

Tailtwisters Conduct Lions Club Program

The Boone Lions Club met last Tuesday in the Daniel Boone Hotel dining room, with former and present tailtwisters having charge of the program. Several stunts were "pulled" on various members of the club, for the amusement of the others.

Sale of Centennial season tickets was discussed by Lion President Bob Agle, with members being reminded that the tickets would soon be withdrawn from sale at the special reduced rate offered by Centennial officials.

At the director's meeting, which followed, a committee was appointed to select the Lions pioneer candidate for the Centennial festival.

They subsequently selected I. M. Moretz, former mayor of Boone and now a justice of the peace with office in Boone. Miss Barbara Jones is the club's candidate for queen. She was selected as the Lions Sweetheart at a recent talent show.

It was also voted at the director's meeting to donate $500 to the Watauga Hospital, Incorporated, in their present drive for funds to improve the local institution.
