

COVE CREEK HI SCHOOL NEWS

Mrs. Wilson's 8-B section gave a very interesting chapel program on last Wednesday morning. The program consisted of a one-act comedy with the following pupils composing the cast: Grady Gravelly, Patsy Ann Swift, Johnny Horton, Bobbie Greer, Frances Davis, Linda Townsend, Geneva Pennell and Jimmy Oliver.

Rev. Harold Songer of Elizabethton, Tenn. has accepted the pastorate of the Cove Creek Baptist church. Rev. and Mrs. Songer are moving into the pastor's home the first of this week.

Lottie Stout, popular member of the tenth grade has undergone an operation for appendicitis but is now very much improved.

Two members of the senior class have dropped out of school recently, Don Mast to enlist in the army and John J. Bingham to accept employment in High Point. The Cove Creek basketball team continued their winning streak last week by losing only one girls' game out of a total of six games played. On Tuesday night on the home court both the A and B boys defeated Mountain City. The girls lost to Cranberry on Wednesday night in a close game with a score of 29 to 25 while the boys won easily with a 46-23 count. On Friday again on the home court both boys and girls were able to win with second string teams playing against Crossnore.

Games this week will be with Lees-McRae on Monday night and with Appalachian on Friday night. Return games with Mountain City will be played in Mountain City on Tuesday night.

Plans for the high school annual, The Coveteer, are complete. The work, including the making of the pictures and the securing of the advertisements, has been done. Approximately 200 annuals will be printed.

The annual staff is as follows: editors-in-chief, Pat Mast, Janieve Mast; class editor, Violet Watson; literary editors, Macie Townsend, Josephine Greer; sports editors, Blanche Combs, Peggy Bingham, Carson Perry; business manager, Audrey Proffitt; advertising manager, Pat Mast; art editors, Zola Johnson, Ruth Reece, Jimmie Webster, Bennie Mast.

Word has just been received that Pat Mast has been accepted for further interview in regard to receiving the Angier Duke Regional Scholarship of Duke University. Other seniors making application for the scholarship were Jimmie Webster and Janieve Mast.

Rutherford School News

Our school has raised $17.52 for the March of Dimes. Some of the children gave as much as fifty cents. A second grade boy, Norman Michael, gave $3.00.

We want to thank the Lions club for the "Moral Code for Youth" which was presented by Mr. Agle and Mr. Wey when they visited us.

We are very happy to have running water in our school now for the first time. Each classroom has a lavatory and fountain. The lunchroom has hot and cold water. We are indeed proud of the lunchroom and every student but five eat regular. We enjoy our hot lunches prepared by Mrs. Clyde Bodenheimer. She is a wonderful cook and we are very fortunate to have her.

Maybe it's alright to order a guitar or a buzz-saw by mail, but when you buy insurance of any kind, you need a local man to advise and help you. For these reasons:

1. Insurance is so adaptable to individual needs these days, that practically every policy should be "tailor made." You need someone to measure your personal requirements and advise you closely.
2. If, later, you have a loss and a claim, your local agent can arrange collection for you with a minimum of worry to you!
