Juanita Norris, John T. King Married In Double-Ring Ceremony September 6

The wedding of Miss Juanita Geraldine Norris and John Thomas King was solemnized Sunday afternoon, September 6th, at 3 o'clock in the Hopewell Methodist Church. The Reverend W. A. Kerr, minister of the bride, presided over the double-ring ceremony.

Pre-nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Marvin A. Pickard; who played selections by Debussy, and by Mrs. Ned Austin, who sang Brahms' "Wie Bist Du Meine Koenigin," and "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond. Barnby's "O Perfect Love" served as a musical background for the exchanging of the vows. The traditional wedding marches were used.

Vows were spoken before an altar formed by baskets of white gladioli, and cathedral tapers in wrought-iron candelabra, through which green ivy was entwined. A backdrop of mountain laurel and rhododendron, flanked by baskets of white gladioli, provided the setting for the altar.

The couple entered the church together. The bride wore an afternoon dress of steel-blue taffeta, with an Empress neckline, fitted bodice, and a tiered, swirling skirt. Her accessories were a pink velour hat and pink gloves. She carried a white Bible, centered with a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Earl Payne was the bride's only attendant. She wore a Norman Original dress of dusty-rose lace over taffeta, which had a portrait neckline, fitted bodice, and a full, gored skirt edged with matching net. She carried a nosegay of pale lavender and white pom-pom dahlias.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Norris wore a navy-blue ensemble and a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

The best man was Albert W. King of Boone, brother of the groom. Earl Payne and Charles Younce were the ushers.

Mrs. King is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Norris of Boone. She received her education in the Appalachian High School, and for the past two and a half years has been employed in the book keeping department of the Northwestern Bank in Boone.

Mr. King, son of Dr. Robert R. King of the Belgian Congo, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Appalachian State Teachers College in Boone, and his Master of Arts degree from the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill. He is employed by the Farm Bureau Life Insurance Company in Wadesboro. The couple are making their home there.

Miss Sue Taylor Becomes Bride Of Mr. Howard Murry

Miss-Sue Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Chas. D. Taylor and the late Mr. Taylor of Valle Crucis and Howard Murry, well known artist of Valle Crucis and Charlotte were married at noon on Tuesday, September 1st at Holy Cross Episcopal Church at Valle Crucis.

Rev. Harding Hughes of Valle Crucis and Raleigh was the officiating minister, and wedding music was rendered on the organ by Mrs. Ralph Tilden of High Point and Valle Crucis.

Floor baskets of white gladioli were placed at either side of the chancel rail and vases of white daisies were used on the altar.

The bride, wearing a white coat suit and white hat with a corsage of pink rose buds was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. Murry recently returned from Venezuela and Brazil where she held a position with the Nelson Rockefeller rehabilitation program.

She is now employed with the foreign division of the U. S. Agriculture program in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Murry has received wide recognition for his paintings.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a short wedding trip, before going to Washington, D. C. where they will live.

Woman's Club Meets At Church

The Junior Woman's Club in cooperation with local merchants will sponsor a fashion show Friday, September 25, at 8:00 p. m. in the High School Auditorium. The admission will be 50c for adults and 25c for children. There will be favors for everyone and a host of door prizes given by the merchants such as Mary Grey 51 gauge Nylon hose, from Hunt's, a choice of an Eastman-Brownie Kodak or a free 8" by 10" picture from Palmer's Studio and many others you would be pleased to have. Clothes will be modeled by local town and college men and women, boys and girls, featuring fall clothes for every occasion not yet displayed in the stores.

The narrator will be Mrs. Carol DeLima for the women and children, Mr. Bill Ross for the men. Mr. Ross will be in charge at intermission when several numbers will be given by the dancing classes of Mrs. Nancy Cook, and the drawing for the door prizes will be held.

The stores furnishing the clothes are Children's Shop, Caudill's, Harris & Wagoner Men's Store, Bell's, Hunt's, Bare's, and Newton's. The Junior Woman's Club along with the merchants would like to urge you to look around at the stores and make the week of September 20 through September 26, "Shop At Home Week".
