Miss Blanche Greene Weds Dwight Hodges

On Saturday afternoon, August 25, 1951, at five o'clock, the Willow Valley Baptist Church, Sugar Grove, was the scene of a beautiful wedding when Miss Blanche Marie Greene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Greene of Sugar Grove, became the bride of Sgt. Dwight Eldon Hodges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis W. Hodges of Boone.

The vows were spoken before an altar of white summer flowers and candelabra holding glowing tapers. Family pews were marked with bouquets of white satin ribbon and white flowers.

The uncle of the bride, Rev. D. M. Edmisten, was the officiating minister, using the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Lillian Swift, pianist, played "Adanto," "Bridal Song" from Rustic, "Wedding Symphony" and "Prayer" from Hansel and Gretel. The traditional wedding marches were used for the professional and recessional.

The bride and groom entered the church together. Jack Ward of Boone was the bridegroom's best man. Mrs. Iva Jean Robertson was matron of honor and only attendant. Ushers were Albert Harmon and Hubert Hodges.

The bride wore a navy blue crepe street length dress with matching accessories. She carried a bouquet of white roses on a white prayer book from which she lifted the corsage and fastened to her dress for traveling.

The matron of honor wore a two piece navy faille suit with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds.

The bride's mother wore a green crepe dress with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a black crepe dress with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip to unknown points of interest.

Mrs. Hodges is a graduate of Cove Creek High School and is a student at Appalachian State Teachers College.

Mr. Hodges attended Boone High School and has served three years in the U. S. Army. He has just returned from serving one year in Korea.
