

APPALACHIAN HI SCHOOL NEWS

The Junior librarians enjoyed a hike on their last Thursday program. The Tuesday Club had reports on vocational books given by the club members. This program was under the direction of Edith Greene.

Recently the library displayed some South American Art Master pieces which Mrs. Beady had borrowed from the Pan American Union. One bulletin board was prepared under the caption, "Art of the Other America."

Recently also the staff has been cataloging some 90 recordings which will be helpful in various class work. Books just received include a revised edition of Emily Post's Etiquette and The New Soviet Empire by David J. Dallin.

Annals Arrive. The Appalachian Study Body was pleased this past week to receive the shipment of the 1950-51 annuals, "The Laurel." In an attractive blue and silver binding this annual presents a pictorial review of the highlights of the 1950-51 school year. This year's annual is dedicated to Mrs. James Greene, office secretary. Mr. Hollis and his annual staff are to be congratulated on this annual.

Field Trip. Thursday, May 3, the Junior Librarians Club under the direction of Miss Carnes took a field trip. It was decided that on the way the members would gather wild flowers to bring back to the library.

The library staff arranged the flowers and made a sign which read:

"Of each of these you can identify by giving scientific names. Proof required."

The response was quick and lively. About seventeen students from every grade participated in identifying from one to five of the ten different examples. These students collected approximately two dollars from the library funds. Every book which the library owns concerning flowers was consulted.

Students who identified flowers included: Bill Moretz, Jo Ann Aldridge, Bobby Miller, Peggy Hampton, Betty Ruth Hodges, Shirley Cook, Ray Hollars, Shirley Ann Norris, Joyce Johnson, Bill Jones, Thelma Phillips, Mildred Lewis, Lena Greer, Betty Sue Breer, Martha Colvard, Judy Lee Sherrill, and Betty Bentley.

Homeroom Officers. Mrs. Hamby's homeroom elected the following homeroom officers for the 51-52 school year: President, Albert Greene; vice-president, Jimmy Graham; secretary-treasurer, Ala Hodges; reporter, Dick Lavendar. Their Student Council member for the next year is Guy Hunt.

Mr. Bingham's homeroom officers were elected May 2. Their new Student Council representative is Kermit Ashley. The officers are as follows: President, Jim Brown; vice-president, Mary Lee Edmisten; secretary - treasurer, Jeanette

Student Council. Student Council members recently elected from the rising senior class to serve on the 1951-52 Student Council are Larry Kerley, president; Orlando Brown, Jo Ann Greene, Harry Farthing, Coaker Triplett, and Jerry Troutman.

Rising juniors who have been re-elected for a second term are Patsy McGuire and Guy Hunt. Newly elected juniors are Kermit Ashley and Jean Templeton.

Members of the rising sophomore class elected to the group are Mary Frank Gragg, a continuing member; Geraldine Brown, Kim Miller and Katherine Payne.

The freshman class will have two members who were re-elected for a second term, Billy Lyons and Keith Van Dyke, and two new members, Bill Brown and Randy Maddux.

Representatives from the seventh and eighth grades will be elected in the fall after school opens so that all members will be able to participate in the election.

FISHERY CATCH

The total catch of fishery products in the United States and Alaska was 4,900,000,000 pounds, only slightly greater than in 1949, but the value to the fishermen, however, was $365,000,000, or twelve per cent higher than the year before and almost at the record 1948 peak. San Pedro, Calif., remained the leading fishing port, followed in order by Gloucester, Mass., and San Diego, Calif.
