Leadership Program

Last week the students of Appalachian high school opened their campaign for student body officers. On Wednesday morning the guidance committee sponsored a chapel program on which several people discussed the topic of selecting good leaders. The program included "Beatitudes of a Leader" by Barbara Bingham, "What It Takes to Be a Good Leader" by Lawrence Barden, "What We Expect of Our Leaders" by Jo Ann Aldridge, "How to Select Good Leaders" by V. J. Moretz, "How to Follow Good Leaders" by Mary Frances Klutz, and "The Importance of Good School Government" by Mr. Wey.

Music for the program was furnished by Mr. Erneston, who played several selections on the violin, and Mr. Hartsell at the piano.

Nominating Convention

Nominations for Student Body President were officially accepted during a rally held Friday morning during assembly. Mrs. Gragg, who is adviser for the election campaign, introduced the campaign managers, who in turn introduced their candidates.

Candidates for the office of president are Lawrence Barden, Teddy Barnett, Paul Edmisten and V. J. Moretz. Managers of their campaigns are Lois Townsend, Bill Blackburn, Patty Hodges, Patsy McGuire and Herbert Davidson.

The campaign speeches and campaigning were climaxed on Monday morning by the election of V. J. Moretz to the position of student body president. Lawrence Barden and Teddy Barnett were eliminated on the first ballot. Due to the large number of votes received by each candidate, it was necessary to have a second balloting. V. J. Moretz was declared the winner on the second ballot by a close majority over Paul Edmisten.

Cheer Leaders Chosen

Barbara Jones, Barbara Bingham, Betty Barnes, Jo Ann Hartley, Joann Aldridge, Patricia Aldridge, Neva Norris and Faye Hollars were chosen cheerleaders in a pep meeting held in chapel Friday. Others trying out were Alma Teague, Patty Hodges, Billie Jean Storie, Peggy Brown, Marsha Lee Presnell, Betty Sue Rogers, Nadine Greer and Barbara Hodges.

RESCUER DIES

Martinsville, Va.—When Henry Bryant, 60, was overcome by gas at the bottom of a 67-foot well, George Clark, 51-year-old well-digger, went down to help. Bryant was pulled from the well by a rope and windlass, but Clark was overcome by the gas. His body was taken from the well by Lum Carter, who donned a gas mask to reach him after members of the local fire department pumped air into the shaft.

APP HI GRIDDERS LOSE TO ELKIN

A fighting Blue and Grey team held Elkin's Bucks to a scoreless first half only to have the opponents superior reserve power tell in the final quarter. The game opened with Elkin kicking to Appalachian's 18 yard line. The runback by Elrod carried to the 30 yard line where Appalachian started to roll up 4 first downs before Elkin held on their own 39 and Davidson kicked out of bounds to give the Elkin team the ball on their own 15. A surprise quick kick by Davidson later drove Elkin deep in their own territory. The Appalachian team threatened to score three times before the half ended, but each time Elkin held. From the Apps 30 yard line, Elkin drove for 2 first downs and finally scored on a flanker pass.

The local team showed the makings of one of the best combines in A. H. S. football history. Moretz strategy and defensive work was outstanding. C. M. Harrison former fullback now working the tackle position gave the line a much needed boost. Davidson's shifty running marked him as a threat to future opponents.

The starting lineup saw Edmisten and Hodges at end, Harrison and J. Edmisten at tackle, Vannoy and Wilcox, guards, Barnett center. Backs were Moretz, Davidson, Barden and Elrod.

This week the team opens a three game home stand with North Wilkesboro powerful Mountain Lions as the opposition. Statistics give the home team the edge with a record of one win, one tie and one loss as compared with North Wilkesboro with 1 win, 2 losses to date. However, the Wilkes boys will be trying to erase the sting of last years defeat by Boone and a good lively game is forecast.

During the week Coach Quency's boys will be working at polishing their offensive ground game while stressing pass defense and individual tackling and blocking.
