Erskine Handed 50 To 6 Licking By Appalachian

Scoring in every period and almost by every man, Appalachian romped over Erskine here Saturday afternoon 50 to 6.

Erskine scored in the fourth period for the first time this season.

Seven different Mountaineers figured in the scoring, which included a 15-yard touchdown jaunt by a one-armed guard, Tom Boyette, who snatched an Erskine fumble in mid-air and scampered across the goal-line before anyone realized what had happened.

Spot Spoltore, the App's ace quarterback, was the only man to score more than one touchdown in the rout which saw the Mountaineers compile 347 yards rushing and 87 yards passing.

One of Spoltore's touchdown runs went for 55 yards on a punt return. Tom Murdock, substitute back, duplicated the feat later.

Another consolation for the Flying Fleet was the fact that they gained 88 yards passing, one more than did the Apps. The visitors racked up 16 first downs to eight for the losers.

Appalachian High Defeats Hanes, 6-0

Playing through a driving rain, the Appalachian Blue Devils gained their revenge on Hanes High of Winston Friday afternoon on the college gridiron by shutting out the Hanes eleven 6-0. Both teams were in there fighting and trying to keep possession of the slippery pigskin throughout the contest.

The visiting team displayed a strong eleven, but the scrapping Blue Devils were in there to win, and win they did. On the offense for Boone, it was D. Edminsten, Cooke, Whittington and Brendall who starred. The entire line played a good defensive game with Elrod, York, Miller, Storie, Council and P. Edminsten standing out as strong players.

RETAIL PRICES

Retail prices of consumers' goods in large cities advanced about 1 1/2% between mid-August and mid-September, according to preliminary estimates of the Bureau Statistics. On September 15, consumers' index was about 146 per cent of the 1935-39 average and 13 per cent higher than a year ago.

Washington Notes

MOTOR VEHICLES

September production of trucks and passenger cars showed a moderate decline, a reversal of the industry's previous trend toward pre-war production levels, according to the Civilian Production Administration. Output of trucks showed the biggest drop, falling to 92,044 units from 105,506 produced in August. Production of passenger cars fell slightly to 239,140 units, only 2,162 below the previous months' total.

DEPOSITS

Deposits in commercial and savings banks in the United States and possessions totaled $162,249,000,000 as of June 29, a decrease of $6,181,000,000, or four per cent from December 31, 1945. They were five and one-half per cent greater than on June 30, 1945, however.

MEAT

Meat held in public storage on Oct. 1st, the last date for which figures are available, was less than at any time in thirty years, according to the Department of Agriculture. Stocks were 234,442,000 pounds compared with 350,732,000 pounds on Sept. 1, with 499,741,000 on Oct. 1, last year, and with 516,702,000 pounds for the Oct. 1 five-year average.

CONFERENCE POSTPONED

Because of the hotel strike in Washington, the National Conference on Juvenile Delinquency which was to have been held the latter part of October, has been postponed to November 20-23, according to the Justice Department. More than a thousand representatives have been invited to the conference.

FEDERAL CONSTRUCTION

John R. Steelman, Director of Reconversion, has authorized 14 Federal agencies to spend $600,000,000 on construction during the fiscal year ending next June 30. This assures them a total of $1,200,000,000 for projects during the period. Non-military projects account for $400,000,000 of the $600,000,000 authorized.

RECRUIT NO. 1,000,000

The post-war Army's volunteer recruit No. 1,000,000 was Corporal Irving K. Bennett, Jr., of Baltimore, Md. Official attention, such as seldom has been showered on men in the ranks, was shown Corporal Bennett, when a half dozen generals and Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson congratulated him at a brief War Department ceremony. Bennett, a veteran of fighting in Germany, decided to re-enlist for three years, after four months of civil life, because, he said: "I liked the Army in wartime. If I like it as much in peacetime, I'll make it my career."

Join the American Legion

Over 10,000 Veterans of World War II are joining the American Legion every day. Already over 2,000,000 have joined this great American organization.

Watauga Post 130 of Boone asks any honorably discharged veteran to come with us. The membership drive is just beginning, but already Watauga Post No. 130 is within 50 members of being at an all-time high, and 61% of the present membership are veterans of World War II. COMRADES, you ought to belong to the American Legion because:

1. The voice of the single veteran is not heard, but the voices of millions of veterans in the American Legion are heard and heeded.
2. The American Legion has a nation-wide Child Welfare program to render real help to children of Legionnaires who may be temporarily in distress or who may be deceased. (There are many such cases in Watauga County right now who are receiving help).
3. The American Legion is a going concern, established for more than 27 years, with a physical valuation of over

$100,000,000. (Watauga Post No. 130 owns the American Legion Hut and adjacent valuable property on which there is no indebtedness.)

4. The American Legion leads the nation in advocating and actively working for a real and effective system of defense for America.

5. In the American Legion all Veterans can continue to preserve the comradeship of war-time associations and memories.

Below are listed prizes valued in the hundreds of dollars which are being donated by the merchants and business men of Boone as a gesture of their appreciation of the American Legion and what it stands for. The prizes will be given to those Legionnaires who get the largest number of memberships before Friday, November 22nd. If you are not now a member of the American Legion, but are eligible to join, you can win one of these prizes by getting your friends who are also veterans to join.

For full information on this contest, come to the regular Legion meeting at the Hut Friday, November 8th, at 7:30 p. m. All Veterans in Watauga County are invited to be there. Refreshments will be served.
