turkey and pumpkin pies.

—Iva Dene Hampton, Fifth Grade.

"My wife likes the smartness and roominess of the Ford—but THIS V-8 ENGINE'S WHAT OPENED MY EYES!"

ENGINEERS have known for years the undisputed advantages of the V-type engine: . . . simplicity, economy, compactness, ruggedness. But until Ford announced the first Ford V-8 in 1932, no one had found a way to bring these advantages to the low-priced field.

Since its introduction this engine has been constantly refined and improved—but the basic features of Ford design have remained through the production of over two million V-8 engines.

This is the engine that powers the beautiful 1936 Ford V-8 . . . and, because it is V-type and compact, gives "all that extra room" that many [a] woman has wondered about in the Ford V-8 body. This is the engine which proved sparkling performance and eight cylinder smoothness are economical if you have a V-type engine with a dual-draft carburetor that takes the "gas" used by a four and splits it into eight equal charges.

This is the engine you need for quick, sure, cold-weather starting this winter—the engine that's "opened the eyes" of over two million enthusiastic Ford owners.

You'll find such an engine in no other car at anywhere near the price of the Ford V-8 for 1936—So why not arrange to drive one today?
