

Demand for 1954-crop flue-tobacco is expected to be slightly higher than in 1953. Prices are expected to be slightly lower.

Wheat prices in North Carolina were 10 to 20 cents lower each month this year than in corresponding months a year earlier.

North Carolina milk producers received 10 to 20 per cent less for ungraded milk this year than during 1952.

Record Of Activities At Blowing Rock Given

By MRS. LUCILE LETT

Wagon Wheel Grill Re-Opens
Wagon Wheel Grill re-opened on Sunday last under new management and will be open seven days a week throughout the winter months. Mrs. Ella Pendley is assuming the management and is assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gragg.

New Minister Arrives
Rev. Carlton Cox has assumed the pastorate of First Baptist church here, presenting his first sermon last Sunday. Rev. and Mrs. Cox were in the home of the J. H. Winklers over the week end but have now moved into the newly-renovated parsonage on the Linville Road.

Junior Choir rehearsal, under direction of Mrs. Selma Lee Bock, will follow these meetings and on other Wednesdays will be held at 3:15 at the church.

Miss Herring Begins Practice Teaching

Miss Martha Herring, daughter of Mrs. Mary Herring, and student at ASTC in Boone, last week began her practice teaching in Davie Avenue Elementary school in Statesville, where she will be doing primary work during this quarter.

Two other Blowing Rock girls are in Statesville attending Mitchell College, Miss Janice Coffey and Miss Bernita Greene.

Mr. Hayes Improves

Latest reports are that Mr. Henry C. Hayes is much improved after suffering a heart attack last week. Mr. Hayes has been in ill health for several years. He is one of Blowing Rock's pioneer men in the business field, having established Hayes' General Store many years ago and maintained the same store until his health forced him to give it up but a few years ago. He has also been the Chamber of Commerce official "weather man" for a long time, the temperature reading being given each day by him for their publication.

Father Of Dr. Davant Dies

Mr. Charles Davant of Augusta, Ga., father of our local physician, Dr. Charles Davant, Jr., died in a hospital in Augusta last Saturday night, after an illness of several weeks.

Funeral services were held there on Monday. Several Blowing Rock men attended, including R. B. Hardin, George Sudderth, Jr., Larry Harris, and Rev. Thomas Seitz.

In Baptist Hospital

Mr. Jim Hodge is a patient at Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem where he was taken last week for observation and treatment.

Serviceman Home

A-2c Plumer Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Greene, was home for the week end from Bolling AFB, Washington, D. C. where he has been stationed for some months. Greene was recently promoted to Airman Second class.

Names Omitted From Published List Retailers

The Merchants Association of Boone and Watauga County wishes to call attention to the following list of names, which were unintentionally omitted from last week's full page advertisement sponsored by the association. These Boone merchants were early contributors to the city-wide Christmas promotion fund, but the sheet listing their names was not submitted, through an oversight, in time for publication last week. Their names also appear in a Merchants Association advertisement in this issue: The Northwestern Bank, Farmers Hardware & Supply Co., Boone Tire & Bargain Store, Watauga Democrat, Hi-Land Cleaners, Western Auto Store, Boone Trail Restaurant, Parkway Hardware Co., Walker's Jewelry Store, Hollars Grocery, Watauga Hardware, Sinclair Service Station, Variety Bakery, Bare's Dept. Store.

Wagner Reunion Held In Princeton

Princeton, W. Va.—The family of Mrs. Jud Wagner who resides with her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Cole, Route 1, Princeton, spent Thanksgiving Day together. This is the first time the family has been together for fifteen years.
