Horseshoes To Feature Tourney

The Community Recreation project is sponsoring a horseshoe tournament to begin on Thursday, August 26. This tournament will feature both singles and doubles competition. A grand champion in each of the competitions will be selected. Mr. Tommy Thompson, director of the summer program, will organize the tournament and supervise the matches. Some lively competition should result. Interest has been expressed concerning the tournament, and a fairly large number of contestants are expected to enter. Persons wishing to compete will need to register with the director of the recreation program. Registrations will be accepted beginning at three o'clock in the afternoon on Thursday, August 19. It will be possible to register any afternoon, or evening until Wednesday evening, August 25. Mr. Thompson will accept registrations by phone if contestants wish.

The first rounds of the tournament will be announced in the paper next week. The tournament itself will be played in the evening in order that business men, or women, may participate. All persons interested in participating in the contests, or in watching, will be welcomed to the recreation area.

SCALF'S HELPED GIRL ATTEND CHURCH FIRST TIME IN THREE MONTHS

"I suffered So Much From Indigestion I Couldn't Rest or Sleep. Since Taking Scalf's I Eat Heartily Of Any Food I Want and Sleep Fine," Declares Miss West, Gives Details.

MISS FRANCES WEST

Scalf's Indian River Medicine is praised by both old and young for the relief of tired, weak, nervous feeling due to poor appetite and sleeplessness, nervousness and restlessness brought on by smothering gas pressure pains about the stomach.

Among the thousands writing letters of praise for Scalf's is Miss Frances West, Fairmont S. C. Miss West writes: "I suffered so much from spells of indigestion that I couldn't rest or sleep day or night. I became so weak, nervous and rundown that I was unable to go about. Naturally, it worried me to be unable to enjoy life with the rest of my young friends. I first tried treatments and medicines in over three months. I trust but without satisfactory results. My letter may help others to find heard Fred Gentry, the Old Gos-relief in Scalf's."

pel Singer, telling over the radio Scalf's is on sale at Carolina about Scalf's Indian River Med-Pharmacy on a money-back guarantee and tried it. I am happy to ante on the first bottle. Try it say that now I can eat heartily today. (adv.)
