

DRUNKEN DRIVING CONVICTIONS IN N. C. INCREASE

Raleigh, May 5—Convictions last month on charges of drunken driving were nearly double the number of the month last year.

A report released today by Commissioner of Motor Vehicles T. B. Ward shows that 488 persons were convicted of this charge last month, as compared with 265 convictions during April of last year. Convictions on this charge thus far this year total 1,808.

Ward's report also reveals that 3,167 motorists were convicted during April of other violations of the mo-

300,000 HOUSING UNITS FOR VETERANS SOUGHT IN YEAR

Washington, May 5—Plans to provide 300,000 housing units for student veterans this year were announced by the Federal Public Housing authority.

At the same time, the Federal Housing administration offered the public a series of suggested small-home designs intended to encourage lower prices, improve quality and spur home construction. They may be obtained from local and district FHA offices.

tor vehicle laws, topping the same month last year by 614, speeding accounted for 1,032 of the convictions, while failing to have a driver's license brought 790 convictions.

TELEPHONES for FARMERS
a Big Part of Our Expansion Activities

We're busily engaged in rural telephone service extension, which is a major objective of our current expansion activities.

Farm telephone service does more than provide the convenience of the telephone to people in rural areas. It places more and more farm residents in contact with people and businesses in town, and in turn puts these people in contact with the farm families . . . makes telephone service more valuable and beneficial to all.

Mother's Day
May 12th

A BOUQUET TO MOTHERS . . . there are no medals made for Mother . . . there are no words in any language that can adequately express appreciation in our hearts for the tender care . . . the patience . . . the understanding . . . the love they gave us through the years. Day in and day out we accept—take for granted—their kind words, helpful suggestions, soft smile. Day in and day out we go about our business with little thought of their problems, with not too much consideration for their feelings . . .

Yet, we do not mean to be selfish, but unconsciously we are . . . in a small measure we can show our love this Mother's Day . . . We can make this the most beautiful Mother's Day ever . . . We can pay tribute to the grandest ladies in the world with gifts we know they want and will cherish . . . Shopping at Belk's will give you every opportunity to please them; for here you will find everything Mothers adore from a beautifully hand-rolled handkerchief to a luxurious scarf . . . and a gift from Belk's will mean more to Mother!
