I. Nehemlah's Mission to Jerusalem

While performing his official duty s cuphearer to the Persian king, Neminh learned of the distress of his brothren at Jerusalem. The walls of city were broken down, its gates burnt, and the remnant of the captives were in great affliction and reproach. This news greatly moved him. He definitely asked God to give the king a favorable attitude toward his project. In answer to his prayer was granted a leave of absence from the Persian court and credentials from the king. He journed to Jeru and made a survey of the city by night without disclosing his purto enjone. Having thus obtained first hand information, he called the representatives of the Jews together and said, "Let us build the walls of Jerusalem "

II. Preparation for the Building

The division of labor in this project displayed Nehemiah's administrative ability. A wise distribution of labor makes difficult tasks easy. Observe me outstanding features of his administrative work.

1. He laid stress upon indifference In administrative tasks it is proper to the unfaitbful and encouragement to the faithful.

2. Help rendered by the women (v. 12). It is a fine thing for the women to take hold even in building a wall when there are no men to do it.

 Stress taid upon carnestness of some (v. 20). Recognition of fidelity will spur one on to faithful performance of his task.

4. Every one built over against his own house (vv. 10, 23, 28). There is no incentive for exertion quite so strong as that which concerns a man's own family.

5. Certain guilds of men undertook certain work (vv. 8, 31, 32). Wise administration sometimes calls for such alignment of efforts. Men of the same class and occupation usually work best

III. Hindrances Encountered (4:1-

1. Scoffing of Sanballat and Tobiah (4:1-6; cf. 2:19, 20). The oppressors of God's servants frequently begin by hurling shafts of ridicule at them.

2. Conspiracy for a sudden attack

(4:7-9). When the enemy saw the work was actually succeeding, they changed from ridicule to an attempt to throw the workmen into a panic.

3. Conspiracy with the Jews (4:10-23). They sought, by means of the Jews from the outside, to discourage those on the inside.

4. Greed and oppression of the rich

The Jews of that day, like the proriteers of our day, took advantage of the poor and oppressed them so that they mortgaged their land and even sold their daughters into slavery.

5. Scheme to take Nehemiah's life 6:1-14). When Sanballat and Tobiah failed in every other way, they craftlly sought to get Nehemlah away that they might kill him.

IV. The Wall Completed (6:15-7:4). So energetically did they pursue their tasks that in fifty-two days the wall was completed. When their ene mies saw that in spite of all their schemes the work was actually completed, they were cast down, for they perceived that the work was of God. Upon the completion of the work, chemiah set his brother to rule over Jerusalem and gave instructions as to the opening and closing of the gates of the city. May we learn from this; 1. That though God's children are besought by enemies they should not

2. When beset by enemies we should pray (4:9). a. They set a watch (4:9). b. Men were permitted to be with their families (4:13) and would thus

On St. George's day—the feast of beauty—a contest somewhat resembling an American beauty competition is held in many communities of Serbia and Macedonia. The girls weighing the most are often married on the spot.

Superstitious women resort to magic to increase their poundage. They plant and carefully attend a vegetable known as "debeljika" which means "fatty." The plant produces a bulk resembling a potato, which is died. Slices of it are bound to the body at night—applied to spots where more impressive curves are desired.
